BUSINESS OPERATIONS

STUART STERNBERG / PRINCIPAL OWNER

Principal Owner Stuart Sternberg enters his 20th season with the Tampa Bay Rays. He joined as a general partner of the franchise in 2004 and became its principal owner after the 2005 season. Sternberg decided to rebrand the franchise to the Rays prior to the 2008 season. It marked the beginning of a new era for the Tampa Bay Rays.

In the 15 seasons since then, the Rays own the fourth-best record in baseball at 1,267-1,062 (.544) and have made eight trips to the postseason, including four AL East division titles (2021, 2020, 2010, 2008) and two World Series appearances (2020, 2008). During this span, only three clubs (Dodgers, Yankees, Cardinals) have reached the postseason more often than the Rays, and only four (Astros, Dodgers, Giants, Phillies) have competed in more World Series. This success comes after the Devil Rays amassed the majors' worst record at 645-972 (.399) over the club's first decade of existence.

"Sternberg is the connective tissue running through the two [World Series] teams," wrote Richard Justice on MLB.com. "His taking over the Rays in 2005 began one of the great turnarounds in baseball history, from one of the least successful franchises to one of the best."

Sternberg has built an organization that encourages experimentation and nurtures new ideas. In 2008, 2019 and again in 2021, Baseball America named the Rays its MLB Organization of the Year. This environment has cultivated some of the top leadership talent across the game, including numerous managers and general managers for both small- and large-market teams.

"You want to know why they have so many innovative strategies?" wrote Tampa Bay Times columnist John Romano. "Because owner Stu Sternberg is not constantly looking over their shoulders, tallying up every success and failure."

Sternberg takes great pride in the organization's community service and commitment to its employees. Under his leadership, an employee-first culture defines the organization. It is fostered through myriad initiatives, including a wellness program and a staff-led service group, the Employee Community Outreach Team (ECOT). As part of this commitment to community involvement, all employees are urged to spend one paid day each month volunteering. To date, total volunteer hours for the organization exceed 41,000.

Over the past six years, Sternberg and his partners have invested more than $25 million in capital improvements to Tropicana Field—including upgrades to the video boards and speaker system; energy-efficient LED lights throughout the stadium; an overhauled food, beverage and retail space; and the versatile Left Field Ledge. Since 2005, the Rays have invested more than $55 million in upgrades to Tropicana Field.

Under his direction, the Rays have implemented a wide variety of fan-friendly policies. The organization was the first major league team to convert its ballpark to a cash-free facility, reducing wait times by up to 50 percent at concession and retail locations. The Rays commitment to technology and innovation has continued in recent years, and accelerated in the wake of COVID-19, with investment in new technologies and building systems to support mobile ticketing, mobile payments and promote a contactless and frictionless fan journey. The Rays also have been rated by ESPN as one of the most affordable experiences in all of sports.

Sternberg serves as chairman of MLB's Strategic Planning Committee. He is also a member of both MLB's Ownership Committee and its Diversity and Inclusion Board. Additionally, Sternberg is a member of the board of advisors for Moffitt Cancer Center.

Prior to his ownership of the Rays, Sternberg spent 25 years in the financial securities industry, serving as a partner in Spear, Leeds & Kellogg and then as a partner and managing director at Goldman Sachs, from which he retired in 2003. Sternberg and his wife, Lisa, have four children. He resides in St. Petersburg.

MATT SILVERMAN / PRESIDENT

Matt Silverman enters his 21st season with the Rays and 16th as team president. Together, he and Brian Auld lead the club's operations both internally and externally.

Silverman returned to the team president role in the fall of 2017 after serving three seasons (2015-17) as president of baseball operations. He was first promoted to team president in October 2005 at the age of 29, and over the next nine years guided the franchise through the most progressive growth stage in its history. At the top of the list is the revitalization of the Rays. In the fall of 2007, Silverman directed a complete organizational rebranding including a new name, colors, uniforms and logo, a bright yellow sunburst.

While steering the baseball operations department, Silverman oversaw significant leadership changes, both on the field and in the front office. During this time, he and his staff engineered 36 trades involving nearly 100 players, restocking the organization's minor league pipeline. In December 2014, he hired Kevin Cash to become the fifth manager in Rays history. In November 2016, he elevated Erik Neander and others within the baseball operations department. One year later, his move back to team president completed the transition of baseball leadership, passing the baton to Neander as the team's top-ranking baseball official. Neander would eventually be recognized as MLB Executive of the Year and Cash AL Manager of the Year twice.

Silverman is chairman emeritus of Starting Right, Now, which helps homeless high school students reach their potential. He is in his 11th year as the first chairman of the board of the Positive Coaching Alliance Tampa Bay, the regional chapter of the national nonprofit providing youth and high school athletes a positive, character-building youth sports experience. He also serves on the board of the Rays Baseball Foundation.

Prior to joining the Rays, Silverman worked closely with Stuart Sternberg at Goldman Sachs and orchestrated Sternberg's purchase of controlling interest in the franchise. In 2018, Silverman and Auld oversaw the Rays purchase of the Tampa Bay Rowdies USL soccer team, based in St. Petersburg. They now also serve as vice chairmen of the Rowdies, overseeing all franchise operations.

The Dallas native first met Auld in high school, and they graduated one year apart. He holds a bachelor of economics degree from Harvard University. Matt and his wife, Andrea, reside in St. Petersburg with their three daughters: Alexa, Samantha and Casey.

SPECIAL SEATS

Fans at Tropicana Field will notice two golden seats, one white seat and one seat memorialized with a plaque in the right field seating area. The golden seat in the third row of Section 148 is the location where the Rays first home run landed, a two-run shot hit by Wade Boggs off DET Justin Thompson in the 6th inning of the Rays inaugural game on March 31, 1998. The other golden seat, in Section 144, marks the spot where Boggs' 3,000th hit landed, a two-run home run off CLE Chris Haney on Aug 7, 1999. The white seat in Section 140 (Row T, Seat 10) marks the spot where Dan Johnson's two-out, 9th-inning, game-tying home run landed against the Yankees in Game 162 of the 2011 season. Three innings later, Evan Longoria hit a walk-off homer to left field giving the Rays an 8-7 win, clinching the AL Wild Card.

Finally, on July 11, 2015, the Rays dedicated a special seat above the right field walkway that will always remain empty in remembrance of prisoners of war (POW) and those missing in action (MIA). Then-president of baseball operations Matt Silverman and pitcher Matt Moore joined World War II veteran and former POW Andrew H. Hines Jr. and Rep. David Jolly of the 13th Congressional District in the pregame ceremony.

BRIAN AULD / PRESIDENT

Brian Auld begins his 20th season with the Rays and his 10th in his current position as team president. Together, he and Matt Silverman lead the club's operations both internally and externally.

In his tenure as team president, Auld has brought a renewed focus to the Rays mission—to energize the community through the magic of Rays baseball—by redoubling the Rays commitment to its community and to its employees.

Under Auld's leadership, the Rays have developed a thriving workplace culture. In addition to paid parental leave, adoption benefits, paid volunteer time and a wellness initiative, the Rays created a $15 minimum wage for all part-time employees.

In 2018, Auld and Silverman oversaw the Rays purchase of the Tampa Bay Rowdies USL soccer team, based in St. Petersburg. They now also serve as vice chairmen of the Rowdies, overseeing all franchise operations.

Prior to Auld's promotion to team president, he oversaw a wide spectrum of the team's business operations, including the human resources, information technology, marketing, ticket sales, fan experience and stadium operations departments. Auld joined the Rays in June 2005 as director of planning and development, where he worked closely with Silverman to define organizational priorities and assist with the transition in ownership. Soon after, he played a key role in establishing the Employee Community Outreach Team (ECOT). All Rays staff may spend up to one paid workday each month volunteering in the community and ECOT assists by planning opportunities.

Before joining the Rays, Auld attended Harvard Business School, where he earned his MBA focusing on managing human capital, marketing and finance. Auld's previous work experience includes serving as lead teacher and director of development for the East Palo Alto Charter School in California.

Born in Berkeley, Calif., Auld received a bachelor's degree in economics and master's degree in education from Stanford University, where he also captained the lacrosse team. He and Silverman met in high school in Dallas, and graduated one year apart. Brian is proud to claim that he once trekked to the bottom of Mount Everest.

He currently serves on the boards of directors for the Rays Baseball Foundation, Big Brothers Big Sisters of Tampa Bay and CEOs Against Cancer. In addition, he serves on the Sports Advisory Council for Special Olympics Florida and is chair of the Tampa Bay Partnership.

Auld and his wife, Molly, reside in St. Petersburg and are proud parents of two daughters, Lucy and Mia, and a son, Jack.

ECOT

Established in April 2008, the Rays Employee Community Outreach Team provides invaluable, voluntary man hours to community service agencies that enhance or improve the quality of life in the communities it serves. ECOT's philanthropic efforts give the Rays a year-round, goodwill presence in the community. Service projects are chosen from ideas suggested by employees.

"As part of our Employee Community Outreach Team program, we encourage all employees to take one paid day each month to volunteer in the community," said Rays President Brian Auld.

In total, Rays employees have logged more than 41,000 volunteer hours split between monthly ECOT events and other ongoing projects, including Meals On Wheels, Big Brothers Big Sisters mentoring program and time spent at the Ronald McDonald House.

JOHN P. HIGGINS

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF ADMINISTRATION & GENERAL COUNSEL

John P. Higgins joined the Rays organization as its first employee on April 1, 1995, when he was named the team's senior vice president and general counsel. In January 2016, he recommenced oversight of the organization's accounting and finance department after serving as the team's chief financial officer from 1999–2007. Higgins has practiced law in the Tampa Bay area since 1979, specializing in corporate, commercial and real estate law. He is also a certified public accountant. For three years, he represented Vince Naimoli and the rest of the Tampa Bay ownership group in its efforts to acquire a Major League Baseball franchise. In addition to his responsibilities with the Rays, he is "of counsel" to the Holland & Knight law firm. Higgins currently serves as a member of the board of directors for the Rays Baseball Foundation. He is also past chairman of the St. Petersburg Area Chamber of Commerce. He was the recipient of the 2013 Clutch Hitters Award from the Clutch Hitters of Tampa Bay organization. Higgins received his bachelor of business administration degree from the University of Notre Dame in 1975 and his juris doctorate degree from Duke University School of Law in 1979. He currently resides in St. Petersburg, his home since 1960, with his wife, Robin. They have two sons, Sean and Patrick, and two grandchildren, Ryan Matthew and Jordan Riley.

RAFAELA A. AMADOR FINK

CHIEF PUBLIC AFFAIRS & COMMUNICATIONS OFFICER

Rafaela A. Amador Fink was promoted to chief public affairs and communications officer in November 2021 and enters her 11th season with the Rays. In this role, she oversees broadcasting, baseball information, communications, public affairs, social media, and diversity, equity and inclusion. She works across departments to ensure consistent and effective communication internally and externally, manages all crisis communications and serves as the club's government affairs liaison. Prior to joining the Rays, she served as an account director at a public relations and public affairs firm, was vice president of public affairs and communications at a chamber of commerce, worked in local politics and taught high school English. She received a 2009 Ford Foundation Fellowship for Regional Sustainable Development through the American Chamber of Commerce Executives and traveled to various cities in the United States and China throughout her course of study. Amador holds a bachelor's degree in international studies with a Spanish minor from the University of South Florida. She serves on the board of directors for The Orenda Foundation, Tampa Theatre, Tampa Bay EDC, Tampa Bay Chamber of Commerce and Tampa Bay Sports Commission, and is a member of the Tampa Bay Area Committee on Foreign Relations and USF's Women in Leadership and Philanthropy. She was also a founding board member of the New Leaders Council Tampa Bay chapter and served as an Honorary Commander at MacDill Air Force Base. Jenn Tran begins her 28th year with the Rays and third as chief people and community officer. In this role, she oversees human resources and community engagement. Tran will continue to enhance the employee-first culture at the Rays and drive employee engagement through exceptional benefits, wellness programming, training and development with a focus on diversity. She was named Rays co-Employee of the Year in 2009. A native of south St. Petersburg, she joined the Rays organization in 1996 as a member of the finance and administration department, and has served several areas of the organization since then. In 1994, prior to joining the Rays, Tran worked for the City of St. Petersburg during its pursuit of a Major League Baseball franchise. Jenn earned her bachelor's degree in business management from Eckerd College. She currently maintains her senior certified professional designation from the Society for Human Resource Management, as well as her Certified Plan Sponsor Professional designation from the Plan Sponsor Council of America, and serves as both a board member and fervent volunteer for Feeding Tampa Bay. In 2022, Jenn completed the Tour du Mont Blanc, a 113-mile solo trek through France, Italy and Switzerland. Jenn resides in Clearwater with her two dogs and in her free time, enjoys spending time in the mountains of North Georgia.

BILL WALSH / CHIEF BUSINESS OFFICER

Bill Walsh was promoted to chief business officer in December 2021. In this role, he oversees the departments central to consumer revenue generation, including business strategy and analytics, creative services, marketing, and ticket sales and service. Since joining the Rays in 2007, he has led a number of business development efforts for the club, including capital projects management, digital and mobile strategy, market analysis and technology investment. Walsh also led the initiative to convert Tropicana Field to a cash-free fan experience in 2019, one of the first professional sports venues in North America to do so. Prior to the Rays, Walsh served as vice president of real estate development for the New York City Economic Development Corporation during the Bloomberg administration, where he worked with developers and community groups on public-private partnership projects totaling over $1 billion in private investment. He earned a master's degree from Columbia University in 2003, where he studied urban planning and development, and a bachelor's degree from the University of Connecticut in 2001. He serves on the Board of Governors of the St. Petersburg Area Chamber of Commerce and was named Big Brother of the Year in 2012 through his volunteer activities with Big Brothers Big Sisters of Pinellas County. He and his wife, Audra, live in St. Petersburg with their three children: Teddy, Clara and Jacqueline.

BILL WIENER JR. / CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER

Bill Wiener Jr. enters his 28th year with the Rays and first as chief administrative officer. In this role, he oversees stadium and event operations along with risk management. Wiener works to refine processes and develop greater efficiencies, focusing on the fan and employee experience. He was named Rays co-Employee of the Year in 2002. He joined the Rays organization in 1996 as a member of the administration department, and throughout his tenure with the Rays has gained experience in many facets of the business. In 2022, Bill was appointed by the Office of the Commissioner to serve as trustee of Major League Baseball's league-wide insurance program. Prior to joining the Rays, he worked for the law firm retained by the Tampa Bay ownership group to acquire a Major League Baseball franchise. Wiener earned his bachelor's degree in pre-law and criminal studies from the University of South Florida. Outside of the office, Bill is involved with Buddy Baseball and currently coaches one of its teams. He is also a board member of the Safety Harbor Chamber and St. Vincent De Paul Cares. He and his wife, Elena, reside in Clearwater with their daughters, Kaitlyn and Brenna.

VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNICATIONS & BROADCASTING

De Anna Sheffield Ward joined the Rays as vice president, media and communications in January 2022 and transitioned to vice president, communications and broadcasting a year later. In addition to leading the broadcasting department and social media team, she assists with business communications and crisis communications. Ward spent 14 years in various marketing, communications, development and corporate partnership roles with Big Brothers Big Sisters of America and Big Brothers Big Sisters of Tampa Bay. She began her career working in local television as a reporter, anchor and community affairs host in six different television markets, including six years with WTSP-TV Tampa Bay from 2001-07. Ward earned her bachelor's degree in mass communications from Jackson State University and has certifications in fundraising and diversity, equity and inclusion. She was selected to Major League Baseball's 2023 Katy Feeney Leadership Award Class, is a member of the 2007 Class of Leadership Tampa, and was named Tampa Bay's Big Sister of the Year in 2013. She spends time volunteering in the community as a member of Jack and Jill of America, Inc. and Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. Ward and her husband, Rodney, reside in Apollo Beach with their two children, Payton and Jackson.

ERIC WEISBERG / VICE PRESIDENT, FAN EXPERIENCE

Eric Weisberg enters his 17th season in the Rays organization and third as vice president of fan experience. In this role, he leads the fan experience, stadium operations, and game presentation departments in creating a fun, positive service culture that emphasizes fan engagement. Prior to his current role, he spent five seasons leading the marketing and creative services department, including the last four as vice president of marketing and creative services. He was named Rays co-Employee of the Year in 2015. Prior to the Rays, Weisberg was the assistant director of guest services for the Kansas City Zoo and spent nearly 12 years in broadcast marketing roles for the Radio Disney Network and Walt Disney Parks and Attractions. He earned his bachelor's degree in radio, television and film from the University of Maryland. Weisberg serves on the board of directors at The Florida Aquarium and is a member of the Lee Roy Selmon Mentoring Institute. He and his wife, Mindy, reside in Riverview with their two daughters, Abby and Julia.

BASEBALL OPERATIONS

ERIK NEANDER / PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Erik Neander (nee-ANN-der) was named president, baseball operations on Sept. 8, 2021 and enters his seventh season as the club's top-ranking baseball official. As the leader of baseball operations, Erik collaborates with all areas of the department to set the vision and expectations for the entire operation. In addition to working to sustain a people-first culture, he directly oversees functional areas, including player evaluation and procurement, the major league coaching and support staff, and roster and staff management.

Neander, 40, begins his 18th season in the Rays organization. He joined the Rays as a baseball operations intern in Jan. 2007 and was hired full-time in Oct. 2007. He was later promoted to manager, baseball research and development in Nov. 2009, director of baseball operations in Nov. 2011, vice president of baseball operations in Oct. 2014 and senior vice president of baseball operations and general manager on Nov. 4, 2016. One year later, Matt Silverman shifted to team president after a three-year stretch as president of baseball operations.

With Neander as the club's top-ranking baseball official, the Rays have made the postseason in five consecutive seasons, extending the longest streak in team history. The Rays are one of four teams in the majors to make the postseason each year from 2019-23, joining the Astros, Braves and Dodgers. Under Neander over the past five seasons, the Rays own the fourth-best record in baseball at 511-359 (.587), trailing only the Dodgers (.641), Astros (.609) and Braves (.593). He and his group assembled a club that finished with the best record in the AL in both 2020 and 2021.

In 2021, the Rays went 100-62 and set a club record for wins in a single season. For the second time in three years (2019), the Rays were recognized as Baseball America's Organization of the Year. In the shortened 2020 season, Erik assembled a team that went 40-20 and reached the World Series. In 2019, the team's accomplishments earned industry acclaim for both Neander and the organization. Erik was selected by his peers as Major League Baseball's Executive of the Year and earned a similar honor from the Sporting News.

Of the current 40-man roster and 60-day IL, 36 players have been acquired since Erik was appointed the club's top-ranking baseball official (and 23 via trade). In Dec. 2022, Neander signed Zach Eflin to a three-year, $40 million deal, the largest by total value in franchise history for a free agent. Among the trade acquisitions are pitchers Shane Baz, Aaron Civale, Garrett Cleavinger, Pete Fairbanks, Ryan Pepiot, Colin Poche, Drew Rasmussen and Jeffrey Springs. Also included are position players José Caballero, Junior Caminero, Jonny DeLuca, Richie Palacios, Isaac Paredes, Harold Ramírez, Jose Siri, 2021 AL Rookie of the Year Randy Arozarena and 2023 AL batting champion Yandy Díaz.

The Rays enter the 2024 season ranked by Baseball America as the No. 7 farm system in the game, the seventh consecutive season they have placed among the preseason's top-10 systems. The publication placed six Rays prospects on its preseason top-100 list: Junior Caminero (No. 3), Carson Williams (No. 37), Curtis Mead (No. 65), Shane Baz (No. 66), Xavier Isaac (No. 69) and Brayden Taylor (No. 95). It ties the Orioles, Padres and Yankees for the most top-100 prospects among major league clubs.

Prior to joining the Rays, Erik worked for Baseball Info Solutions. The Oneonta, N.Y. native graduated from Virginia Tech with a bachelor's of science in food, nutrition and exercise. He and his wife, Jessica, reside in Tampa with their sons, Penn and Corbin; daughter, Eden; and their rescue animals.

In this role, he oversees baseball research and development, and reviews and optimizes resources across the baseball systems. He joined the Rays as an analyst in research and development in June 2015 and was later promoted to senior data scientist in November 2017, director of baseball research and development in February 2019 and vice president of baseball development in December 2021. Prior to joining the Rays organization, he spent three years researching ocean waves at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. A native of Columbia, S.C., Cousins earned a degree in mathematics from Pepperdine University and a PhD in applied math from North Carolina State University. He and his wife, Katelyn, live in St. Petersburg with their daughters, Margot and Meadow.

KEVIN IBACH / VICE PRESIDENT, ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Kevin Ibach was promoted to vice president, assistant general manager in November 2023 and begins his 12th season with the Rays. In this new role, Ibach primarily oversees the entirety of the Rays player development and player personnel efforts while also broadly supporting the baseball operations leadership group on a day-to-day basis. Prior to his promotion to AGM, Ibach served as Vice President, Player Personnel. In that role, he oversaw both the internal and external evaluation of professional players and helped lead the effort on all trade acquisitions and free agent signings. Ibach has spent the majority of his time as an executive leading the Rays pro personnel and pro scouting departments, managing the flow of information between scouts and baseball operations leadership. Ibach joined the Rays as a pro scout in October 2012 and was later promoted to director of pro scouting in November 2015 and senior director of pro personnel and pro scouting in January 2020. He is entering his 24th season in professional baseball. Before joining the Rays, he spent five years with the Marlins as a Midwest area scout and seven years as a baseball operations coordinator with the Orioles. Ibach graduated from La Salle University, where he majored in communication and played shortstop. He then signed a contract with the Schaumburg Flyers of the independent Northern League. Kevin and his wife, Laurie, reside in Geneva, Ill., with their three daughters: Adalyn, Kinley and Harper.

CHANDA LAWDERMILK

RAYS IN THE COMMUNITY

RAYS BASEBALL FOUNDATION

Official Charity of the Tampa Bay Rays

THE TAMPA BAY RAYS ARE COMMITTED TO BEING A STRONG COMMUNITY PARTNER AND ENERGIZING OUR COMMUNITY THROUGH THE MAGIC OF RAYS BASEBALL.

The Rays Baseball Foundation, a 501(c)(3) organization and the official charity of the Rays, is dedicated to improving the lives of those in need within our community, focusing primarily on education, youth development, wellness and social responsibility. Key contributors to the foundation include Rays owners, players, corporate partners, fans and employees.

PROGRAMS

BIG GAME JAMES CLUB

In 2010, Rays pitcher James Shields, and his wife, Ryane, along with the Rays, donated a suite to begin a special club for foster children called the Big Game James Club. In 2013, the suite was renamed the Home Run Club following Shields' trade to the Kansas City Royals. On Opening Day 2023, James symbolically retired as a Ray and the Home Run Club returned to its original name, the Big Game James Club. In partnership with United Concordia Dental, the Big Game James Club will continue to offer a sense of stability and belonging to foster children and support for adoptive families. More than 32,000 suite tickets have been donated. Furthering the organization's support for foster children and families, the ballpark also plays host to a permanent Heart Gallery exhibit, displaying professional portraits and personal biographies of children waiting to be adopted. The Big Game James Club and Heart Gallery events hosted by the Rays have resulted in numerous adoptions for local foster children.

RAYS JERSEY PROGRAM

Since 2014, the Rays Jersey Program has outfitted more than 100,000 Tampa Bay area Tee Ball players and coaches with jerseys and caps. The program serves nearly 80 leagues in nine area counties and has saved the leagues more than $1 million in equipment costs. As a result of these savings, officials from some of the participating leagues have noted that they have the ability to pass these savings along to participant families. They have also been able to repair their scoreboards, provide upgrades to dugouts, add fencing for fields, purchase additional equipment and grounds crew supplies and repair concession stands and other areas of their facilities.

RAYS SCIENCE OF BASEBALL

Each summer, Rays baseball operations staff members teach STEM curriculum at Academy Prep campuses in Lakeland, Tampa and St. Petersburg. Across five days at each campus, staff members teach students lessons from the Rays Science of Baseball program, which includes subjects such as geometry, physiology and statistics. Since 2022, over 4,800 hours of STEM instruction have been taught through the Rays Science of Baseball program.

READING WITH THE RAYS

Since 2006, the Rays Baseball Foundation's summer reading program, Reading with the Rays presented by Suncoast Credit Union, has encouraged kids to avoid summer reading loss by participating in a fun and interactive reading program over the summer months. More than 500,000 Tampa Bay area students from nine surrounding counties have participated since its inception. The program is made possible through a partnership with the Tampa Bay Times Newspaper in Education, the Rays and public library systems in Charlotte, Citrus, Hernando, Hillsborough, Manatee, Pasco, Pinellas, Polk and Sarasota counties.

TEAM SMILE

Since 2018, the Rays have partnered with Team Smile, an advocacy group that partners dental professionals with professional athletic organizations to provide life-changing dental care to underserved children in their communities. In 2018-19, the Rays hosted more than 400 children from the Boys & Girls Clubs of the Suncoast and local foster care groups for a free dental day at Tropicana Field. In 2022-23, Team Smile provided free dental care to children from Campbell Park Elementary and John Hopkins Middle School. The children received dental work free of charge, including X-rays, screening and educational material on how to protect their teeth. The value of care provided since 2018 has totaled nearly $270,000.

SOUTH ST. PETERSBURG NEIGHBORHOOD INITIATIVE

The Rays launched the South St. Petersburg Neighborhood Initiative in response to the tragic 2009 shooting death of 8-year-old Paris Whitehead in south St. Petersburg, an underrepresented community that borders Tropicana Field. This program benefits the following organizations and initiatives:

- Academy Prep Center of St. Petersburg
- Boys & Girls Clubs of the Suncoast
- Burg Baseball
- Campbell Park Elementary
  - Field Days
  - Great American Teach In
  - Mentoring
  - Rays Room
- Feeding Tampa Bay Mobile Pantry
- Field Renovations
- John Hopkins Middle School Food Pantry

SCHOLARSHIPS

Since 2008, the Rays Baseball Foundation has teamed up with local partners to provide more than $2 million in college scholarships to students participating in the Take Stock in Children program in Hillsborough, Manatee, Pasco, Pinellas and Sarasota counties. The foundation also funds the Academy Prep Centers for Education Scholarships in Tampa, St. Petersburg and Lakeland, the St. Petersburg College Foundation First Generation Scholars, Barry Jones Memorial Scholarship and the Don Zimmer Memorial Scholarship.

GRANTS

COMMUNITY FUND GRANT PROGRAM

The Rays Community Fund Grant Program provides assistance to local nonprofits in the Tampa Bay region. These grants help enhance and support current programs offered by community-based nonprofit organizations. The foundation has invested more than $2 million in over 370 local nonprofits through this program.

COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM

The Rays Baseball Foundation is proud to maintain long-standing partnerships with key community organizations throughout Tampa Bay. The foundation provides over $500,000 in grants each year to established community partners in support of existing programs that serve our region.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

The Rays commit $100,000 annually to support causes that fight systemic racism within our country. With the goal of amplifying the important, ongoing work done by those on the front lines of this effort, the Rays launched a social justice microsite, highlighting the Racial Equity Grant Program, BIPOC businesses in Tampa Bay, educational resources ranging from museums to print and digital media, and local social justice and community development organizations. For more information, visit raysbaseball.com/socialjustice.

ECOT

The Rays Employee Community Outreach Team (ECOT) was established in 2008 to provide invaluable volunteer hours to community service agencies that enhance or improve the quality of life in the communities they serve. In total, Rays employees have logged more than 43,000 volunteer hours to support nonprofits in the Tampa Bay region.

IN-KIND DONATIONS

Each year, the Rays donate thousands of tickets, suites, experiences and autographed memorabilia to assist organizations in our nine neighboring counties to raise funds for their respective causes.

PLAY BALL

The goal of Rays Play Ball is to celebrate youth baseball and softball while simultaneously encouraging participation in all forms of the game. The Rays do this through support of youth leagues, the Rays Jersey Program, field renovations and various Play Ball events, including MLB's Play Ball Weekend.

Each summer, the Rays host children with unique abilities for the Rays Baseball Magic Clinic at Tropicana Field. Children and their buddies complete various stations, receiving instruction on hitting, pitching and fielding. In addition, prior to every Monday home game, children with unique abilities join Rays players on the field for batting practice and the National Anthem.

PLAYER & RAYS WIVES PROGRAMS

LOWE'S HOME RUNS FOR HOPE

For every home run Rays infielder Brandon Lowe hits, he and his wife, Madison, will donate $100 to the Crisis Center of Tampa Bay. The Rays Baseball Foundation will also contribute $100 per home run in support of Lowe's "Home Runs for Hope" campaign. To date, the campaign has raised over $15,000. The Crisis Center of Tampa Bay provides a range of services to ensure that no one in the community has to face a crisis alone. It is open 24 hours a day, 365 days a year as the community gateway to help. People who are struggling with a variety of crisis situations including sexual assault or abuse, domestic violence, financial distress, substance abuse, medical emergency, suicidal thoughts and other emotional or situational problems can connect to hope and healing.

LOWE'S LEGENDS

As part of the Lowe's Legends program, Brandon and Madison Lowe host youth baseball and softball players from local leagues for Rays games throughout the season, including special meet and greet opportunities. Lowe's Legends is a program focused on supporting and inspiring youth to play the game of baseball or softball.

TUESDAY'S CHAMPION

Before every Tuesday home game at Tropicana Field, the Rays host a child from the Children's Dream Fund or Make-A-Wish Foundation at the ballpark as a part of a special program called "Tuesday's Champion." The kids, accompanied by their families, are invited to participate in a VIP experience which includes being on the field during batting practice, where they can meet and interact with Rays players and coaches. They are then treated to dinner in the Rays Club before taking the field and throwing out the ceremonial first pitch. Along with these experiences, they are given a personalized jersey and a bat to commemorate the experience. The children selected for the program are battling life-threatening illnesses and occasionally come straight from the hospital for this special experience.

RAYS FAMILIES

Throughout the season, the Rays Families support the community through various initiatives. In 2022, the Rays Families supported the Crisis Center of Tampa Bay and the Rays Baseball Foundation.

FUNDRAISING

50/50 CHARITY RAFFLE

Through the Rays Baseball Foundation 50/50 Charity Raffle, one lucky fan will walk away with a cash prize. Fans in the state of Florida can purchase tickets online or at Tropicana Field during Rays home games. Some exclusions apply. For more information, visit raysbaseball.com/5050.

GAMEDAY MEMORABILIA

On September 19, 2023, the Tampa Bay Rays announced that a historic agreement had been reached with the City of St. Petersburg and Pinellas County to move forward with a new state-of-the-art ballpark and a transformational development by the Hines Historic Gas Plant Partnership on the 86-acre site where the team's current stadium sits. The agreement advances a project for St. Petersburg, Pinellas County and the Tampa Bay region that will include several million square feet of mixed-use development and a new, neighborhood ballpark for the Rays that ensures Major League Baseball is here to stay in St. Petersburg for generations. Overall, this historic project will invest more than $6.5 billion in St. Petersburg over 20 years and be the largest mixed-use development project in Tampa Bay history.

A NEW BALLPARK & COMMUNITY SPACE

St. Petersburg's love affair with baseball dates back well over a century, hosting nine MLB teams for spring training and Negro League games at Campbell Park during the segregation era, culminating with the arrival of its own MLB team in 1998. The development of a new state-of-the-art ballpark represents the next chapter of St. Petersburg's baseball history and ensures it will remain one of the unique 26 communities with an MLB team.

Showcasing and further enhancing Pinellas County as a world-class destination for tourism and visitation, the venue will be broadcast nightly into the largest markets across America during baseball season. It will also be designed as an active 365-day-a-year event venue, hosting other large sporting events, concerts, community gatherings including graduations and convention meetings.

A BALLPARK LIKE NO OTHER

- Covered, enclosed and air-conditioned ballpark will ensure comfort and protection from the elements while utilizing transparent glazing and operable walls to "bring the outside in."
- Architectural style embracing the Florida lifestyle and the natural beauty and character of Tampa Bay, showcasing our environment, culture and history.
- Capacity of around 30,000 for baseball and 35,000 for special events will provide the most intimate experience in MLB and exceptional sightlines for fans.
- The ballpark's unique roof design captures the essence of a "Pavilion" – a community gathering space known for it's openness, airiness and flexibility.
- Modern amenities and the latest technologies will provide unique experiences and family-friendly activities including an aquarium exhibit/experience and indoor/outdoor kids zones.

MANAGING & COACHING CAREER

- His career 739-617 (.545) record is the best winning pct. of any manager in club history and ranks fourth among active managers…the 739 victories are 15 shy of the Rays all-time leader, Joe Maddon (754)…entering the 2024 season, he owns the eighth-most wins among active skippers.
- Named the fifth manager in Rays history on Dec. 5, 2014…is tied with his predecessor, Joe Maddon (2006-14), as the longest-tenured managers in club history…would surpass Maddon on Opening Day in 2024.
- Entering his 10th season with the Rays, he is the longest-tenured major league manager with his current team, ahead of SEA Scott Servais and LAD Dave Roberts (8 seasons each).
- On Oct. 9, 2018, agreed to a contract extension through the 2024 season with a club option for 2025.
- Has been named a BBWAA AL Manager of the Year finalist five times in the last six seasons (since 2018), winning the award twice (2020-21) and receiving votes in all six of those seasons.
- Three other current managers are former members of his coaching staff: Rocco Baldelli (Twins), Derek Shelton (Pirates) and Matt Quatraro (Royals)…on Oct. 25, 2018, Baldelli and Charlie Montoyo (Blue Jays) were both hired away for managerial jobs…became the first manager to lose two members of his staff to big league managing jobs in one offseason since FLA Jim Leyland after winning the 1997 World Series.
- Has been ejected 16 times as Rays manager, second most in franchise history behind Joe Maddon (37).
- In 2023, led the Rays to a 99-63 record and a fifth consecutive postseason berth, extending the longest streak in club history…managed the Rays to a sixth straight winning season and the second-most wins in franchise history, trailing only Cash's 2021 Rays (100-62).
- Named an AL Manager of the Year finalist by the BBWAA for the fifth time in six years, receiving 13 second-place and 13 third-place votes…was chosen alongside TEX Bruce Bochy and eventual winner BAL Brandon Hyde.
- Overcame 23 different players totaling 30 stints on the injured list…only five players from the Opening Day roster remained active all season: OF Randy Arozarena, C Christian Bethancourt, INF Isaac Paredes, LHP Colin Poche and INF/OF Harold Ramírez…three of the five members of the Opening Day starting rotation suffered season-ending injuries: LHP Shane McClanahan, RHP Drew Rasmussen and LHP Jeffrey Springs…16 Rays pitchers spent time on the IL, tied for third most in the AL behind the Angels (18) and Athletics (17)…the Rays ended the season with 11 players on the injured list; in the AL, only the Angels and Yankees (15 each) had more.
- Used 58 players, tied with the Brewers and Dodgers for the most among postseason teams and tied for fourth most in the majors overall…his 37 pitchers used (excluding position players) were the most among postseason teams and third most overall behind the Athletics (39) and Reds (38)…it tied the second most pitchers used in Rays history, one shy of matching the club record from 2021.
- Had 25 pitchers record a win, tied for second most in the majors behind the Angels (26)…had only one qualified pitcher (Zach Eflin).
- Used 152 different batting orders in 162 games…did not use the same order more than twice.
- Was ejected a career-high-tying three times, his most since 2015 (May 5 vs. PIT; Sept. 2 at CLE; Sept. 17 at BAL).

- On July 15 at KC (G2), the Rays 4-2 victory over the Royals marked his 700th career win, making him the ninth active manager to achieve the milestone at the time…MIL Craig Counsell joined the group later in the season.
- In 2022, managed the Rays to a 86-76 record and led them to a fourth straight postseason berth, extending the longest streak in club history…led the Rays to a fifth consecutive winning season.
- Survived 31 different players totaling 42 stints on the injured list…only four players from the Opening Day roster remained active all season: RHP Jason Adam, OF Randy Arozarena, RHP Corey Kluber and INF Taylor Walls…their injured list reached 17 players on July 14 and from July 27-29, tying the single-game club record (Aug 16-17, 2021; Aug 19-22, 2021; Aug 24-25, 2021)…according to Spotrac, the Rays totaled 2,296 days on the injured list, third in the majors behind the Reds (2,638) and Twins (2,363).
- Used 61 players, matching the club record from 2021 and tied with the Mets for most among 2022 postseason teams…his 37 pitchers used (excluding position players) fell one shy of matching the club record from 2021.
- Had 26 pitchers record a win, second in major league history behind the 2016 Braves (28)…used 11 pitchers to record a save, tied for third in the majors behind the Dodgers (12) and Yankees (12).
- Used 158 different batting orders in 162 games, tying the franchise record from 2021.
- Ejected twice in a span of 10 games (May 22 at BAL, June 1 at TEX) after going 225 games without an ejection from Sept. 2, 2020–May 21, 2022.
- In 2021, managed the Rays to a 100-62 record, a club record for wins in a season over 2008 (97)…led the Rays to back-to-back division titles.
- Named AL Manager of the Year by the BBWAA, receiving 19 of 30 first-place votes…became the first AL manager to win in back-to-back seasons and second manager overall, joining ATL Bobby Cox in 2004-05…his back-to-back wins followed third-place finishes in both 2018 and 2019.
- Remains one of 16 to win multiple BBWAA Manager of the Year Awards, joining four-time winners Bobby Cox, Tony La Russa and Buck Showalter, three-time winners Joe Maddon, Dusty Baker, Jim Leyland, Bob Melvin, Lou Piniella and Terry Francona and two-time winners Sparky Anderson, Davey Johnson, Tommy Lasorda, Jack McKeon, Mike Scioscia and Joe Torre.
- Named Sporting News AL Manager of the Year for a third consecutive season…became the second manager to win in at least three straight seasons, joining ATL Bobby Cox (2002-05).
- Used 61 players and 38 pitchers (excluding position players), both of which set club records.
- The Rays won the division despite no pitcher qualifying for the ERA leaderboard…excluding the shortened 2020 season, joined the 2018 Dodgers and 2017 Astros among the only teams in major league history to accomplish this.
- Used 14 different pitchers to record a save, setting a major league record over the 2021 Cubs (12), 2020 Rays (12) and 1973 Rangers (12).

Larry Rothschild (1998–2001)	205	294	.411

- On June 25 vs. LAA, his 500th win as Rays manager came against his predecessor, Joe Maddon.
- As manager of the defending AL champions, Cash managed the AL All-Star Team to a 5-2 win at Coors Field and brought the Rays coaching staff with him…previously, he was selected to join Terry Francona's staff for the 2017 All-Star Game at Marlins Park and AJ Hinch's staff for the 2018 All-Star Game at Nationals Park.
- In the shortened 2020 season, captured his first division title as a manager and led the Rays to the best winning pct. in franchise history.
- Named AL Manager of the Year by the BBWAA, receiving 22 of 30 first-place votes…became the second manager in Rays history to win the award, following Joe Maddon in 2008 and 2011.
- His .667 winning pct. was the third-highest for a BBWAA Manager of the Year since the award was introduced in 1983…trailed SEA Lou Piniella (.716) in 2001 and NYY Joe Torre (.704) in 1998.

- Served a one-game suspension on Sept. 2 at NYY, the first of his career, for his postgame comments the night before…after Aroldis Chapman threw at Mike Brosseau's head in the 9th inning on Sept. 1, Cash stated, "I have a whole damn stable full of guys that throw 98 miles per hour."
- Managed the Rays to the second AL pennant in franchise history…won "winner take all" games in the ALDS vs. NYY and ALCS vs. HOU.
- At 42 years old, was the youngest manager to reach the World Series since Ozzie Guillén (41) when the White Sox swept the Astros in 2005.
- Became the first to both play in the Little League World Series (Northside Little League in Tampa) and manage a team to the Fall Classic.
- At age 41 in 2019, was the youngest AL East manager to lead his team to the postseason since 1995, when NYY Buck Showalter (age 39) and BOS Kevin Kennedy (age 41) both did it.
- Spent the 2015-18 seasons as the majors' youngest manager until Rocco Baldelli was hired by the Twins…was hired the day before his 37th birthday, and became the youngest manager since AJ Hinch piloted the 2009 D-backs at the age of 34.
- Is the sixth Tampa-born manager in major league history, and second to manage the Rays…that list includes Hall of Famers Al Lopez and Tony La Russa, Lou Piniella (for whom Cash played in 2005), Dave Miley and John Hart.
- Is the second Florida State University alum to manage the Rays, joining the franchise's first manager, Larry Rothschild.
- For two seasons (2013-14) before joining the Rays, served as the bullpen coach for Cleveland under Terry Francona, whom he played for with the Red Sox in 2007-08 and 2010.
- In 2012, he was a major league advance scout for the Blue Jays.
- Finished his playing career with Triple-A Round Rock in the Rangers organization in 2011… after the minor league season, he served as an advance scout for the major league team for the rest of 2011 and was at Tropicana Field the night Evan Longoria hit his walk-off homer in "Game 162" to send the Rays to the postseason.

PLAYING CAREER

- Played professionally for 12 seasons (2000-11) with six organizations, including parts of eight seasons in the majors with five different teams from 2002-10…played all but 20 games in his career with AL East teams…played for four of the five teams in the division…appeared in 241 games (189GS), all at catcher.
- Threw out 26.7 pct. (43 of 161) of attempted base stealers in his career…the major league average during his career was 24.4 pct.
- Caught two seasons in the Rays organization, including 13 games with the major league club in 2005…became the second former Devil Rays/Rays player to manage in the major leagues, joining Ozzie Guillén (White Sox/Marlins)… since then, Mickey Callaway (Mets), Gabe Kapler (Phillies/Giants), Dave Martinez (Nationals), Rocco Baldelli (Twins) and Stephen Vogt (Guardians) have joined this group.
- Started for the U.S. team in the Futures Game in Milwaukee in 2002 and was a September call up by the Blue Jays later that year.
- Delivered his first major league hit on Sept. 11, 2002 at CLE, a single off Dave Burba…his first home run came the following season on Sept. 27 vs. CLE against Terry Mulholland.
- Was in the Opening Day lineup for the Blue Jays in 2004 and started a career-high 50 games…was the Jays regular catcher until mid-May, when he went on the injured list with a rib injury… returned in June and served as a backup to Gregg Zaun the rest of the season…threw out 42.4 pct. (14 of 33) of attempted base stealers, fourth best among major league catchers (min. 50 starts).
- Acquired by the Devil Rays from the Blue Jays for Chad Gaudin at the 2004 Winter Meetings in Anaheim…was on the Devils Rays major league roster in 2005 for 39 days (June 13–July 22) replacing veteran Charles Johnson, who was released…homered in his first at-bat as a Ray, and remains one of 14 who have done that… it came on June 15 vs. MIL off Victor Santos…in that same game, he caught Hideo Nomo's 200th career win, automatically qualifying Nomo for Meikyukai, one of Japan's two baseball halls of fame…of his five hits as a Ray, two were home runs…Cash's only other homer as a Devil Ray came off Hall of Famer Randy Johnson on June 21 at NYY in a 20-11 loss.
- Was on the 40-man roster for former Rays Manager Joe Maddon's first spring training camp in 2006, but spent the entire season at Triple-A Durham and never played for Joe.
- Received World Series rings from the 2007 Red Sox and 2009 Yankees…joined the Red Sox for the last six weeks of the 2007 season when catcher Doug Mirabelli went on the injured list… was on the Red Sox ALDS roster, but did not play.

- Started 42 games for the Red Sox in 2008, including all 30 of Tim Wakefield's starts... homered in Game 4 of the ALCS vs. TB at Fenway Park off Andy Sonnanstine...was in the visitors' dugout at Tropicana Field when the Rays clinched the AL pennant with a 3-1 win in Game 7.
- Was up with the Yankees for two weeks in 2009 (May 12-27) and appeared in 10 games while Jorge Posada was on the injured list.
- In his last major league season in 2010, he was traded from the Astros back to the Red Sox on July 1 when catchers Jason Varitek and Victor Martinez went on the injured list...in the final start of his career on Oct. 2 vs. NYY, he played a key role in a Red Sox win that helped propel the eventual AL East champion Rays into a first-place tie with the Yankees with a game to play...his bases-loaded walk in the 8th inning tied the game that was eventually won, 7-6, by the Red Sox.

AMATEUR CAREER

- Played infield in high school and college...played three seasons at Florida State University...as a junior (1999), hit .317 (80-for-252) with 14 HR and 58 RBI, earning second team All-ACC honors... named Most Valuable Player of the Tallahassee Regional in the 1999 College World Series.
- Kevin, his father, Mike, and his late uncle, Ron, all played in the College World Series; Ron with Florida State in 1970 and Mike with Georgia Southern in 1973...all three were infielders... Mike was drafted in the 27th round by the Giants in 1974 and played five seasons in the Giants and Phillies chains...in 1976 with Fresno in the Class-A California League, he had 22 HR and 102 RBI...only one other player in the Giants organization hit more home runs that season: Bobby Murcer had 23 with the big league club... Ron played two seasons in the majors with the Tigers (1973-74) and hit .297 in 34 career games.
- At FSU, he played in the first-ever Devil Rays game, a spring exhibition at Al Lang Field on Feb. 26, 1998...Cash played first base for FSU and went 0-for-2 in the Devil Rays 6-3 win.
- Went undrafted out of FSU in 1999...he spent the summer with the Falmouth Commodores in the Cape Cod League, where he was named the team's Most Valuable Player...that summer he went to Manager Jeff Trundy and volunteered to move from infielder to catcher after illness and injury sidelined the team's two catchers...Kevin threw out two baserunners in his first inning behind the plate, and the position switch stuck.
- On Aug. 7, 1999—the same day Wade Boggs delivered his 3,000th career hit at Tropicana Field—he signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Blue Jays...he then worked with Ernie Whitt to develop his craft behind the plate.
- Graduated from Gaither High School in North Tampa, where he was All-State in 1996 under coach Frank Permuy, who retired in 2014 after 31 years at the school and passed away in April 2020...he was cut from the school's fall team during his sophomore season.
- Grew up in Tampa and was a member of the Tampa Northside Little League team that advanced to the 1989 Little League World Series in Williamsport, Pa. ...he was one of three 11-year-olds on a team of 12-year-olds...Kevin's Northside team was later invited to play in the first "game" ever played at Tropicana Field (then the Florida Suncoast Dome)...the youngsters played a Wiffle ball contest as part of the dome's opening ceremonies in February 1990...his father was an original Rays season ticket holder.

PERSONAL & MISC.

- Kevin and his family volunteer at Johns Hopkins All Children's Hospital in St. Pete... 17-year-old Camden, the oldest daughter of Kevin and his wife, Emily, had open-heart surgery at the same hospital in 2007, when she was only 17 months old...the couple has two other children: daughter Ella (16) and son J.D. (11).

BORN 9/9/77 in Houston, TX

RESIDES St. Petersburg, FL

TENURE This is his 26th season in professional baseball, 13th as a coach or instructor, seventh as a major league coach.

COACHING CAREER

- Enters his seventh season as the Rays pitching coach…hired on Oct. 3, 2017 as the eighth pitching coach in franchise history, following Rick Williams (1998–2000), Bill Fischer (2000-01), Jackie Brown (2002), Chris Bosio (2003), Chuck Hernandez (2004-05), Mike Butcher (2006) and Jim Hickey (2007-17).
- In 2023, the Rays finished among the majors' top 10 in ERA for a seventh straight season and among the top five for a fifth straight season… their 3.86 ERA ranked fifth behind the Brewers (3.71), Padres (3.73), Mariners (3.74) and Blue Jays (3.78)…this, despite using 37 pitchers, the most among postseason times and third most in the majors behind the Angels and Yankees (15 each).
- Rays starters pitched to a 3.92 ERA, fifth in the majors, despite losing three-fifths of the Opening Day rotation to season-ending injuries (Shane McClanahan, Drew Rasmussen, Jeffrey Springs)…the starters ranked highly among major league rotations in opp. OPS (1st, .684), strikeout rate (2nd, 26.3%), SO/BB ratio (2nd, 4.11), opp. average (.3rd, .237), HR/9.0 IP (3rd, 1.16) and WHIP (4th, 1.17),
- During his six years as pitching coach, the Rays rank second in the majors with a 1.18 WHIP and third in ERA (3.66).
- Spent three seasons (2015-17) as the pitching coach for Triple-A Durham…in three seasons under Snyder, Bulls pitchers combined for a 3.61 ERA and twice established strikeout records… in 2016, they set an International League record with 1,287 SO…in 2017, they shattered their own record with 1,421 SO—an all-time mark for Minor League Baseball…this mark has been passed by other clubs in recent seasons.
- Has spent the entirety of his coaching career in the Rays system…began as the pitching coach for Short-A Hudson Valley in 2012…promoted to Class-A Bowling Green in 2013…served as a pitching coordinator in 2014.

PLAYING CAREER

- Pitched professionally for 11 seasons, including parts of five years in the majors with the Royals (2003, 2005-06) and Red Sox (2006-08)…in 2007, his only full season in the majors, compiled a 3.81 ERA over 46 relief appearances and was named to the Red Sox World Series roster…did not pitch in their four-game sweep over the Rockies.
- He and Kevin Cash were teammates on the Red Sox during the 2007-08 seasons, and Cash caught him for six games in 2007.
- Underwent five surgeries in his playing career, including two that sidelined him for an entire season…missed 2001 due to Tommy John surgery and 2004 due to a torn right labrum repair.
- Selected by the Royals in the first round (seventh overall) of the 1999 First-Year Player Draft out of the University of North Carolina.
- Originally selected by the Rays in the 27th round of the 1996 First-Year Player Draft out of Riverview High School in Sarasota, but did not sign…lettered in baseball, basketball, swimming and golf in high school.

PERSONAL & MISC.

- His father, Donald, played basketball at Rice University from 1970-72.
- Switch-hit all the way through college.
- He and his wife, Victoria, have one son, Luke.

BALANCED SCHEDULE

Clubs now face every team in the other league each season and alternate home series annually, a structure that was implemented in 2023. The Rays will continue their annual home-and-home series with the Marlins and play a three-game series against the other 14 NL teams. As a result, the Rays now play 46 Interleague games per season, compared to 20 Interleague games during the 2013-22 seasons and 18 Interleague games from 1999-2012.

MAJOR LEAGUE STAFF

JOSEPH BENGE / HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Benge, 46, begins his 14th season in the Rays organization and seventh as head athletic trainer. He is the fourth head athletic trainer in club history, following Jamie Reed (1997–2002), Ken Crenshaw (2003-05) and Ron Porterfield (2006-17). Prior to his current role, he spent six years (2012-17) as minor league medical coordinator, overseeing all minor league athletic trainers and rehabilitation with minor league players. Benge joined the organization in 2011 as the athletic trainer for Triple-A Durham. He was named the 2015 Minor League Athletic Trainer of the Year by the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS) and served as athletic trainer for the World Team at the All-Star Futures Game in San Diego the following year. Prior to the Rays, he spent 10 seasons as an athletic trainer in the Orioles system (2001-10) and reached Double-A Bowie during his final four seasons there. He graduated from Loyola (Md.) College with a bachelor's degree in biology in 1999 and received his master's degree in kinesiology from Fresno Pacific University in 2010. Benge resides in Sarasota and has a daughter, Isla.

MIKE SANDOVAL / FIRST ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Sandoval, 58, was promoted to first assistant athletic trainer in November 2021 after four years as assistant athletic trainer. Entering his 13th season in the Rays organization, he spent the previous six years (2012-17) as an athletic trainer with Triple-A Durham. He was named an athletic trainer for the AL Team for the 2022 All-Star Game at Dodger Stadium. In 2021, he was named Rays co-Employee of the Year as a result of his efforts and dedication as the club's designated Infection Control Protection Coordinator (ICPC) during the COVID-19 pandemic. In total, he begins his 38th season in professional baseball, including 25 years with the Pirates organization. From 2001-11, he was the Pirates assistant athletic trainer and major league rehab coordinator. He also worked for Team Mexico in the World Baseball Classic in 2006 and 2009. He began his professional career in 1987 as athletic trainer for the Watertown Pirates of the New York-Penn League. He has also worked with Rookie-level Princeton (1988), Class-A Salem (1989), Double-A Harrisburg (1990), Double-A Carolina (1991, 1997-98), Triple-A Buffalo (1992-94), Triple-A Calgary (1995) and Double-A Altoona (1999–2000). Sandoval graduated from New Mexico State University in 1988 with a degree in physical education and sports medicine. He and his wife, Dodie, have a son, Michael Jr.

AARON SCOTT / ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Scott, 45, was named assistant athletic trainer for the major league staff in November 2021 and begins his eighth season in the Rays organization. Prior to his current role, he spent four years as the minor league medical coordinator, overseeing all minor league athletic trainers and rehabilitation with minor league players. He joined the Rays in 2017 and spent his first season in the organization as athletic trainer for Class-A Charlotte. Scott previously worked in the Phillies (2015-16) and Orioles (2004-14) organizations. He was named the 2016 Eastern League Trainer of the Year while working with the Reading Phillies and the 2009 South Atlantic League Trainer of the Year while with the Delmarva Shorebirds (Orioles). He received his bachelor's degree in athletic training from the University of Northern Iowa, then completed two internships with the NFL's Detroit Lions and was the assistant athletic trainer for the Berlin Thunder of NFL Europe in 2003 prior to joining the Orioles. Scott resides in Lakewood Ranch.

WILSON DIEZ / MAJOR LEAGUE PHYSICAL THERAPIST

Diez, 31, was named major league physical therapist in February 2022. He was also named physical therapist for the Dominican Republic in the 2023 World Baseball Classic. Prior to joining the Rays, he spent four years as a physical therapist specialist in New Jersey. X-RAY REPORT

- Jason and his wife, Kelsey, have four daughters: Kinsley (5), Joelle (3), Selah (2), and Raelynn (born in July 2023)…his wife played a vital role in turning him into the epitome of a "girl dad," a term coined by NBA legend Kobe Bryant…in a podcast, Jason said, "I never was good at sitting there and telling somebody how much I love them. But when it's your daughter, you look at them and you're like, 'I need to pour into their soul.'"
- His family was able to attend the 2023 World Baseball Classic, where he did not allow a run while tying for the Team USA lead in appearances (4)…Jason kept as much memorabilia from the experience as he could, including a team-signed jersey that he framed.
- In the 9th inning of a win over the Blue Jays last April, Jason ended the game with a spectacular double play against former teammate Kevin Kiermaier, catching Kiermaier's 91.1-mph comebacker behind his back before throwing to second base for a force out…Jason joked that a SportsCenter Top 10 appearance was a given, and the real question was whether he would receive a Gold Glove award…the play checked in at No. 5 on SportsCenter the following day.
- Jason began his career with the Kane County Cougars…after the canceled 2020 season, the team was cut from the Midwest League as part of MLB's reorganization of the minor leagues… they are now part of the American Association, an independent MLB Partner League.

2023 SEASON

- Recorded career highs in saves (12) and wins (4) in his second season with the Rays…totaled two stints on the injured list, both with left oblique strains (Sept. 3-21; Sept. 23–end of season), the first of which was suffered while warming up in Miami on Aug. 29…made his return from the injured list on Sept. 22 vs. TOR and suffered a second oblique strain, this time in a different spot.
- Held left-handed batters to a .167 (16-for-96) average, sixth lowest in the AL (min. 75AB)…five of his 7 HR allowed came vs. lefties.
- Held opponents to a 5-for-56 (.089) average on his sweeper…min. 50 AB, it marked the lowest opp. average on any major league pitcher's sweeper… registered a 38.2 pct. whiff rate on the pitch.
- His 31.1 pct. strikeout rate ranked ninth among AL relievers (min. 200BF)…his 69 strikeouts led all Rays relievers…struck out the side in order in six separate innings after doing so twice in 2022.
- Allowed only two of his nine inherited runners to score (22.2%)…since 2022, he has allowed only five of his 40 inherited runners to score (12.5%), the lowest percentage in the majors (min. 35IR).
- Recorded a 1.23 ERA (29.1IP, 4ER) in 28 day games compared to a 5.04 ERA (25.0IP, 14ER) in 28 night games.
- Entered with the Rays tied or ahead in 50 of his 56 outings…42 of his appearances were scoreless.
- Made his third straight Opening Day roster, including his second with the Rays.
- Allowed at least one hit in 11 straight games from April 16–May 12, the longest streak of his career (prev. 7G).
- On May 28 vs. LAD, recorded his first career six-out save…it marked his first outing of 2.0+ IP since Sept. 5, 2020 vs. STL…threw 37 pitches, third most in any game of his career.
- Collected 11 saves in 20 appearances from May 2–June 14, second most in the AL over that span behind LAA Carlos Estevez (12).

- Recorded a season-high nine straight scoreless appearances (8.2IP) from July 6–Aug. 5, holding opponents to a 4-for-30 (.133) average while posting a 0.46 WHIP.
- On Aug. 24 vs. COL, struck out a career-high five of the six batters he faced and earned his final win of the season…it was part of a stretch from Aug. 18-26 in which he struck out 10 of 14 BF.
- Was not a member of the Rays AL Wild Card Series roster after being placed on the 15-day IL with a left oblique strain on Sept. 23.
- WBC: Made his World Baseball Classic debut with Team USA, tossing 4.0 scoreless innings with 5 SO in four games…held opponents to a 1-for-12 (.083) clip, with the lone hit being a Salvador Perez double in a quarterfinal matchup with Venezuela.
- Pitched a scoreless 6th inning vs. Team Japan in the WBC Championship on March 21, working around three walks to leave the bases loaded and keep Team USA within two runs, 3-1.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In 2022, led the Rays with 67 appearances and paced the club's bullpen with 63.1 IP and 75 SO…min. 50 IP, his 1.56 ERA ranked fourth in the AL behind HOU Ryne Stanek (1.15), CLE Emmanuel Clase (1.36) and BAL Cionel Pérez (1.40)…ranked fourth among relievers in Rays history behind Fernando Rodney (0.60) in 2012, Joaquin Benoit (1.34) in 2010 and Grant Balfour (1.54) in 2008.
- Held opponents to a .147 average (31-for-211) with 9 XBH…ranked among AL relievers in opp. average (2nd), opp. OPS (2nd, .471), opp. OBP (3rd, .229) and opp. SLG (.242, 7th).

X-RAY REPORT

- Tyler made national headlines during the pandemic-shortened 2020 season when he struck out nine consecutive Reds batters to begin an outing at Comerica Park, setting an MLB record for consecutive strikeouts by a reliever…after the game, he claimed he wasn't trying to strike everyone out, but credited the development of his slider for the results…when he returned to the Tigers clubhouse, his phone was out of battery because he had received so many congratulatory texts from friends and family members.
- Prior to making his major league debut in 2019, then-Toledo Mud Hens manager Doug Mientkiewicz called Tyler into his office to inform him of his impending promotion…Tyler said he thought the call was part of a prank, pausing to wait for the punch line before saying, "You serious?"…he went on to hold the White Sox to two runs over 5.0 innings in his big league debut.
- While growing up in Texas, Tyler frequently attended Rangers games…his favorite pitcher was Cliff Lee, who he modeled his own game after following Lee's 2010 trade to the Rangers.

2023 SEASON

- Made the Tigers Opening Day roster for the fourth consecutive season…went 2-1 with a 4.50 ERA (44.0IP, 22ER) over 25 outings (1GS)…saw his season come to an end on July 4 when he was placed on the 60-day IL with a left lat/shoulder strain.
- Was one of three MLB pitchers to throw 40.0+ innings while allowing five walks or fewer, joining PIT Ryan Borucki (40.1IP, 4BB) and LAD Ryan Pepiot (42.0IP, 5BB)…min. 150 BF, his 2.8 pct. walk rate was second in the AL behind SEA George Kirby (2.5%).
- Utilized a five-pitch mix featuring a cutter (35.2%), four-seam fastball (27.8%), changeup (16.9%), sinker (11.2%) and slider (8.8%)…averaged 88.2 mph on his fastballs, the fourth-slowest mark in the AL (min. 500 fastballs thrown).
- On April 1 at TB, recorded a season-high 7 SO on a season-high 58 pitches in his 2023 debut, allowing two runs on two hits with no walks over 3.1 innings.
- In 21 appearances (1GS) from April 14–June 29, posted a 2.88 ERA (34.1IP, 11ER)…this, after opening the season with an 8.64 ERA (8.1IP, 8ER) in his first three outings.
- On June 6 at PHI, made his lone start of the season and took the loss in a 1-0 defeat…yielded only a leadoff homer to Kyle Schwarber over 3.0 IP.
- Went 1-1 with a 0.96 ERA (18.2IP, 2ER) over eight appearances (1GS) in June…min. 15.0 IP, only TEX Josh Sborz (0.55) had a lower ERA during the month among AL pitchers.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In 2022, made 27 appearances, including a career-high 17 starts…went 4-11 with a 4.81 ERA (101.0IP, 54ER).
- Went 2-11 with a 5.74 ERA (80.0IP, 51ER) as a starter compared to 2-0 with a 1.29 ERA (21.0IP, 3ER) as a reliever.
- Was on the 10-day IL from May 2 (retro April 30)–June 14 with a left elbow sprain.
- In nine relief appearances from June 17–July 23, pitched to a 0.95 ERA (19.0IP, 2ER) with a 0.95 WHIP.
- On Sept. 19 at BAL, carried a no-hitter into the 7th inning before allowing a lead-off single to Ryan Mountcastle…the 7.0 IP matched a career high (4x, last: 8/9/22 vs. CLE)…it marked his first time working 7.0 innings in a winning effort.

- On Sept. 25 at CWS, threw 6.0 innings of one-run ball, allowing four hits and one walk with five strikeouts…marked the second time in his career working at least 6.0+ innings in consecutive starts (also Sept. 28–Oct. 3, 2021).
- In 2021, made a career-high 41 appearances, including 15 starts…also set career bests in ERA (3.81), innings (106.1) and strikeouts (87).
- Held left-handed batters to a .193/.273/.284 (17-for-88) line compared to .272/.315/.468 (89-for-327) against right-handed hitters.
- Limited opponents to a .128 (5-for-39) average with runners in scoring position and two outs…it marked the 10th-lowest such average in the AL (min. 35BF).
- In 2020, worked primarily out of the bullpen in his first full major league season, making 14 appearances (2GS) while pitching to a 3.96 ERA (36.1IP, 16ER)…tossed 2.0+ IP in 11 of his 14 outings.
- On Aug. 2 vs. CIN (G1), struck out 10 over 3.2 hitless innings of relief…fanned nine straight Reds batters, the longest streak by a reliever in MLB history and matching the overall AL record…marked the first 10+ SO outing of his career.
- In 2019, saw the first major league action of his career, pitching in 13 games (8GS) with the Tigers…posted a 4.54 ERA (41.2IP, 21ER) as a starter and 6.00 ERA (12.0IP, 8ER) in five relief appearances.
- Led all rookies (min. 50.0IP) with 1.17 BB/9.0IP, allowing seven free passes across 53.2 innings.
- Went 5-10 with a 5.13 ERA (98.1IP, 56ER) across 20 appearances (16GS) for Triple-A Toledo.
- On July 3 at CWS, had his contract selected and made his major league debut in game two of a doubleheader…did not factor into the start (5.0IP, 5H, 2ER, 4SO)…fanned the first batter he faced, Leury García, for his first career strikeout.
- On Sept. 16 vs. BAL, earned his first career win after tossing 6.0 innings, allowing one run on four hits with three strikeouts. Held opponents to three or fewer runs in each of his final seven outings from Aug. 15 on, going 1-1 with a 3.29 ERA (27.1IP, 10ER) in that span.
- In 2018, went 6-8 with a 4.44 ERA (140.0IP, 69ER) in 26 appearances (24GS) between Double-A Erie and Toledo.
- In 2017, went 8-9 with a 5.07 ERA (138.1IP, 78ER) in 27 appearances (26GS) with Erie…

X-RAY REPORT

- In 2015, Rays executives and scouts traveled to Tijuana, Mexico to get a better look at a player named Randy Arozarena, who had defected from Cuba and was working out with the Toros of Tijuana…the Rays were unable to sign Randy due to MLB spending restrictions but saw Aranda in the same workout and later signed him for $130,000…said Vice President, Assistant General Manager Carlos Rodriguez to the Tampa Bay Times: "It's unbelievable, right? There's a saying—you're always dangerous at the ballpark. You may run into something, you may see something. Just by being around, you kind of run into some talent. And sometimes you get lucky."
- Jonathan got the call for his major league debut late night after a seven-hour bus ride with Triple-A Durham…he immediately called his parents, Humberto and Jessica, to share the news…they had never seen him play in the minors, but made the trip from Mexico to St. Petersburg in time for his major league debut.
- He and Blue Jays catcher Alejandro Kirk have been friends since they were three years old, and they played on the same youth teams together… they took a photo together at Rogers Centre when Jonathan was active in September 2022.
- Jonathan and his wife, Milka Medrano, had a big offseason, getting married in Mexico before celebrating the birth of their first daughter, Regina Sofia.
- He helped Team Mexico to a semifinal run in his World Baseball Classic debut last year along with Rays teammates Randy Arozarena and Isaac Paredes…"It was one of the best experiences of my life," he told WFTS. "It was magical. It was a tremendous experience."

2023 SEASON

- Appeared in 34 games, including 23 starts (DH-10G, 1B-9G, 2B-2G, 3B-2G)…had three stints with the Rays (July 8-11, July 14-17, Aug. 15-end of season).
- Earned Triple-A Durham MVP honors for the second consecutive season after hitting .339/.449/.613 (121-for-357) with 23 2B, 25 HR, 81 RBI and 64 BB in 95 games for the Bulls…his 1.062 OPS led all full-season minor leaguers.
- Hit .317 (13-for-41) vs. breaking/offspeed pitches compared to .152 (7-for-46) against fastballs.
- Batted .318 (14-for-44) with 4 2B, 2 HR and 11 RBI while playing a defensive position vs. 3-for-36 (.083) with 1 3B and 2 RBI as a designated hitter.
- On July 9 vs. ATL, recorded his first career multi-RBI game with a two-run double in the 1st inning.
- During his final stint with Durham from July 17–Aug. 15, batted .330 (31-for-94) with 6 2B, 9 HR, 25 RBI and 14 BB…hit .236 (17-for-72) with 6 XBH (2HR) and 11 RBI in 30 games with the Rays to conclude the season.
- On Aug. 19 (G1) at Angel Stadium, hit his first major league home run since Sept. 22, 2022 vs. Toronto, extending his hitting streak to a season-high four games.
- On Sept. 5 vs. BOS, hit his first career triple… became the first Ray since Sam Fuld on Aug. 10, 2011 vs. KC to have a triple and 3+ walks in the same game.
- Drew a career-high three walks on both Sept. 5 vs. BOS and Sept. 11 at MIN…joined Yandy Díaz as the only Rays with multiple 3+ walk games on the season.
- On Oct. 1 at TOR, recorded a 1st-inning RBI-single before adding his first career grand slam in the following frame…became the first Ray with 5+ RBI within the first two innings of a game since Carlos Peña (6) on April 13, 2009 vs. NYY…the HR was the Rays 228th of the season, tying the club record set in 2017.

- The 6 RBI on Oct. 1 set a career high and tied Isaac Paredes (June 9 vs. TEX) for the most by a Ray in 2023…marked his most RBI in any professional game, surpassing his 5 RBI on July 3, 2022 at Triple-A Charlotte.

X-RAY REPORT

- Shawn is a North Carolina native to the core… he lettered in baseball (four years) and cross country (two years) at West Craven High School in Vanceboro and, although he was a star on the track, he shined brighter on the mound…prior to going pro, Shawn was a true student athlete at East Carolina University…while majoring in exercise physiology, Armstrong was a two-time Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll recipient and three-time East Carolina Director of Athletics Honor Roll recipient.
- Shawn and his wife, Sarah, welcomed their son, Declan Cutter, on March 31, 2021.
- Shawn and Sarah co-own a private coaching company called Arm-Strong Performance, which offers custom training programs, workout equipment and branded merchandise.

2023 SEASON

- Began the season on the 15-day IL before being transferred to the 60-day IL on April 17 due to neck tightness…was activated on June 3 and made his season debut the following afternoon at Boston (2.0IP, BB, 3SO)…stayed on the Rays active roster for the remainder of the season.
- Posted a 1.38 ERA (52.0IP, 8ER), the lowest mark of his career (min. 15.0IP)…min. 40.0 IP, it was the second-lowest ERA in the AL behind BOS Chris Martin (1.05).
- Min. 50.0 IP, his 1.38 ERA was third lowest in Rays history behind Fernando Rodney (0.60, 2012) and Joaquin Benoit (1.34, 2010).
- Made six starts totaling 12.0 scoreless innings, posting a 1.00 WHIP and .205 (9-for-44) opp. average…joined Collin McHugh (7, 2021) as the only Rays pitchers to make 5+ starts in a season and without allowing a run in those outings…the Rays went 5-1 when he started.
- Held right-handed batters to a .170/.239/.250 (17-for-100) line compared to .209/.255/.297 (19-for-91) vs. left-handed hitters.
- Recorded a career-high 12 multi-inning appearances, surpassing his nine such outings in 2022…produced a 0.36 ERA (25.0IP, 1ER) in those games.
- In 22 appearances (3GS) at night, pitched to a 0.56 ERA (32.1IP, 2ER)…in 17 outings (3GS) during the day, posted a 2.75 ERA (19.2IP, 6ER).
- On June 6 vs. PHI, started and matched a career high with 3.0 IP (4x, last: 9/4/22 vs. NYY)…also matched a career high with 5 SO (2x, last: 4/13/17 vs. CWS).
- Did not yield a home run across 39.2 IP (28G) from June 22–Sept. 19, posting a 0.68 ERA (39.2IP, 3ER) while limiting opponents to a .163 (23-for-141) average during that span.
- Did not allow an ER over 19.1 innings (15G) from Aug. 9–Sept. 19, striking out 20 batters against two walks while posting a 0.62 WHIP during that stretch…the 15 straight outings without an ER was the longest streak of his career.
- POSTSEASON: Tossed a scoreless 7th inning in Game 2 of the Rays AL Wild Card Series vs. Texas, retiring 3 of his 4 BF with one strikeout.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In 2022, made 50 appearances (3GS) between the Marlins and Rays…signed by the Marlins on March 15 and made his third career Opening Day active roster, joining 2017 (CLE) and 2020 (BAL).
- Designated for assignment by the Marlins when rosters reduced on May 2…signed a minor league contract with the Rays on May 10…selected to the active roster on May 31 and remained with the Rays through the end of the season.

- Set career highs with 61.2 IP and 66 SO…his 50 games were the second most of his career behind 2019 (55G)…made the first three starts of his career.
- Pitched to a 3.07 ERA (29.1IP, 10ER) in his 20 apperances from Aug. 7 through the end of the season.
- Yielded a combined one run in his three starts…his only run allowed as a starter was a leadoff homer to NYY Aaron Judge.
- Prior to his selection, logged a 2.57 ERA (7.0IP, 2ER) and 10 SO in seven games with Triple-A Durham.
- On June 16 at NYY, yielded a walk-off homer to Anthony Rizzo and suffered his first loss since April 12, 2019 vs. HOU (with SEA)…marked the first time in his career he allowed a walk-off hit.
- On July 28 at BAL, allowed a two-run, inside-the-park homer to Trey Mancini in the 8th inning on a fly ball lost in the sun by right fielder Josh Lowe…it marked the first inside-the-park homer allowed in his career, the 11th allowed in franchise history and first since Chris Archer on March 29, 2018 vs. BOS (Eduardo Núñez)…it marked the first time in club history that a Rays reliever allowed an inside-the-park homer.
- On Aug. 30 at MIA, made his first career start after replacing a scratched Shane McClanahan to start the bottom of the 1st inning…went a career-high-tying 3.0 IP and the 48 pitches were one shy of his career high on April 13, 2017 vs. CWS (with CLE).
- POSTSEASON: Pitched in Game 2 of the AL Wild Card Series at CLE, going 1.1 scoreless innings…pitched the 11th inning and struck out his only batter faced in the 12th to preserve a 0-0 game.
- In 2021, made 20 appearances for the Orioles before being designated for assignment on June 4…began the season on the paternity list and made his season debut in the Orioles fourth game of the season…outrighted to Triple-A Norfolk on June 11 and traded to the Rays in exchange for cash considerations on July 30.
- Selected on Aug. 17 from Triple-A Durham for his second stint of the season…went 1-0 with a 4.50 ERA (16.0IP, 8ER) in 11 games with the Rays…designated for assignment on Sept. 12, when Nick Anderson returned from the 60-day IL.
- Made 29 appearances between Norfolk and Durham, going 3-4 with a 2.90 ERA (31.0IP, 4ER).
- In 2020, made his second career Opening Day roster (2017)…made 14 appearances in the shortened season, yielding 0 ER in 12 of those 14 outings.
- Opponents hit .170 (9-for-53) against him…held right-handed batters to a .162 average (6-for-37).
- Was on the 10-day IL from Aug. 26–Sept. 21 with left SI joint inflammation.
- In 2019, joined the Orioles after an April 28 waiver claim and totaled a career-high 55 appearances between the Mariners and Orioles.
- From his Orioles debut on May 1 through the end of the season, his 51 appearances ranked third on the team behind Paul Fry (55) and Miguel Castro (52)…had a minimum stint on the 10-day IL in late August due to a right forearm strain.
- Pitched to a 1.50 ERA (18.0IP, 3ER) in his first 17 games with the Orioles (May 1–June 16).
- On Sept. 11 vs. LAD, pitched 1.2 scoreless innings and got the win after the Orioles hit a three-run homer in the 7th inning…marked the second win of his career and came on his 29th birthday.
- Opened the season on the 10-day IL with a left oblique strain…made two appearances (1GS) on a rehab assignment with Triple-A Tacoma…reinstated by the Mariners on April 12 and designated for assignment on April 26.
- In 2018, selected by the Mariners on Aug. 28 and finished the season on the major league roster.
- On Sept. 30 vs. TEX, pitched a scoreless 9th inning in a 3-1 win for the first save of his career.
- Spent most of the season with Tacoma and named to the Pacific Coast League midseason All-Star Team…tied for fourth in the PCL with 15 saves…his 1.77 ERA was the third lowest among PCL pitchers with at least 30 appearances.
- Paced all Mariners minor leaguers with 49 appearances.
- In 2017, made his first career Opening Day roster and split the season between Cleveland and Triple-A Columbus…made 21 appearances over nine stints in the majors.
- On April 5 at TEX, made his season debut and recorded his first career win…entered with two outs in the 8th inning and struck out Jonathan Lucroy, his only batter faced…was the pitcher of record after Francisco Lindor hit a go-ahead grand slam off Sam Dyson in the 9th.
- His 10 saves for Columbus ranked fourth among Cleveland minor leaguers and tied for sixth in the International League.
- Traded to the Mariners for international bonus slot money following the season.

X-RAY REPORT

- Randy played two years of professional baseball in Cuba, where he earned the nickname El Cohete Cubano, or "The Cuban Rocket," for his lightning speed…he earned $4 a month during his first season with Pinar del Río…he defected to Mexico in 2015, prompted in part by the passing of his father the year prior…he received his Mexican citizenship at the Mexican embassy in Miami in April 2022.
- Soccer was his first love…his younger brother, Raiko, is a professional goalkeeper who played for the USL's Tampa Bay Rowdies from 2021-23 after playing three seasons for Mexican clubs, most recently for the Cafetaleros de Chiapas (The Coffee Growers)…the two originally began playing the opposite sport and switched paths professionally…Randy's baseball career didn't begin until his soccer coach dropped him off at a baseball practice to help a local team that was short on players…in May 2022, Randy invited Raiko to take batting practice at Tropicana Field and Raiko homered twice.
- Randy took the 2023 World Baseball Classic by storm for Team Mexico, delivering big hits and jaw-dropping defensive plays in left field, including a home run robbery vs. Japan in the semi-finals…the tournament also saw him come up with his signature arms-crossed celebration… from the beginning of the tournament to the end, his Instagram following grew by nearly 300 percent.
- A week after getting her visa, Randy's mother, Sandra Gonzalez, attended the Rays postseason opener at Tropicana Field, her first time seeing her son play in the majors in person…Randy believes the last time he played a game in front of his mom was in Mexico in 2017…prior to the game, Sandra threw a ceremonial first pitch to her son.
- Randy was name-dropped on Grammy award-winning artist Bad Bunny's recent song, "Nadie Sabe"…Bad Bunny sings, "Yo mismo me impresiono, como Randy Arozarena," which translates to, "I impress myself like Randy Arozarena."
- Some of his offseason endeavors included hosting a "Randy Fest" in Mexico with several bands, being named one of GQ Mexico's Men of the Year, meeting with Mexican President Andrés Manuel López Obrador, connecting with rapper Travis Scott and doing TV work for the Caribbean Series in Miami.

2023 SEASON

- Appeared in 151 games and made 149 starts (LF-137G, DH-12G)…was the only Rays outfielder and one of five players overall to remain on the active roster all season.
- Set career highs in home runs (23), runs scored (95) and walks (80) while matching a career best with three triples (also 2021-22).
- Named a finalist for an AL Silver Slugger award for the third straight season.
- Became the first player in MLB history to post a 20+ HR, 20+ SB season as a rookie and in each of the next two seasons; he and LAA Mike Trout (2012-13) are the only players to accomplish the feat as a rookie and again in the following season.
- Joins CLE José Ramírez and PHI Trea Turner as the only players in MLB with 20+ HR and 20+ SB in each of the last three seasons (2021-23).

- Became the first player in club history to post three straight 20+ HR, 20+ SB seasons…is one of three Rays all-time to post at least one 20-20 campaign, joining B.J. Upton (2007, 2011-12) and Tommy Pham (2019).
- Became the fourth Ray to post at least three consecutive 20+ HR seasons, joining Evan Longoria (2x: 2008-10 & 2013-17), Aubrey Huff (2002-05) and Carlos Peña (2007-10).
- Posted a career-best 12.2 pct. walk rate, a 5.1 pct. increase from 2022 (7.1%), signaling the third-highest year-to-year increase among qualified AL hitters behind LAA Luis Rengifo (+5.9%) and TEX Nathaniel Lowe (+5.4%).
- His three walk-off plate appearances were tied for the MLB lead with teammate Brandon Lowe, ATL Ozzie Albies, PHI Alec Bohm, MIA Jake Burger, STL Tommy Edman and BOS Alex Verdugo.
- Ranked among AL outfielders in HBP (T1st, 18), on-base pct. (2nd, .364), go-ahead RBI (2nd, 26), walks (T2nd, 80), avg. exit velocity (3rd, 91.7 mph), runs (4th, 95), game-winning RBI (T6th, 12), OPS (7th, .787), RBI (T7th, 83) and steals (8th, 22).
- Did not commit an error in any of his 139 games in left field (253TC)…the 139 consecutive errorless games marked the fourth-longest streak in the majors in 2023 (longest: PHI Nick Castellanos, 145G).
- Had four separate hitting streaks of 7+ games, most among Rays hitters and tied for third most in the AL behind CLE José Ramírez (6) and SEA Julio Rodríguez (5).
- Made his third straight Opening Day roster and start (2-LF, 1-RF).
- Hit safely in each of his first 10 games, tied for the fourth-longest season-opening streak in club history behind Rocco Baldelli (14G, 2003), Delmon Young (12G, 2007) and Jorge Cantú (11G, 2005).
- Reached base safely in 33 straight home games from April 12–June 24, the third-longest streak in team history behind Ben Zobrist (37G: 5/2/09–7/28/09) and Evan Longoria (35G: 10/4/09–6/22/10).
- Reached base safely in a career-best 20 straight games from April 17–May 9…led the AL in HR (tied, 6) and slugging pct. (.632) during the streak.
- On April 29 at CWS, recorded his sixth career multi-homer game, going deep in the 7th and 9th innings of a 12-3 Rays win…became the eighth player in club history to homer twice from the 7th inning on in the same game, including the first since Brett Phillips on Aug. 8, 2021 at BAL.
- On May 5 vs. NYY, the Rays introduced "Randy Land," a special seating section in left field where fans were provided with T-shirts and other memorabilia at Friday night home games…he homered in his first at-bat, winning free beverages for all fans in the section.
- Drew at least one walk in a career-best six consecutive games from May 16-21…drew multiple walks in three straight games from June 8-10, the longest streak of his career and longest by a Ray since Ji-Man Choi (3G: 9/19/21-9/22/21).
- On June 7 vs. MIN, hit his first career walk-off home run off Jhoan Duran, marking the only homer Duran allowed on his splitter all season.
- Hit safely in a career-best 12 straight road games from Aug. 19-Sept. 16, batting .360 (18-for-50) with 2 2B, 1 3B, 3 HR and 11 RBI during the streak.

> "On any given night, we know that he could be the most talented player on the field. Speed, athleticism, power, excitement, the energy that he brings. He's a special, special player for our game. I think he's the type of player that fans come to the ballpark to see."

> MANAGER KEVIN CASH
> Tampa Bay Times

- On Aug. 27 vs. NYY, was struck by a 95.5 mph sinker thrown by Albert Abreu, sparking a pair of bench-clearing incidents…on the season, his 18 HBP were a career high and tied with teammate Luke Raley for fourth most in the AL.
- On Sept. 13 at MIN, his 448-foot go-ahead homer in the 9th inning marked the farthest HR of his career (prev. 445 ft., 4/23/21 vs. TOR).
- ASG: Earned his first career All-Star Game selection and went 1-for-2 as the starting left fielder…he became the second outfielder in Rays franchise history to receive a fan-elected start, joining Carl Crawford in 2010.
- HOME RUN DERBY: Became the third player in Rays history to participate in the event, joining Evan Longoria (2008) and Carlos Peña (2009), and the first to advance past the opening round.

- Finished as runner-up to TOR Vladimir Guerrero Jr., falling in the final round, 25-23...defeated TEX Adolis García in the opening round, 24-17, and out-homered CWS Luis Robert in the semi-finals, 35-22.
- Tallied 82 total homers, second most by any participant in the Derby's history behind Guerrero Jr.'s 91 long balls in Cleveland in 2019... his 35 homers in the semi-finals were tied for fourth most in a single Derby round, trailing only SEA Julio Rodríguez (41HR, 2023 1st round), Guerrero Jr. (40HR, 2019 semi-finals) and LAD Joc Pederson (39 HR, 2019 semi-finals).
- POSTSEASON: Went 3-for-8 (.375) in the Rays AL Wild Card Series vs. Texas...singled and doubled off Jordan Montgomery in Game 1 before adding a 4th-inning single in Game 2.
- WBC: Made his World Baseball Classic debut with Team Mexico and hit .450 (9-for-20) with 6 2B, 1 HR and 9 RBI in six games...was one of two unanimous selections along with Trea Turner to be named to the 2023 All-World Baseball Classic Team.

- Recorded a pair of multi-HR games, both in a span of 15 games, on Sept. 6 vs. MIA and Sept. 23 at NYM…became the fastest in club history with a pair of multi-HR games, coming in his 25th and 39th career games…broke the mark previously held by Curt Casali (49th and 50th career games).
- On Aug. 30 at MIA, was recalled from the alternate training site and made his Rays debut as a defensive replacement in left field.
- On Aug. 31 at NYY, made his first start with the Rays and started out of the leadoff spot for the first time in his career…recorded his first hit as a Ray, a 6th-inning single off Nick Nelson, and stole second base with two outs in the inning.
- On Sept. 2 at NYY, hit his first homer as a Ray against Jordan Montgomery in the 1st inning.
- On Sept. 6 vs. MIA, hit solo homers in the 1st and 6th innings for his first career multi-HR game… became the fourth Cuban-born player with a multi-HR game for the Rays, joining Yandy Díaz, Yunel Escobar and José Canseco (twice).
- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 17 overall prospect in the minors following the season… was the No. 2 prospect in the Rays system.
- POSTSEASON: Enjoyed a historic postseason, batting .377/.442/.831 (29-for-77) with 10 HR and 14 RBI in 20 games (all starts) and setting major league records for a single postseason in home runs, hits, extra-base hits (14, tied) and total bases (64).
- Hit 3 HR in the ALDS, 4 HR in the ALCS and 3 HR in the World Series, tying the major league record for most career postseason series with 3 HR (or more)…joined Babe Ruth, Mickey Mantle, Carlos Beltrán and Jose Altuve.

- Recorded five three-hit games, passing HOU Jose Altuve in 2017, STL Albert Pujols in 2004, SEA Edgar Martinez in 1995 and SEA Jay Buhner in 1995 for the most in a single postseason.
- Homered in Games 1-3 of the ALDS against the Yankees…became the third Ray to homer in three consecutive postseason games, joining Evan Longoria (4) in 2008 and Carlos Peña (3) in 2008.
- Named Most Valuable Player of the ALCS, the first rookie position player to win MVP of a League Championship Series or World Series…he has since been joined on this list by HOU Jeremy Peña in the 2022 ALCS and 2022 World Series… prior to Arozarena, the only rookies to be named MVP of a League Championship Series were all pitchers: BAL Mike Boddicker (1983), FLA Liván Hernández (1997) and STL Michael Wacha (2013).
- In Game 7 of the ALCS vs. HOU, became the first Rays rookie to homer in a "winner take all" game and became the first major league rookie with a go-ahead homer in a Game 7 since FLA Miguel Cabrera in the 2003 NLCS at CHC.
- Became the second rookie in major league history to hit 3 HR in a World Series, joining NYY Charlie Keller (3) in 1939…recorded at least 1 RBI in Games 3-6 of the World Series and became the first rookie in major league history to do so in four consecutive World Series games.
- In 2019, appeared in 19 games and made four starts, all in center field, over two stints with the Cardinals, his first career major league action.
- Selected from Triple-A Memphis on Aug. 13 and made his major league debut the next night at KC, going 2-for-4, including a bases-loaded, RBI single in the 7th inning for his first career hit… optioned on Aug. 19, but was recalled on Sept. 3 and remained on the active roster through the end of the season.
- On Sept. 25 at AZ, hit a solo shot off Merrill Kelly in the 6th inning for his first career homer.
- Combined for 92 games between Double-A Springfield and Memphis, batting .344/.431/.571 (118-for-343) with 15 HR, 53 RBI and 17 SB… his 15 HR tied for fifth among Cardinals minor leaguers…ranked fourth with 44 XBH, fifth with 196 total bases and seventh with 17 SB.
- Missed the start of the season with a right hand fracture…made his season debut on May 11.
- Hit for the cycle on July 26 at Oklahoma City (Dodgers)…completed the feat with a two-run triple in the 5th inning…joined Luke Voit in 2018 and Mark Little in 2000 as the only Memphis players to ever hit for the cycle.
- Named the Cardinals Minor League Hitter of the Month for both June and July, batting .376/.453/.600 (77-for-205) over that stretch.
- Named to the Cardinals Organizational All-Star Team by MLB.com…named a Triple-A All-Star by Baseball America.
- POSTSEASON: Was used four times as a pinch-hitter and once as a defensive replacement… became the third Cuban-born player to appear in a postseason game for the Cardinals, joining Eli Marrero and Tony Fossas.
- Acquired by the Rays on Jan. 9, 2020…at the time of the trade, ranked by Baseball America as the No. 10 prospect in the Cardinals system.
- In 2018, hit .274/.359/.433 (98-for-358) with 12 HR, 49 RBI and 26 SB in 113 games between Memphis and Springfield…his 26 SB ranked fourth among Cardinals minor leaguers.

ACQUIRED From the Pittsburgh Pirates (as a player to be named, 8/14/18) along with RHP Tyler Glasnow and OF Austin Meadows in exchange for RHP Chris Archer, 7/31/18

X-RAY REPORT

- Shane's father, Raja, hails from Beirut, Lebanon, where soccer was his sport of choice…after moving to the U.S. at the age of 15, Raja took to playing football and basketball, developing into an all-state defensive back and winning several 3-on-3 basketball tournaments…baseball didn't come naturally to him, so Raja joined a local slow-pitch softball league after Shane expressed interest in the sport…Raja eventually went on to play professional slow-pitch softball for the Coors Light Silver Bullets and coached several of his son's youth teams.
- Shane says his mother, Tammy, is the reason he keeps his long hair…he described her as a "70s child" who loves rock 'n' roll.
- Prior to graduating from Concordia Lutheran (Texas) High School, Shane was a highly-touted prospect who caught the attention of college coaches and amateur scouts with a 98 mph fastball…among those who watched him pitch in high school was Hall of Famer and Texas native Nolan Ryan, who was an advisor for the Astros.
- On the same day he signed with Texas Christian University in November 2016, he learned his mother, Tammy, beat breast cancer and was declared cancer-free…he chose to sign with the Horned Frogs so his parents and family had several opportunities to see him play in person… he eventually decided to forgo college after being drafted in the first round (No. 12 overall) by the Pirates in the 2017 MLB Draft

- Did not pitch after undergoing 2022 Tommy John surgery…began throwing bullpen sessions in September but remained on the injured list for the entirety of the season.
- Tabbed as having the Best Slider among Rays prospects by Baseball America for the sixth consecutive year.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In 2022, was limited to six starts with the Rays due to injuries…was on the active roster from June 11–July 12 before being placed on the 15-day IL with a right elbow strain.
- Underwent arthroscopic surgery on March 21 to remove loose bodies from his right elbow, performed by Dr. Keith Meister in Dallas.
- Began a throwing program from 45 feet on April 7, progressed to throwing from the bullpen on April 26 and threw live batting practice beginning on May 9…went 2.0 IP in an extended spring game on May 14 and officially began a rehab assignment with Triple-A Durham on May 19.
- Experienced right elbow discomfort while playing catch on July 12 and placed on the 15-day IL the next day…was evaluated on July 14 by Dr. Keith Meister…received an injection and advised to try a program of rest, treatment and rehab…continued to feel discomfort in throwing sessions and underwent Tommy John surgery on Sept. 28, performed by Dr. Meister in Dallas.
- From June 17–July 3, became the third age-23 (or younger) starter (4th time) in club history to make four consecutive starts of one run (or fewer), following Matt Moore (4) in 2012 and Scott Kazmir in 2007 (4) and 2006 (4).
- On June 17 at BAL, started on his 23rd birthday and yielded two hits in 6.0 scoreless innings… became the third Ray to make a scoreless start on his birthday, joining Corey Kluber (4.2 IP) on April 10, 2022 vs. BAL and Jeremy Hellickson (8.2 IP) on April 8, 2012 vs. NYY…became the youngest pitcher to go least 6.0 scoreless innings with 7+ SO on his birthday since CAL Marcelino López pitched a three-hit shutout with 12 SO on his 23rd birthday on Sept. 23, 1966 vs. BAL.

- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 32 overall prospect in the minors following the season…was the No. 1 prospect in the Rays system…the publication also tabbed him as having the Best Fastball in the organization for a fourth consecutive year and Best Slider in the organization for a fifth consecutive year.
- In 2021, selected from Durham on Sept. 20 and finished the season in the Rays rotation.
- On Sept. 20 vs. TOR, made his major league debut at 22 years, 95 days and became the third-youngest Ray to start and win his major league debut behind Scott Kazmir (20.212) on Aug. 23, 2004 at SEA and Joe Kennedy (22.013) on June 6, 2001 at TOR…78.5 pct. (51 of 65) of his pitches were strikes, the highest for a starting pitcher in his major league debut since pitches were first tracked in 1988, according to Stats LLC…became the third Rays pitcher to go 5.0+ IP and allow two or fewer hits in his debut, joining Brendan McKay on June 29, 2019 vs. TEX and Blake Snell on April 23, 2016 at NYY.
- On Sept. 26 vs. MIA, pitched 5.2 scoreless innings and improved to 2-0 to begin his major league career…joined Jeremy Hellickson in 2010 as the only Rays pitchers to start their major league career with back-to-back outings of 5.0+ IP and three or fewer hits…recorded 9 SO, the most for a Rays pitcher within one of the first two games of his career since Wade Davis (9) on Sept. 6, 2009 vs. DET…at 22 years, 101 days, he became the youngest Rays pitcher with 9+ SO since Matt Moore (22.096) on Sept. 22, 2011 at NYY (11).
- Named Minor League Pitcher of the Year by the Rays Baseball Operations department…went 5-4 with a 2.06 ERA (78.2IP, 18ER) and 113 SO in 17 starts between two levels…began the season with Montgomery and made seven starts there before earning a June 15 promotion to Durham…tied for fifth among Rays minor leaguers in strikeouts…at the time of his Sept. 20 call up, led Triple-A East with a 1.76 ERA (min. 10GS).
- Named the organization's Minor League Pitcher of the Month for June, going 3-0 with a 0.93 ERA (29.0IP, 3ER) and 42 SO in six starts between two levels…pitched 5.0 perfect innings on June 9 vs. Birmingham, his last start before receiving a promotion to Durham.
- Made the AL Team for the All-Star Futures Game, his first career selection, pitching a perfect 2nd inning with a pair of strikeouts.
- Pitched for Team USA in the 2020 Tokyo Olympics (July 30–Aug 7, 2021) and won a silver medal…named to the U.S. Team roster on July 2, along with then-Bulls teammate Joe Ryan and future Rays teammate David Robertson…started against Japan in Game 1 of the modified double elimination bracket, his only Olympic appearance, and yielded five hits, two runs and three walks in 2.2 IP of a no decision.
- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 8 overall prospect in the minors following the season…was the No. 1 prospect in the Rays system.
- POSTSEASON: Started Game 2 of the ALDS vs. BOS, yielding three runs in 2.1 IP.
- Became the second pitcher in major league history to start a postseason game with three or fewer career regular season appearances up to that point, joining TB Matt Moore in Game 1 of the 2011 ALDS at TEX…was the second-youngest pitcher in postseason history to start against the Red Sox behind 21-year-old NYM Dwight Gooden in the 1986 World Series.
- In 2020, was part of the Rays 60-man player pool and spent the summer at the alternate training site in Port Charlotte.
- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 6 prospect in the Rays system following the season.
- In 2019, made 17 starts for Class-A Bowling Green in his first full season in the Rays system.
- Made eight appearances (1GS) for the Salt River Rafters in the Arizona Fall League, and named to the AFL Rising Stars Game.
- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 71 overall prospect in the minors following the season…was the No. 5 prospect in the Rays system.
- In 2018, acquired from the Pirates as the player to be named from the July 31 trade involving Chris Archer.
- At the time of the trade, was ranked by Baseball America as the No. 4 prospect in the Pirates system…ranked by the publication as the No. 11 prospect in the Rays system following the season.

AMATEUR CAREER

- Selected by the Pirates in the first round (12th overall) of the 2017 First-Year Player Draft out of Concordia Lutheran (Texas) High School…committed to pitch at Texas Christian University before signing with the Pirates.

CONTRACT STATUS Signed through 2024	SIGNING SCOUT Milt Hill (Rays)
ACQUIRED Selected in the fifth round (150th overall) of the 2018 First-Year Player Draft

X-RAY REPORT

- Taj keeps a journal so he has a foundation of what to build on from outing to outing…he likes to keep his notes positive and logs "cons" as learning steps to improve upon…for Christmas one year, his mom got him three notebooks for different thoughts: pitching assessments, motivational quotes and off-the-field lessons.
- His mother, Ana Mosley, has kept notes of each of her son's professional outings in a personalized scorebook since he debuted for Rookie-level Princeton in 2019…when she couldn't attend in person, she followed along via streaming broadcasts…on her birthday last season, Ana made the trip from Atlanta to witness Taj help the Rays continue their historic season-opening winning streak in his major league debut.
- Taj didn't begin pitching regularly until he was a high school senior…when the Rays asked him about his routines in high school after selecting him in the 2018 Draft, he said, "I don't have anything. Just give me what you've got."

2023 SEASON

- Went 5-8 with a 5.56 ERA over 22 games (21GS) in his first MLB season…had four stints with the Rays: April 11-13, April 18-25, May 18–July 31, and Sept. 3 through the end of the season.
- Collected 128 SO in his 21 starts, most in Rays history through a rookie pitcher's first 21 career starts…also marked the fourth most through any pitcher's first 21 starts after joining the Rays, behind Charlie Morton (152), Drew Smyly (137) and Tyler Glasnow (129).
- His 128 SO as a starter mark the seventh most through an AL pitcher's first 21 career starts over the last 10 seasons (2014-23).
- Posted a 28.4 pct. strikeout rate, the highest mark by a rookie in Rays history (min. 300BF)…ranked seventh among AL pitchers with 20+ starts.
- He was the youngest pitcher in the majors to make 20+ starts…became the third pitcher (4th instance) in Rays history to make 20+ starts in an age 22 or younger season, joining Scott Kazmir (32GS, 2005; 24GS, 2006) and Joe Kennedy (20GS, 2001).
- Opponents hit .285 (81-for-284) with 19 HR against his fastballs (4-seam/cutter) compared to .181 (23-for-127) with 3 HR against his breaking/offspeed pitches (curveball/changeup).
- Produced a 41.3 pct. whiff rate on his changeup, the seventh-highest mark on any AL pitcher's changeup (min. 100 pitches swung at).
- Excluding openers, became one of four pitchers in the expansion era (since 1961) to have 0 SB attempted against him through his first 21 career starts, joining DET Tyler Alexander (2019-21), KC Yordano Ventura (2013-14) and CIN Travis Wood (2010-11).
- The 1-4 spots in the opposing order hit .291 (62-for-213) vs. .212 (42-for-198) by the 5-9 spots…held left-handed batters to a .660 OPS with 5 HR compared to a .941 OPS and 17 HR by righties.
- Went 5-3 with a 3.86 ERA (49.0IP, 21ER) over his first 10 career starts, a stretch that culminated in his first career quality start June 21 vs. BAL.
- Recorded eight 6+ SO performances within his first 10 career games, tied for seventh most in the majors since 1901 and one game shy of the record shared by six pitchers…on the season, went 5-3 with a 3.60 ERA (65.0IP, 26ER) when recording 6+ SO compared to 0-5 with an 8.84 ERA (38.2IP, 38ER) with 5 SO or fewer.
- Entered the season ranked as the Rays No. 3 prospect and the No. 44 prospect in the majors by Baseball America...was ranked as the Rays No. 1 prospect and the No. 16 prospect in the majors by MLB.com.

- On April 12 vs. BOS, notched 8 SO while allowing 3 ER over 5.0 IP in his major league debut...it marked only the second time in the modern era (since 1900) a team on a winning streak of 10+ games had a rookie make their first career start, joining ATL Mike McQueen in 1969...the 8 SO were the second most in a Rays pitcher's debut behind Wade Davis on Sept. 6, 2009 vs. DET (9SO).
- On June 15 at OAK, recorded each of his first nine outs via the strikeout, becoming the first MLB rookie to accomplish the feat since ATL Spencer Strider on July 7, 2022 vs. STL...his 11 SO on the day were tied with six other pitchers for the second most by a Rays rookie, trailing only Dan Wheeler (12SO) on Sept. 12, 1999 vs. OAK.
- From his April 12 debut through June 15, his 0.84 HR/9.0 IP was 12th lowest in the AL (min. 40.0IP)...from that point on, his 2.77 HR/9.0 IP was second highest in the majors (min. 50.0IP) behind MIN Joe Ryan (2.79).
- On June 21 vs. BAL, earned his fifth and final win of the season after throwing his first career quality start...became the second rookie in Rays history to record 8+ SO and zero walks in a start of 6.0 IP or fewer, joining Jake Odorizzi (2x, last: 8/9/14 at CHC).
- On June 27 at AZ, surrendered career highs in runs (7) and homers (4)...entered that stretch leading MLB rookies (min. 25.0IP) with a 2.13 ERA (25.1IP, 6ER) on the road.
- On July 29 at HOU, allowed a HR for the seventh straight start in a 17-4 defeat, the longest streak by a Rays pitcher since Jake Odorizzi (15GS) from May 1–July 23, 2017.
- On Sept. 3 at CLE, held the Guardians to one run despite issuing a career-high five walks...became the first Rays pitcher to throw 5.0+ IP with 5+ walks and 1 ER or fewer allowed since Rich Hill on June 23, 2021 vs. Boston (5.0IP, ER, 5BB).
- On Sept. 29 at TOR, made his first career appearance out of the bullpen, entering in the 7th inning and surrendering one run after permitting back-to-back two-out doubles to Vladimir Guerrero Jr. and Bo Bichette.
- Went winless (0-5) with a 7.11 ERA (55.2IP, 44ER) over his final 13 outings (11GS).
- Went 2-5 with a 6.45 ERA (37.2IP, 27ER) over 10 starts for Triple-A Durham...in his final four outings from Aug. 10-27, recorded a 1.37 ERA (19.2IP, 3ER).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In 2022, split the season between Double-A Montgomery and Triple-A Durham, earning a July 21 promotion...went 7-4 with a 2.57 ERA (133.1IP, 38ER) and 141 SO in 28 starts between the two levels.
- Led Rays minor leaguers in starts and innings and ranked second in strikeouts.
- Named Southern League Pitcher of the Month for May, turning in a 1.06 ERA (17.0IP, 2ER) and 23 SO in four starts...allowed three or fewer hits in all four starts.
- Started for the AL Team at the All-Star Futures Game, his first career selection...pitched around a double and walk for a scoreless 1st inning.
- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 44 overall prospect in the minors following the season... was the No. 3 prospect in the Rays system... the publication also tabbed him as having the Best Control in the organization and the Best Breaking Pitch and Best Control in the Southern League in its Best Tools survey.
- Split the 2021 season between Class-A Charleston and Class-A Bowling Green... went 12-3 with a 1.83 ERA (103.1IP, 21ER) in 23 appearances (22GS) between the two levels.
- Led full-season minor leaguers in ERA, tied for third in wins and ranked eighth in opp avg. (.181) and ninth in WHIP (0.93).
- Tied for the High-A East lead with nine wins... led Rays minor leaguers in wins and ranked third with 123 SO.
- Named the Top Starting Pitcher in the minors at the annual MiLBY Awards following the season.
- Named Carolina League Pitcher of the Month for both June and July, going 7-1 with a 0.77 ERA (47.0IP, 4ER) in 10 starts over that stretch.
- Named to the Rays Organizational All-Star Team by MLB.com and to Baseball America's Minor League All-Star Team.
- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 58 overall prospect in the minors following the season... was the No. 4 prospect in the Rays system...the publication also tabbed him as the Best Pitching Prospect in Low-A East in its Best Tools survey.
- In 2020, was not part of the Rays 60-man player pool and did not play following the cancellation of the minor league season.
- Pitched in the Instructional League in October.
- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 21 prospect in the Rays system following the season.

AMATEUR CAREER

- Selected out of Redan (Ga.) High School, the same school that produced former All-Stars Brandon Phillips, Domonic Brown and Wally Joyner.
- Began pitching as a high school senior after mostly playing the outfield in his youth.
- Committed to the University of South Carolina before signing with the Rays...had initially committed to Hillsborough (Fla.) Community College before flipping during his senior year.

X-RAY REPORT

- While growing up in Las Tablas, the capital of Panama's Los Santos province, José played soccer, volleyball, basketball and baseball.
- He overcame surgeries on all four of his limbs during his journey to the big leagues…he broke the tibia and fibula in his left leg following a collision during a baseball game at 16 years old…in 2019, he had surgery on his left hand (fractured fourth metacarpal after a HBP) and his right hand (fractured fourth metacarpal on a SB attempt)…he tore his right ACL while playing winter ball in 2020 and suffered both a left fractured hamate and a re-fractured fourth metacarpal in his right hand in 2022…despite the rough path he took, José believes it was all worth it to achieve his goal of becoming a major leaguer.
- José won a NJCAA National Championship with Chipola (Fla.) College in 2017 after hitting .401 during the season…he was one of 13 players who were eventually drafted off the team…longtime Chipola coach Jeff Johnson, who has produced future major leaguers like Jose Bautista, Russell Martin and Adam Duvall, described José as "a guy who does everything well."
- José suited up for Team Panama at the World Baseball Classic last season, hitting safely in three of four games during group play…he recorded an RBI-single in Panama's opening contest against Taiwan.
- He and his wife, Ana Lilena, welcomed their daughter, Analía, on August 27, 2020.

2023 SEASON

- Appeared in 104 games and made 70 starts (2B-53G, SS-13G, 3B-4G) with the Mariners in his first major league season after being selected from Triple-A Tacoma on April 15.
- Recorded 26 stolen bases, third most by a rookie in Mariners history behind Ichiro Suzuki (56SB, 2001) and James Jones (27SB, 2014)…marked the second-most steals among AL rookies, trailing OAK Esteury Ruiz (67SB), and 11th most in the AL overall.
- Went 26-for-29 (89.7%) on stolen base attempts, the fifth-best success rate in the AL.
- Hit .265 (27-for-102) with a .758 OPS vs. LHP compared to .186 (24-for-129) with a .588 OPS against righties.
- His 17 HBP ranked sixth among AL hitters…was hit by a pitch in four straight games from August 17-21, tied with LAA Zach Neto (April 18-21) for the longest streak in the majors in 2023.
- Recorded seven defensive runs saved at second base, third most among AL second basemen behind CLE Andrés Giménez (23) and TEX Marcus Semien (16).
- His 29.0 ft./sec. average sprint speed ranked in the 90th percentile of qualified major leaguers (Baseball Savant).
- Was a non-roster invite to Mariners Spring Training for the second straight year before opening the season with Triple-A Tacoma, hitting .333 (9-for-27) with 1 2B, 2 HR 9 RBI and 3 SB in 10 games prior to his selection…it marked his first career action at the Triple-A level.
- On April 15 vs. COL, made his major league debut in the 9th inning as a defensive replacement at shortstop.
- Hit .273 (15-for-55) with 2 2B, 2 HR, 9 RBI and an .832 OPS over 22 games in May, including .381 (8-for-21) vs. LHP
- On May 21 at ATL, hit his first career homer off Nick Anderson…became the second Mariner with a homer and 3+ steals in the same game, joining Mike Cameron on May 16, 2002 at TOR.

- Recorded a career-long nine-game on-base streak from June 2-13, batting .300 (6-for-20) with 2 XBH, 6 BB, 4 HBP and 6 RBI during the run.
- Went 3-for-31 (.097) with 12 SO in his final 20 games from August 22–end of the season…had hit .421 (8-for-19) with 3 2B and 5 HBP in six games prior to that stretch (Aug. 15-21).
- WBC: Appeared in four games for Panama, going 3-for-13 (.231) with 1 2B, 1 RBI and 1 BB.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Made starts at third base (50GS), shortstop (49GS) and second base (35GS) throughout his minor league career…from 2021-22, 41 of his 49 starts came at shortstop.
- In 2022, played in 33 games, 31 of which were with Double-A Arkansas, hitting .245 (25-for-102) with 36 BB, 15 SB and a .454 OBP…had two stints on the injured list: April 22–June 1 (broken left hamate) and June 14–August 25 (right hand fracture).
- Went 15-for-17 (88.2%) on stolen base attempts…after being assigned to Arkansas on August 26, his 13 SB over the remainder of the season ranked second in Double-A behind Nasim Nuñez (14SB)…also led Double-A in walks (23) and ranked fourth in OBP (.493) over that span.
- Played for the Peoria Javelinas in the Arizona Fall League for the third time and second straight season (2019, 2021), posting an .800 OPS with six steals across 16 games.
- In 2021, was limited to 20 games between Double-A Arkansas, Class-A Everett and the ACL Mariners due to injury…opened the season on the injured list and made his season debut on August 16, batting a combined .258 (16-for-62) between the three clubs.
- Was not a member of the Mariners 60-man player pool in 2020 and did not play following the cancellation of the minor league season.
- In 2019, hit .264 (67-for-254) with 19 2B, 3 HR and 22 RBI over 66 games between Class-A Visalia (AZ) and Class-A Modesto (SEA)…traded from the Diamondbacks to the Mariners on July 31, 2019 in exchange for RHP Mike Leake.
- Named a Mid-Season California League All-Star…tied for fourth in the league with 32 stolen bases despite spening two months on the injured list with a fractured right hand from May 31–July 31.
- In 2018, split the season between Class-A Hillsboro and Class-A Kane County, earning a mid-season promotion to Kane County on July 28…tied for the club lead with 4 HR from the time of his promotion through the end of the regular season.

AMATEUR CAREER

- Selected by the Arizona Diamondbacks in the seventh round of the 2017 First-Year Player Draft.
- Hit .369 (147-for-398) 27 HR and 111 RBI over 117 games at Chipola (Fla.) College in 2016-17…was named MVP of the 2017 Junior College World Series after leading the tournament in home runs (tied, 5) and RBI (16).
- Graduated from Manuel Marla Tejada Roca (Panama) High School in 2014.

X-RAY REPORT

- In the Rays final series last season in Toronto, Junior received a standing ovation during batting practice after launching balls off the fence in front of the upper deck in left field at Rogers Centre.
- Following his first season in the Rays organization in 2022, Junior spent the winter overseas with the Australian Baseball League's Perth Heat, leading the club to a championship series appearance while recording team highs in RBI (37) and home runs (14)…he is one of several Rays to appear for the Heat before making the big leagues, joining a group that includes Mike Brosseau, Tristan Gray and Jacob Lopez.
- He is a big fan of Padres third baseman Manny Machado…Junior recalls sending his idol an Instagram direct message in 2014—Manny responded by telling him to keep working hard to fulfill his dream of making the big leagues.

2023 SEASON

- Appeared in seven games after being selected from Double-A Montgomery on Sept. 22, each of
- Named the Rays 2023 Minor League Player of the Year by the club's baseball operations department…hit .327/.426/.617 (106-for-324) with 26 2B, 22 HR, 81 RBI and 59 BB in 93 games between Bowling Green and Montgomery, including 10 2B, 5 HR and 26 RBI in 30 games after his Aug. 9 promotion to Double-A.
- Was 20 years, 80 days old at the time of his debut, becoming the second-youngest player to debut for the Rays, trailing only B.J. Upton (19.347)…the only player younger than him (born 7/5/03) to appear in a major league game in 2023 was MIA Eury Pérez (4/15/03).
- Six of his eight hits with the Rays registered exit velocities of at least 103.0 mph.
- Became the sixth Montgomery Biscuit, including the first position player, to be promoted directly to the Rays, joining José Alvarado (2017), Hunter Wood (2017), Chad Orvella (2005), John Webb (2004) and Scott Kazmir (2004).

- Led Rays minor leaguers in batting average, on-base pct., slugging pct. and OPS (1.043), tied for third in homers, ranked fourth in RBI, fifth in extra-base hits (49) and sixth in walks.
- Named Double-A Player of the Year and a First Team Minor League All-Star by Baseball America…the publication also tabbed him as the best Power Hitter in the Rays organization for the second straight season in addition to the Best Defensive Third Baseman in High-A.
- Earned Southern League MVP honors, becoming the sixth Montgomery Biscuit to win the award…also recognized as the league's Top MLB Prospect…was named Southern League Player of the Month for August after hitting .366 (34-for-93) with a league-leading 10 HR and 25 RBI across 24 games.

- Won the Breakout Player of the Year award at the inaugural MiLB Awards Show…finished as runner-up for Hitting Prospect of the Year to BAL Jackson Holliday.
- Recorded a 38-game on-base streak with Montgomery from July 19–Sept. 5, marking the longest run by a Biscuit since Hak-Ju Lee (46G: June 13–Aug. 3, 2012).
- On Aug. 12 vs. Birmingham, recorded a career-high 3 HR and 6 RBI for Montgomery.
- On Sept. 23 vs. TOR, made his major league debut and notched his first career hit with a 112.0-mph single off Hyun Jin Ryu…it marked the hardest-hit ball by a player age 20 or younger over the last four seasons (2020-23)…also marked the highest exit velocity recorded by any Rays hitter age 20 or younger in the Statcast era (since 2015).
- On Sept. 26 at BOS, tallied his first career XBH with an RBI-double off the Green Monster in the opening frame.
- On Oct. 1 at TOR, hit his first career homer, a 107.0-mph, opposite-field shot off Tim Mayza…it marked the Rays 230th and final home run of the season, marking a new club record (prev. 228HR, 2017).
- Went 5-for-15 (.333) with 1 HR and 5 RBI over his final three games.
- POSTSEASON: Went hitless in a pair of at-bats as a pinch hitter in the Rays AL Wild Card Series vs. the Rangers.
- Slashed .333/.362/.575 (29-for-87) across 21 games for Leones del Escogido in the Dominican Winter League…his 5 HR were tied for third most in the league.
- Rated the No. 5 prospect in baseball in Baseball America's in-season update.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In 2022, was named Most Valuable Player for the FCL Rays by the Rays Baseball Operations department…also earned an FCL postseason All-Star nod…hit .314/.384/.489 (75-for-239) with 7 2B, 11 HR and 51 RBI in 62 games between the FCL Rays and Class-A Charleston
- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 8 prospect in the Rays organization following the season…the publication also tabbed him as the best Power Hitter among Rays farmhands.
- Hit .303 (47-for-155) with 14 HR in 39 games for the Perth Heat in the Australian Baseball League.
- In 2021, ranked among Dominican Summer League hitters in homers (T2nd, 9) and slugging pct. (5th, .534) in his first professional season.
- Acquired by the Rays from the Guardians on November 19, 2021 in exchange for RHP Tobias Myers.

X-RAY REPORT

- In 2021, Aaron and his wife, Francesca Barilla, established Pearls for Perseverance (PFP), their charitable foundation...the acronym "PFP" is derived from the phrase "pitchers' fielding practice"...as Aaron explained, "Breaking down, simply, the pitcher fields the ball. If he can't, there's a bunch of players behind him that will make the play or at least give it their best shot and be there for backup and support. That concept we wanted to apply to anyone going through something. They're going to give it their best shot and try and field what's in front of them. If it gets past them, there's people behind them that are going to pick up that slack and take care of whatever they can."
- As part of PFP, Aaron would set aside his warm-up baseball, referred to as a "pearl," which would be signed and dated before being distributed to a patient at Cleveland Clinic Children's Hospital...he often recorded video messages or scheduled in-person visits for those who received baseballs...Aaron was selected as Cleveland's 2021 Roberto Clemente Award nominee for his efforts.
- In the summer of 2021 Aaron visited the Wilson Sporting Goods headquarters to design a glove for the following season...a percentage of proceeds from sales of the glove go to LifeAct, an Ohio-based nonprofit working to prevent teen suicide.
- During his sophomore year at Northeastern in 2015, he started against the Boston Red Sox in a spring exhibition game in Fort Myers, tossing a pair of scoreless innings while striking out David Ortiz, Hanley Ramirez and Mike Napoli... his performance led to an opportunity with the Cape Cod League's Hyannis Harbor Hawks that summer, where he was named an All-Star.
- This past offseason, Aaron and Rays Pitching Coach Kyle Snyder met for a bullpen session at Northeastern in front of the school's baseball team...Rays prospect Dominic Keegan, a fellow Massachusetts resident, handled catching duties.

2023 SEASON

- Acquired by the Rays in a trade deadline swap with the Guardians in exchange for INF Kyle Manzardo on July 31...between both clubs, set career highs in starts (23), strikeouts (116), opp. slugging pct. (.363) and bWAR (2.7).
- After making two starts with the Guardians on April 1 & 7, was on the 15-day IL with a left oblique strain from April 10–June 2...went 4-1 with a 2.24 ERA (64.1IP, 16ER) in his final 11 starts with Cleveland following his activation.
- In 10 starts with the Rays, he was 2-3 with a 5.36 ERA (45.1IP, 27ER)...went 2-1 with a 3.82 ERA (30.2IP, 13ER) in his first six starts from Aug. 6–Sept. 4 compared to 0-2 with an 8.59 ERA (14.2IP, 14ER) in four outings from Sept. 9 on.
- Held opponents to a .188 (25-for-113) average on his curveball, recording 45 of his 113 (39.8%) strikeouts on the offering, but 5 of the 12 HR he allowed came on his curve...averaged 2,985 RPM on the pitch, fourth highest on any MLB pitcher's curveball (min. 400 curves thrown).
- Limited opposing hitters to a .210 (21-for-100) average and .549 OPS with RISP, the fifth-lowest such OPS in the AL (min. 100BF w/ RISP).
- Went 4-3 with a 2.40 ERA (60.0IP, 16ER) over 12 road starts...min. 60.0 IP, it signaled the third-lowest road ERA in the majors behind SD Blake Snell (1.99) and NYY Gerrit Cole (2.34).
- Opened the season 3-1 with a 3.48 ERA (54.1IP, 21ER) in his first nine starts at home, extending his career-best streak of 5.0+ IP starts at home to 13 dating back to Aug. 15, 2022…allowed 10 ER in 8.0 IP (11.25 ERA) over his final two starts at Tropicana Field on September 9 & 20.

- Was one of the AL's top pitchers in July, going 3-0 with a 1.45 ERA (27.IP, 6ER) in six starts…he ranked among MLB leaders during the month in ERA (2nd), opp. OPS (2nd, .458), opp. average (3rd, .176) and WHIP (3rd, 0.80)…it marked his lowest ERA in any month of his career (min. 2GS), ahead of August 2019 (2.35)…allowed two or fewer runs in each start and yielded only one home run (7/14 at TEX - Nathaniel Lowe).
- From July 1–Aug. 16, his 1.88 ERA (52.2IP, 11ER), ranked third in the majors behind SD Blake Snell (1.65) and CLE Tanner Bibee (1.82).
- On Aug. 5 at DET, took the loss in his Rays debut after allowing three runs on a season-high-tying nine hits, six of which were singles.
- From his Rays debut on August 6 thru the end of the season, opponents recorded a .350 batting average on balls in play against him, the third-highest mark in the AL in that timeframe (min. 40.0IP)…this, despite ranking among the top 20 AL pitchers (min. 100 balls put in play) with an avg. exit velocity of 88.2 mph in that span.
- On Aug. 23 vs. COL, collected a season-high 16 swings-and-misses, his most since Oct. 5, 2022 vs. KC (17)…it also marked his third career outing with 9+ SO and zero walks (also: 7/7/23 vs. KC; 8/2/20 at MIN).
- On Sept. 4 vs. BOS, recorded a career-high 12 SO, but became the eighth pitcher (10th instance) in Rays history to record 12+ SO and not receive a decision.
- On Sept. 20 vs. LAA, allowed a season-high six runs over 3.0 IP, ending his streak of 35 straight starts allowing four runs or fewer dating back to May 20, 2022…it was the longest active streak in the majors.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In 2022, logged 97.0 innings around three nearly month-long stints on the injured list: May 25–June 21 (left glute soreness), July 14–Aug. 10 (sprained right wrist) and Sept. 2–20 (right forearm inflammation)…missed a total of 69 games.
- Posted a 7.04 ERA (46.0IP, 36ER) in his first 10 starts from April 11–July 2, before rebounding with a 3-1 mark and a 3.00 ERA (51.0IP, 17ER) in his final 10 outings from July 8–Oct. 5…his 0.86 WHIP over that span ranked second in the AL behind Justin Verlander (0.77).
- On Aug. 15 vs. DET, struck out a season-high 10 batters, marking the second time in his career he fanned double-digit batters (also 11SO - June 11, 2021 vs. SEA).
- On Sept. 25 at TEX, earned the win in Cleveland's AL Central-clinching, 10-4 victory (5.0IP, 3H, 2ER, 7SO).
- Allowed at least 1 HR in each of his final four starts, the second-longest streak of his career (5GS: 4/17/22-5/13/22)…allowed 7 HR total in his final seven starts; entered that stretch with a 0.49 HR/9.0 IP, second lowest in the majors (min. 75.0IP) behind MIN Sonny Gray (0.31).
- POSTSEASON: Started Game 5 of the ALDS at New York-AL, lasting just five hitters while recording only one out in his postseason debut after allowing a three-run homer to Giancarlo Stanton (0.1IP, 2H, 3ER)…equaled the shortest postseason start in Cleveland history (Doc Gooden, 1998 ALDS vs. BOS; Ray Caldwell, 1920 WS vs. Brooklyn).
- In 2021, was one of the top pitchers in the majors before a sprained right middle finger suffered during a June 21 start at Wrigley Field landed him on the injured list from June 24–September 7…at the time of his injury, he led the majors in wins (10) and innings pitched (97.2) while ranking eighth in the AL in WHIP (1.06) and ninth in ERA (3.32).
- Prior to his injury, went 10-2 with a 3.32 ERA (97.2IP, 36ER) over 14 starts, recording 5.0+ IP in each of those outings…following his return, he went 2-3 with a 5.74 ERA (26.2IP, 17ER) in six starts, tossing 5.0+ IP in three of those games.
- On June 11 vs. SEA, fanned 11 Mariners in his first career double-digit strikeout game, retiring 22 straight batters after loading the bases in the 1st inning…became the 10th player (12th instance) in Cleveland history to strike out 11+ batters while allowing one or zero hits over 8.0+ shutout frames.
- On June 16 vs. BAL, worked 5.0 frames to earn his third straight win and become the first 10-game winner in the majors.
- In his first "full" major league season in 2020, finished third in the AL in innings pitched (74.0IP) and yielded a league-high 82 hits…also ranked among AL leaders in BB/9.0 IP (4th, 1.9) and GDP (T6th, 8).
- Tossed 6.0+ innings in each of his first first 11 starts…the 11 starts of 6.0+ IP tied for the MLB lead with CHC Yu Darvish and TEX Lance Lynn…his 11 quality starts were tied for seventh in the AL.

- On Aug. 19 at PIT, tossed his first career complete game (9.0IP, 5H, ER, 6SO)...it came in his 15th career game, making him the quickest pitcher to record a complete game since PHI Ben Lively on Sept. 10, 2017 vs. WSH in his 12th game.
- POSTSEASON: Was a member of Cleveland's AL Wild Card roster vs. the Yankees, but did not pitch.
- In 2019, made 10 starts in his first major league action, producing a 2.34 ERA following a June 22 promotion...min. 10 starts, it marked the third-lowest ERA in the majors behind TB Tyler Glasnow (1.78) and LAD Hyun-Jin Ryu.
- Made his season debut with Double-A Akron on May 11 after recovering from a right lat strain suffered in August 2018...earned a June 6 promotion to Triple-A Columbus before his contract was selected by Cleveland on June 22 following two starts with the Clippers...went 7-1 with a 2.35 ERA (72.2IP, 19ER) over 13 starts between Akron and Columbus.
- Became the fifth pitcher since 1908, including the first since 1910, to work 5.0+ innings while allowing two or fewer earned runs in each of his first nine career appearances, joining CHC King Cole (1909-10), BOS Cliff Curtis (1909), DET Ed Summers (1908) and PIT Harley Young (1908).
- Turned in a 1.82 ERA (54.1IP, 11ER) over his first nine outings, the lowest mark for any pitcher that made his first nine starts with Cleveland.
- On June 22 vs. DET, worked 6.0 scoreless innings and earned the win in his major league debut.
- On Aug. 11 at MIN, became the third Cleveland pitcher since 1908 to allow four or fewer hits in each of his first three starts, joining Josh Tomlin (2010) and Clarence Garrett (1915).
- Following the season, Baseball America tabbbed him as having the Best Control in the Cleveland organization.
- In 2018, was limited to 21 starts after being sidelined from a trio of injuries: a right shoulder strain (May 6–June 8), blister (Aug. 8-17) and right lat strain (Aug. 29–end of season)...spent the entire season with Double-A Akron, going 5-7 with a 3.89 ERA (106.1IP, 46ER.

X-RAY REPORT

- Garrett and his wife, Helen, were married on March 3, 2020…the couple has a cat, Ellie, and two dogs: Mowgli, a golden retriever, and Rio, a bernedoodle…during the offseason, he likes spending time with his family and being outdoors…one of his favorite outdoor activities is fishing.
- Garrett's favorite visiting ballpark is Fenway Park…he appreciates the stadium's history and it was the site of his first appearance in a Rays uniform.
- His uncle, Matt McWilliams, played for Short-A Eugene in the Braves system in 1995.

2023 SEASON

- Limited to 15 appearances after suffering a torn right ACL following a collision with NYY Aaron Hicks during a 10th-inning rundown on May 7…placed on the 15-day IL on May 8 before being transferred to the 60-day IL on May 12… underwent surgery to repair the torn ligament on May 17.
- Opposing hitters went 3-for-22 (.136) with nine strikeouts against his slider…from the beginning of the season through his final appearance on May 7, it marked the sixth-lowest opp. average on any AL pitcher's slider (min. 20AB).
- Entered with the Rays ahead or tied in 14 of his 15 appearances…the Rays went 14-1 when he pitched.
- Made his second career Opening Day roster, including his first with the Rays.
- Recorded a 0.84 ERA (10.2IP, 1ER) in his first 12 outings, posting a 0.84 WHIP while allowing only three hits in 34 at-bats (.088)…yielded 3 ER in 1.1 IP (20.25 ERA) over his final three games.
- On April 22 vs. CWS, earned his lone win of the season with a scoreless 10th inning, retiring the side in order to maintain a 3-3 tie and set the stage for Randy Arozarena's walk-off single.
- From April 30–May 5, was charged with blown saves in back-to-back appearances after allowing a go-ahead HR to CWS Andrew Vaughn and a game-tying HR to NYY Harrison Bader.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In 2022, made 17 appearances spanning five stints in the majors between the Dodgers and Rays…acquired on Aug. 1 and reported to Triple-A Durham…recalled on Aug. 27 and remained with the Rays through the end of the season.
- Struck out 36.8 pct. (25 of 68) of batters faced with the Rays, totaling 25 SO in 18.2 IP…recorded multiple strikeouts in eight of 13 outings with the Rays and 3+ SO four times.
- Held opponents to a .125 avg. (8-for-64) after joining the Rays…lefties hit .105 (2-for-19) with 0 HR and righties hit .133 (6-for-45) with 1 HR.
- Recorded four outs or more in eight of 13 appearances with the Rays, compared to four of the first 27 games of his career…went at least 1.0 IP in 12 of 13 appearances with the Rays, compared to 13 of 27 to start his career.
- Made his first career Opening Day roster…was with the Dodgers from Opening Day–April 16, April 21-30, May 13-14 and July 26.
- On Aug 27 at BOS, pitched the 7th and 8th innings in his Rays debut and retired all 6 BF… became the third pitcher in franchise history with at least two perfect innings in his Rays debut, joining Brent Honeywell Jr. (2.0IP) on April 11, 2021 vs. NYY and John Curtiss (2.0IP) on Aug. 9, 2020 vs. NYY.

2023 SEASON

- Named the Rays Minor League Pitcher of the Year by the club's baseball operations department after going 8-1 with a 2.94 ERA (104.0IP, 34ER) in 26 appearances (22GS) between Class-A Bowling Green and Class-A Charleston.
- Ranked among Rays farmhands (min. 75.0IP) in opp. average (1st, .149), strikeouts (T1st, 144), ERA (2nd, 2.94) and WHIP (4th, 1.19).
- Allowed only 10 extra-base hits to 432 BF...min. 75.0 IP, his .192 opp. slugging pct. was the lowest mark in the minors, 52 points lower than the next closest pitcher (Marino Santy, .244)...he was one of three minor league pitchers to record 100.0+ IP while allowing 3 HR or fewer, along with Luinder Avila and Manuel Mercedes.
- Began the season with Charleston, pitching in 20 games (17GS) for the RiverDogs...at the time of his Aug. 8 promotion to Bowling Green, he ranked among Carolina League leaders (min. 60.0IP) in opp. average (1st, .132), strikeouts (T1st, 111), and innings pitched (T6th, 80.1).
- From May 16–July 8, went 4-0 with a 0.39 ERA (46.1IP, 2ER) and 12.5 SO/9.0 IP over 10 outings (9GS)...marked the lowest ERA in the minors over that span (min. 30.0IP).
- Took home back-to-back Carolina League Pitcher of the Month honors in June and July...also named Rays Minor League Pitcher of the Month for both months.
- On June 21 vs. Fayetteville, logged 5.2 hitless frames, matching the longest outing of his career (also June 3, 2023 vs. Augusta).
- On July 28 vs. Augusta, fanned a career-high 11 batters en route to his final win with Charleston...entered in the 4th inning and recorded six consecutive strikeouts to open the outing.
- Made six appearances (5GS) with Bowling Green to conclude the season, going 2-0 with a 4.56 ERA (23.2IP, 12ER)...this includes a 2.45 ERA (7.1IP, 2ER) in his final two outings.
- Named the No. 10 Rays prospect by Baseball America following the season, including the No. 2 pitcher behind Shane Baz...the publication also voted him as having the Best Fastball among Rays prospects.
- Added to the Rays 40-man roster following the season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In 2022, spent the majority of the season with the FCL Rays before making a pair of late-season starts with Class-A Charleston following an Aug. 30 promotion...went 2-1 with a 2.14 ERA (42.0IP, 10ER) across 15 games (10GS) between both clubs.
- Led the FCL Rays in strikeouts (48) while rankings third in innings pitched (36.0)...min. 20.0 IP, he also ranked among club leaders in opp. average (2nd, .156) and ERA (3rd, 1.75).
- In two starts with Class-A Charleston, went 1-0 with a 2.45 ERA (7.1IP, 2ER)...tossed 3.2 IP and permitted 1 ER in both outings.
- In 2021, saw his first professional action after originally signing with the Rays in 2019...led the DSL Rays 2 in strikeouts (63).

X-RAY REPORT

- Jonny recalls attending games at Dodger Stadium and watching a young Clayton Kershaw pitch while growing up in Southern California… when Jonny first entered the Dodgers clubhouse prior to his major league debut last June, Kershaw was the first person he saw and spoke with upon entering the clubhouse.
- During his time in the Dodgers farm system, he earned the nickname "Quadzilla" for his impressive lower body strength.
- When the minor league season was cancelled in 2020, Jonny used the unexpected free time to work with private hitting coaches Craig Wallenbrock and Doug Latta…the latter helped adjust his mechanics to unlock more power in his swing, allowing him go from five homers during his final collegiate season in 2019 to 22 in his first full professional season in 2021.
- Jonny sports an earring on his left ear…when he was struggling at Class-A Great Lakes in 2022, he told hitting coach Dylan Nasiatka that if he didn't win a player of the week award in the upcoming week, he would pierce one of his ears…after getting the piercing, he hit .455 (20-for-44) over his next 12 games, winning back-to-back Midwest League Player of the Week honors to earn a promotion to Double-A.
- Some of Jonny's favorite hobbies include surfing, snorkeling, biking, golfing and playing the guitar.

2023 SEASON

- Appeared in 24 games in his first major league season, primarily as a defensive replacement, after opening the year with Double-A Tulsa… also made 10 starts (CF-5G, LF-4G, RF-1G).
- Named a Dodgers Organizational All-Star by MLB.com for the first time following the season.
- His average sprint speed of 29.7 ft./sec. ranked 16th among qualified major leaguers, one spot behind Rays outfielder Jose Siri (15th, 29.8)… committed only one error in 34 total chances (.971 FLD%).
- Went 4-for-8 (.500) with 1 2B and 1 HR as a pinch hitter…hit .214 (6-for-28) in his 10 starts and .357 (5-for-14) as a substitute.
- Promoted to Triple-A Oklahoma City on May 16 after hitting .279 (34-for-122) with 8 2B, 10 HR and 18 RBI over 32 games…slashed .315/.375/.548 (23-for-73) with 4 HR and 19 RBI in 17 games with OKC prior to being recalled on June 4 following Trayce Thompson's oblique injury.
- On June 7 at CIN, went 0-for-2 with a walk in his major league debut…recorded his first major league hit two days later, singling off PHI Ranger Suarez.
- On June 28 at COL, recorded the first two outfield assists of his career, throwing out C.J. Cron at third on a replay-assisted call in the 2nd inning before nabbing Brendan Doyle before he could return to second base following a fly out in the 4th inning…became the first Dodgers rookie with multiple outfield assists in a game since Zach McKinstry (2) on June 12, 2021 vs. Texas.
- On July 4 vs. PIT, launched his first career home run in the 8th inning…became the fifth player in Dodgers history to record a go-ahead, pinch-hit homer for his first career home run, including the first since Scott Van Slyke on May 20, 2012 vs. STL.
- On July 25 vs. TOR, suffered a right hamstring strain while running to first base and was on the 10-day IL from July 26–Aug. 31…appeared in 24 games with Triple-A Oklahoma City to conclude the season, hitting .298 (25-for-84) with 3 HR and 16 RBI.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Started at all three outfield positions during his minor league career (RF-104G, CF-91G, LF-77G).
- In 2022, spent the majority of the season with Class-A Great Lakes before a July 4 promotion to Double-A Tulsa…hit .260 (73-for-381) with 22 2B, 5 3B, 25 HR and 71 RBI in 98 games between the two clubs.
- Recorded 25 home runs and stole 17 bases, making him one of eight minor leaguers to record a 25+ HR, 15+ SB season at the Double-A level or lower in 2022.
- Ranked among Dodgers minor leaguers in homers (T6th, 25), stolen bases (6th, 17) and extra-base hits (7th, 52)….min. 300 PA, also ranked in slugging pct. (3rd, .541), OPS (6th, .888),
- Earned back-to-back Midwest Player of the Week honors for the weeks of June 20 and June 26, going a combined 20-for-44 (.455) with 10 2B, 1 3B, 3 HR and 16 RBI over 12 games…recorded a career-high 5 RBI on July 3 vs. Dayton to conclude that stretch.
- Batted .337 with 10 2B, 2 3B, 6 HR, 22 RBI and a 1.057 OPS over 23 games in July between Great Lakes and Tulsa…his 18 extra-base hits during the month ranked second among minor leaguers behind Jose Rojas (19).
- Played his first full professional season in 2021, hitting .264 (102-for-386) with an .871 OPS in 101 games between Class-A Rancho Cucamonga and Class-A Great Lakes.
- Collected 22 homers and 20 stolen bases, making him one of 16 minor leaguers to record a 20-20 season in 2021…other names on that list include Bobby Witt Jr., Anthony Volpe, Josh Lowe and Oswaldo Cabrera.
- Named California League Player of the Week for the week of July 4 after hitting .417 (10-for-24) with 2 2B, 4 HR and 11 RBI in six games.
- On July 23 at Lake County, went 3-for-5 with a 4th-inning homer in his High-A debut…had earned a promotion to Great Lakes the day before the game.
- In 2020, was not a member of the Dodgers 60-player pool and did not play following the cancellation of the minor league season.
- In 2019, appeared in 26 games for the AZL Dodgers Mota.

AMATEUR CAREER

- Selected by the Dodgers in the 25th round of the 2019 First-Year Player Draft following two seasons at the University of Oregon.
- Started all of the team's 111 games during his time at Oregon, 110 of which came in center field…earned a Pac-12 All-Defensive Team honorable mention after posting a .979 fielding percentage, committing only three errors in 141 total chances…set an Oregon freshman record with six home runs, tied for the team lead.
- Originally selected by the Minnesota Twins in the 39th round of the 2017 First-Year Player Draft out of Agoura (Ca.) High School, but did not sign.

X-RAY REPORT

- Chris was given the nickname, "The Dragon," by Rays bench coach Rodney Linares due to his tenacity on the mound…the moniker can be traced back to Linares' first year as manager of Double-A Corpus Christi in 2015 when, during a mound visit, Chris insisted on remaining in the game and Linares instructed him to "unleash the dragon" in order to escape a jam…after Chris produced an inning-ending strikeout, the nickname stuck with him.
- He earned another nickname, "Devo," during his time with the Astros as a reference to the new wave band that gained popularity in the 80s.
- His changeup has been dubbed the "Circle of Death" by his teammates…he was originally introduced to the pitch by a photo on a baseball card.
- Chris is an avid photographer and runs an Instagram account where he showcases his work (@worldwidephotography47)…he also enjoys juggling in his free time.
- Chris' father, Mike, runs a moving company based in Artesia, California, M&M Moving and Storage…Chris has helped out with the family business on occasion, including at Freddie Freeman's childhood home during an offseason.

2023 SEASON

- Made 38 appearances between the Angels and Rays…opened the season with Triple-A Salt Lake before being selected to the Angels roster on April 29…was on the 15-day IL from July 17–Aug. 25 with a right hamstring strain and was designated for assignment upon his activation.
- Signed by the Rays on Aug. 29 and spent five days on the bereavement list before being activated on Sept. 2…made nine appearances with the Rays sandwiched around a Sept. 18-23 stint with Triple-A Durham.
- Went 3-2 with a 5.08 ERA (33.2IP, 19ER) in 29 games with the Angels…recorded a 2.08 ERA (8.2IP, 2ER) in nine outings with the Rays.
- Posted a 3-2 record after joining the Rays…the five decisions marked the second most in club history within a pitcher's first nine relief appearances with the Rays, trailing only Yonny Chirinos (6 in 2018).
- Of his 42 strikeouts, 31 came on his changeup…opponents hit .235 (23-for-98) against the offering with a 35.8 pct. whiff rate.
- Finished with positive bWAR (0.2) for the first time since 2018…accumulated -1.5 bWAR from 2019-22.
- Produced 11 straight scoreless appearances spanning 13.0 innings from May 21–June 15, holding opponents to a .053 (2-for-38) average…marked his longest streak of scoreless outings since June 1–July 1, 2018 (12G).
- From the beginning of the season through June 15, went 3-0 with a 1.85 ERA (24.1IP, 5ER)…his 0.62 WHIP in that span led all MLB pitchers with at least 20.0 IP…went 0-2 with a 13.50 ERA (9.1IP, 14ER) and 2.68 WHIP over his final 10 games with the Angels from June 16–July 15.
- Did not allow an earned run in his last seven appearances to close the season, striking out seven across 7.1 innings.
- POSTSEASON: Tossed scoreless 6th and 7th innings in Game 1 of the Rays AL Wild Card Series vs. Texas, his first postseason action since

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In 2022, made 13 major league appearances between Arizona and Philadelphia after making his return from 2021 Tommy John surgery…began the season on the injured list with Triple-A Reno before beginning a rehab assignment with the ACL Diamondbacks Red on June 21…made his Reno debut on July 1 and earned a major league promotion on July 26 following six Triple-A appearances.
- Opened his D-backs stint with four scoreless outings (4.2IP), but posted a 13.50 ERA (6.0IP, 9ER) in his final six games before being designated for assignment on Aug. 25…signed a minor league contract with Philadelphia on Aug. 28 and made three appearances with the Phillies from Sept. 25–Oct. 4 to close the season.
- Recorded a 3.94 ERA (16.0IP, 7ER) over his 15 Triple-A appearances, including a 1.04 ERA (8.2IP, 1ER) in nine outings with Lehigh Valley.
- In 2021, was limited to eight appearances with the Diamondbacks after suffering a right UCL sprain on May 13 that sidelined him for the remainder of the season…underwent Tommy John surgery on June 1, 2021.
- Signed a minor league contract with Arizona during the offfseason and made the club's Opening Day roster as a Spring Training non-roster invite.
- In 2020, apppeared in only four games with Astros in his final season in Houston due to two stints on the injured list: Aug. 1–Sept. 4 and Sept. 7 through the end of the season…had a bone spur removed from his right elbow on Sept. 15.
- Made 61 appearances for the Astros in 2019 and led the club's bullpen with 67.0 relief innings…made his third straight Opening Day roster, all of which came with Houston.
- On Aug. 3 vs. SEA, pitched a scoreless 9th inning to complete a combined no-hitter along with Aaron Sanchez, Will Harris and Joe Biagini…the achievement came on the seventh anniversary of the Astros acquiring him from the White Sox in 2012.
- On Aug. 13 at CWS, made his lone start of the campaign when Gerrit Cole was scratched during pregame warm-ups, allowing 1 ER over 2.0 frames in his seventh career start.
- POSTSEASON: Added to the Astros roster for World Series after not being selected to the ALDS or ALCS rosters…pitched in three games during the series vs. the Nationals…his outing in Game 6 was his eighth career World Series pitching appearance, setting a then-franchise record.
- In 2018, entered the month of July with a 2-1 record along with a 1.34 ERA (33.2IP, 5ER), 40 strikeouts and seven walks over his first 34 games with Houston…signaled the fifth-best ERA among AL relievers in that span…from July 1 on, turned in an 11.20 ERA (13.2IP, 17ER) in his final 16 outings.
- Was on the 10-day IL from Aug. 3-29 with left hamstring tightness, marking the first injured list stint of his career…pitched to a 2.70 ERA (6.2IP, 2 ER) in seven outings following his return.
- Recorded two separate career-high 12-game scoreless streaks: April 3–May 3 (12.1IP) and June 1–July 1 (11.1IP).
- Named to his first career All-Star Game in 2017…established new career highs in games (62), wins (8) and saves (4)…among MLB relievers, ranked in wins (T2nd), strikeouts (T2nd, 100), innings pitched (4th, 80.2), holds (T6th, 24), WHIP (T11th, 0.94) and opp. average (12th, .174).
- Led the majors with a .111 opp. average (16-for-144) against left-handed hitters…min. 110 AB, it singaled the second-lowest single-season mark in MLB history (since 1901) behind BOS Jonathan Papelbon in 2007 (.104).
- Min. 40.0 IP, his 1.83 ERA (44.1IP, 9ER) at home ranked second in the AL behind Cy Young winner CLE Corey Kluber (1.81).
- Recorded 74 SO before the All-Star break, third most in Astros history by a reliever behind Brad Lidge (78, 2004) and Billy Wagner (75, 1999).

- ALL-STAR GAME: Pitched a perfect 8th inning in his All-Star Game debut, striking out Joey Votto in a 2-1 AL victory.

INFIELDER

YANDY DÍAZ

Yandy Díaz Fernández (YAHN-dee)

OPENING DAY AGE 32

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE 5 years, 122 days

BORN 8/8/91 in Sagua la Grande, Cuba

RESIDES Miami, FL

CONTRACT STATUS Signed a three-year contract through 2025 plus one club option, 1/31/23

SIGNING SCOUT Ramón Peña (Cleveland)

ACQUIRED From Cleveland along with RHP Cole Sulser in a three-team trade with the Seattle Mariners in exchange for 1B Jake Bauers and cash considerations, 12/13/18

X-RAY REPORT

- Yandy is afraid of ghosts and made the mistake of entrusting his teammates with this news before a Rays road trip to Milwaukee…the team stayed at the Pfister Hotel, where a number of major leaguers have claimed to experience paranormal activity…his teammates did little to ease his concerns, taping a cartoon ghost in his locker ahead of the Milwaukee series with the Spanish word cuidado—"watch out"—written on it.
- On his fifth attempt to defect from Cuba, he and friend Leandro Linares waited in tall grass until their motorized raft arrived…they set out at around 2 a.m. and arrived in the Dominican Republic at about 2 p.m. the next day…Yandy reports to have seen sharks alongside the raft.
- Yandy hasn't seen his family in Cuba since he defected…he calls his mother, Elsa Maria Fernández, who still lives there, almost every day and says she influenced him to play baseball…she would work 12-hour days at a cigar factory near their home in Sagua la Grande to provide for him.
- Yandy is a gym rat whose muscles have been featured in Men's Journal…he began weightlifting when he was 12 years old…he swapped out some of his weight training over the offseason in favor of agility work in order to gain endurance and durability.
- He and his wife, Mayisleidis, celebrated the birth of their first child, Yandy Jared, last July…Yandy flew to Seattle on Monday night for Tuesday's All-Star Game, in which he homered, before taking a red-eye flight back home in time for his son's birth.

2023 SEASON

- Became the first player in Rays history to win an AL batting title…his .330 average marked a single-season club record, surpassing Jason Bartlett's .320 in 2009.
- Appeared in 137 games and made a career-high 133 starts (1B-116G, DH-13G, 3B-3G)…was on the paternity list from July 14-17 for the birth of his son, but was on the active roster for the remainder of the season.
- Set career highs in nearly all offensive categories, including hits (173), doubles (35), HR (22), RBI (78), runs (95), batting average (.330), slugging pct. (.522) and OPS (.932).
- Earned his first career All-Star selection, starting for the AL at first base…became the only first baseman in Rays history to win a fan election and the second infielder to do so, joining Evan Longoria in 2009 and 2010.
- Became the fourth player in Rays history to win an AL Silver Slugger Award, joining OF Carl Crawford (2010), 3B Evan Longoria (2009) and 1B Carlos Peña (2007).
- Named the Rays Most Valuable Player in a unanimous vote by members of the Tampa Bay Chapter of the BBWAA…finished sixth in AL MVP voting, tying Evan Longoria (2010 & 2013) for the highest finish by a Ray in club history.
- In Baseball America's annual Best Tools survey of major league managers, coaches and executives, was voted as having the AL's Best Strike-Zone Judgment for the second consecutive year…also rated as the third-best defensive first baseman in the AL.

- His .410 OBP ranked second in the AL behind LAA Shohei Ohtani (.412) and second in Rays history behind Carlos Peña (.411) in 2007…his .932 OPS ranked fourth behind Peña (1.037) in 2007, Fred McGriff in 1999 (.957) and Ben Zobrist (.948) in 2009.

> “Yandy is a very physically imposing human, but one that I think contributes in a way different than you might assume. Yandy’s someone that sees the ball exceptionally well, sees it exceptionally early, puts the ball in play, is as competitive as anybody against good pitching. Those are things that you can never have enough of in a lineup.”
> Tampa Bay Times

- Ranked among AL batters in average (1st, .330), OBP (2nd, .410), multi-hit games (T2nd, 53), OPS (3rd, .932), slugging pct. (4th, .522), hits (5th, 173), times on base (T5th, 246) and runs (T9th, 95)…also ranked highly in average exit velocity (3rd, 93.4 mph) and hard hit pct. (4th, 54.0%).

- POSTSEASON: Hit .200 (3-for-15) in four games (3GS)…delivered an RBI-single in the 1st inning of both Games 1 & 2 of the ALDS vs. BOS.
- In 2020, appeared in 34 games and made 30 starts (22-3B, 6-DH, 2-1B) before suffering a right hamstring strain on Aug. 31, ending his regular season…returned for the start of the postseason.
- At the time of his injury, ranked second in the AL with a .428 OBP and third with 23 BB…his 18 opposite-field hits through Aug. 31 tied for most in the majors.
- Hit .355/.444/.452 (33-for-93) with 3 2B, 2 HR and 11 RBI in August…min. 75 PA, led the AL in on-base pct. in August and ranked second in avg.

- Walked in each of his first seven games, passing Gabe Gross (5) in 2009 for the longest streak to start a season in club history…was the first in the majors to start a season in this fashion since CIN Jonny Gomes (8) and ATL Jason Heyward (8) in 2011.
- Reached base safely in his first 22 games, the second-longest streak to start a season in franchise history behind Rocco Baldelli (24) in 2003…hit .301 (22-for-73) during the streak.
- Hit 2 HR in a stretch of 3 AB after going 110 AB without one…both homers came in back-to-back games from Aug. 20-21 at NYY/vs. TOR.
- On Aug. 24 vs. TOR, snapped a streak of reaching base in a club-record-tying 10 straight plate appearances…recorded 6 hits, including 2 HR, and 4 BB over that stretch.
- POSTSEASON: Hit .194/.383/.250 (7-for-36) in 13 games (11GS), with more walks (11) than strikeouts (10)…his only RBI was a 3rd-inning triple off Clayton Kershaw in Game 5 vs. LAD, the first World Series triple in Rays history.
- In Game 1 of the World Series at LAD, became the seventh first baseman in World Series history to start at leadoff, first since LAD David Freese in 2018 and PHI Pete Rose in 1980.
- In 2019, limited to 79 games due to three stints on the injured list, the third of which cost him over two months…hit 14 HR in 347 PA for the Rays, compared to 1 HR in 299 PA over two seasons with Cleveland…became the 11th Cuban-born player in franchise history.
- Sustained a left foot contusion on July 22 vs. BOS when he fouled a ball off his foot with the Rays trailing 9-4 in the 9th inning…did not return until the final game of the regular season.
- While progressing back from his left foot injury, felt an increase of pain while taking ground balls prior to the game on Aug. 7…CT scan results revealed an uncommon hairline fracture of the navicular bone in his left foot.
- Sidelined from May 20–June 1 with a left hand contusion and from June 17–26 with right hamstring discomfort.
- Hit .500 (8-for-16) with 1 2B, 2 HR and 3 BB leading off a game and .337 (28-for-83) with 5 HR and 10 RBI out of the leadoff spot in the order.
- On March 29 vs. HOU, hit his first homer as a Ray, a solo shot in the 6th inning off Gerrit Cole.
- On April 7 at SF, homered off Drew Pomeranz for the first leadoff homer of his career.
- On May 11 vs. NYY, hit a solo homer off CC Sabathia in the 3rd inning and a three-run shot off Nestor Cortes Jr. in the 8th for the first multi-HR game of his career.
- On July 2 vs. BAL, pinch-ran and scored in the 6th inning and walked and scored in the 7th…became the second player in franchise history to score multiple runs without an official at-bat, joining Geoff Blum on Aug 29, 2004 at OAK.

X-RAY REPORT

- Zach is a man of nature and can be seen on his Instagram around the Central Florida area showcasing his skills on the water as a fisherman…he also enjoys golf and playing guitar.
- He and his wife, Lauren, have three daughters: Ashton (3) and twins Austen and Hallie (born in April 2023)…along with their growing family, the Eflins have a chocolate lab named Moose.
- Zach has a special relationship with his father, Larry, who he has referred to as "the rock of our family"…after the Eflins lost Zach's older sister, Ashley, to leukemia, Larry kept the family close… he still texts his father before each of his starts and typically calls him the day after he pitches.
- Leading up to the 2012 First-Year Player Draft, Zach worked out at Tropicana Field and thought there was a good chance he'd be selected by the Rays…he said he was "a little heartbroken" when the Rays decided on Richie Shaffer with the No. 25 pick…after he signed with the Rays over the offseason, Baseball Operations President Erik Neander joked his $40 million contract is "better than the signing bonus [would have been]."
- Zach remains close with several of his former Phillies teammates…he and J.T. Realmuto, Aaron Nola and Zack Wheeler took their families on a group trip to Disney World over the offseason.

2023 SEASON

- Made a team-leading and career-high 31 starts in his first season with the Rays, setting career bests in wins (16), innings pitched (177.2) and strikeouts (186) while posting the lowest ERA (3.50) and WHIP (1.02) of his career…was the only Rays pitcher to qualify for the ERA title.
- Spent time on the 15-day IL from April 11–23 (retro to April 8) with low back tightness…was on the active roster for the remainder of the season.
- Won the club's Paul C. Smith Champion Award, as voted by the Tampa Bay Chapter of the BBWAA…the award is given to the player who best exemplifies the spirit of true professionalism on and off the field.
- Finished sixth in AL Cy Young voting, earning a trio of top-three votes.
- Collected 16 wins, tying TOR Chris Bassitt for the most in the AL…became the third Rays pitcher to lead the AL (or tie) in wins, joining Blake Snell (21, 2018) and David Price (20, 2012 - T1st)…the 16 wins tied for fifth most in Rays history.
- The Rays went 23-8 (.742) in his starts, tied with David Price's 2014 season (23-8) for the best team winning percentage in a qualified pitcher's starts in Rays history.
- His 177.2 innings were the most by a Rays pitcher since Charlie Morton in 2019 (194.2)… joined Corey Kluber in 2022 (31GS) as the only Rays to make 30+ starts in a season since 2020.
- His 1.02 WHIP ranked second in the AL behind NYY Gerrit Cole (0.98) and signaled the third-lowest mark by a Rays pitcher behind Shane McClanahan (0.93) in 2022 and Blake Snell (0.97) in 2018.
- Also ranked among AL leaders in opp. on-base pct. (2nd, .259), opp. OPS (4th, .642), opp. slugging pct. (5th, .379), HR per 9.0 IP (6th, 0.96), ERA (8th), strikeouts (T10th) and bWAR (T10th, 3.5).
- Recorded a career-low 3.4 pct. walk rate, second lowest in MLB behind SEA George Kirby (2.5%) and third lowest by a Rays pitcher in franchise history behind Corey Kluber (3.0%) in 2022 and David Price (3.3%) in 2014…has produced the lowest walk rate in the majors since 2020 at 4.1 pct. (min. 1,500BF).

- His 7.75 SO/BB ratio ranked second in the majors and was the second-best mark by a Rays pitcher behind David Price's 2014 campaign (8.22)…was the fifth pitcher in MLB history with 175+ SO and 25 walks or fewer in a season, last done by MIN Phil Hughes in 2014.
- Did not allow 10+ hits or 3+ walks in any of his 31 starts…per OptaStats, it marked the most such starts in a season without recording either of those statistics in the modern era (since 1900)…the next closest pitcher is CLE Josh Tomlin in 2016 (29).
- His career-best 26.5 pct. strikeout rate ranked sixth in the AL and was the ninth-best mark in franchise history.
- Averaged a majors-low 14.5 pitches per inning, tied for second fewest in club history behind James Shields in 2011 (14.3).
- Held opponents to an average exit velocity of 87.5 mph, tied for the fourth-best mark in the AL behind LAA Shohei Ohtani (86.4), LAA Tyler Anderson (87.0) and MIN Pablo López (87.1)…generated a 34.0 pct. chase rate, second highest in the AL behind López (34.3%).
- Threw a career-high 68.9 pct. of his pitches for strikes, the second-highest mark in the majors behind MIA Sandy Alcantara (70.1%)…signaled the third-highest percentage in Rays history, trailing David Price (70.1%) in 2014 and Corey Kluber (69.5%) in 2022.
- Opponents batted .182 (31-for-170) with 64 SO and a 34.9 pct. whiff rate against his curveball…min. 200 pitches swung at, it marked the sixth-highest whiff rate on any AL pitcher's curveball.
- In Baseball America's annual Best Tools survey of major league managers, coaches and executives, finished as runner-up to SEA George Kirby for having the Best Control in the AL.
- Went 11-4 with a 3.30 ERA (103.2IP, 38ER) in 18 starts at Tropicana Field…the 11 home wins led the AL and set a club record…became the first pitcher to earn a win in each of his first eight home starts of a season since STL Adam Wainwright in 2010 (10GS)…since 1901, only 11 pitchers have recorded longer such streaks to open a season, led by Lefty Grove (14GS) in 1931.
- Has issued two or fewer walks in each of his last 34 starts dating back to June 14, 2020 with PHI, the longest active streak in the majors…has turned the trick in 68 of his last 69 starts overall since Aug. 29, 2020.
- Made his fifth consecutive Opening Day roster, four of which came with the Phillies.
- Became the eighth pitcher since 1901 to earn a win in each of his first eight home starts with a new club, including the first since CHC Rick Sutcliffe (8GS) from June 24–Sept. 14, 1984.
- Went 10-1 with a 2.10 ERA (68.2IP, 16) in his first 11 home starts with the Rays, the lowest mark in such a span in club history, ahead of Matt Garza's 2.47 in 2008…in his final seven starts at Tropicana Field, went 1-3 with a 5.66 ERA (35.0IP, 22ER).

> PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS ERIK NEANDER

- On May 4 vs. PIT, struck out 10 over 7.0 innings of work…it marked his third career 10+ SO game and his first outing with 10+ SO and no walks…became the first Rays pitcher to allow three or fewer baserunners with 10+ SO over 7.0+ scoreless innings since Tyler Glasnow on April 12, 2021 vs. TEX.
- From June 23–July 21, did not issue a walk to 122 consecutive right-handed batters, the third-longest streak in Rays history.
- Walked one or zero batters in a career-best 13 straight starts, June 28–Sept. 5…excluding openers, it tied the second-longest streak in Rays history behind Corey Kluber (16GS, 7/6/22-10/2/22).
- On July 4 vs. PHI, started against his former club for the first time and recorded 9 SO over 7.0 IP, but shouldered his first home loss of the season.
- On Aug. 13 at CLE, allowed a season-high six runs on a season-high-tying nine hits (2x) in a 9-2 loss…it marked his first career start against the Guardians, giving him at least one appearance against all 30 major league teams.
- On Aug. 25 vs. NYY, tallied a season-high 11 SO on a season-high 103 pitches, but took the loss in a 6-2 setback…it marked his fourth career 10+ SO game…his 17 whiffs in the outing also matched a season best, joining his July 4 start vs. PHI.
- On Sept. 10 vs. SEA, earned his 11th home victory of the season, setting a new club record while helping the Rays to a four-game series victory over the Mariners.
- On Sept. 15 at BAL, carried a no-hitter through five innings before allowing a solo homer to Heston Kjerstad to lead off the 6th frame…paired with a 1st-inning error, he allowed only two baserunners on the evening…the win gave the Rays a share of first place in the AL East for the first time since July 21.

- Allowed three runs or fewer in each of his final eight starts, the longest streak of his career…tied the third-longest season-ending streak by a Rays starter (excluding openers), trailing Blake Snell (16GS) in 2018 and Drew Rasmussen (10GS) in 2021…went 2-3 with a 5.10 ERA (30.0IP, 17ER) in his first six starts following the All-Star break and 4-1 with a 2.98 ERA (45.1IP, 15ER) in his final eight outings.
- Went 4-0 with a 1.48 ERA (30.1IP, 5ER) while holding opponents to a .162/.170/.276 (17-for-105) line in his final five road starts from Aug. 1–Sept. 26…entered that stretch having gone 1-4 with a 5.36 ERA (43.2IP, 26ER) and .275/.313/.444 (47-for-171) opponent slash line in his first eight starts as a visitor to open the season.
- POSTSEASON: Started Game 2 of the Rays AL Wild Card Series vs. Texas, his first career postseason start…opened the game with three scoreless frames before allowing a 4th-inning solo homer to Adolis García, snapping his postseason scoreless inning streak at 10.2…yielded a total of 5 ER over his final two innings of work.

X-RAY REPORT

- Pete studied mechanical engineering at Mizzou and scored 34 out of a possible 36 points on his ACT…had baseball not worked out, he had hoped to work for Boeing designing military aircraft.
- He and his wife, Lydia, have a son, Isak, and daughter, Lotte…the two met in an acting class at Mizzou…Lydia played volleyball for the Tigers.
- His father, Shane, played baseball at Mizzou and then for one season in the minor leagues (1983)…both of his grandparents on his mom's side attended Mizzou and his two uncles and maternal grandfather all played football there.
- Pete enjoys building LEGO sets, especially Star Wars-themed sets…one of his offseason projects involved building a Saturn V rocket ship based on the manned Apollo missions…he often showcases his upcoming LEGO builds via Instagram stories.
- Pete is an avid comic book reader and also collects Pokémon cards…one of his favorite activities during road trips is seeking out local comic book and collectable shops.
- During the Rays historic 13-game winning streak to open the 2023 season, Pete earned the nickname "Rarebanks" from his fellow relievers due to how infrequently he pitched as the Rays continued to collect blowout wins… Pitching Coach Kyle Snyder said the nickname is fitting for Pete because of his uncommon pitch mix, calling it "as unique an arsenal as there's probably been in the last 10 years."

2023 SEASON

- Set career highs in appearances (49), innings pitched (45.1), strikeouts (68) and saves (25) in his fifth season with the Rays…had two stints on the 15-day IL due to right forearm inflammation (May 3-15) and left hip inflammation (May 29–June 15).
- Min 40.0 IP, ranked among AL leaders in opp. average (2nd, .164), opp. slugging pct. (2nd, .233), opp. OPS (2nd, .506), hits per 9.0 IP (2nd, 5.16) and SO/9.0 IP (4th, 13.50).
- His 25 saves were the most by a Rays pitcher since Sergio Romo in 2018 (25) and were ninth most in the AL.
- From July 25, 2022–April 28, 2023, compiled a 29.2 scoreless inning streak, the longest in Rays history, surpassing J.P. Howell's 27.1-inning run (6/14/12–8/30/12).
- Limited right-handed batters to a .151 (10-for-83) average…min. 75 AB, it was the second-lowest mark in the AL and third lowest in Rays history…did not allow a hit to a RHB in 10 appearances from May 19–July 6 (0-for-19).
- Held opponents to a 13-for-86 (.151) average on his four-seam fastball, second lowest on any pitcher's four-seamer (min. 75AB) behind MIL Colin Rea (.135)…his 98.9 mph average on the offering was seventh fastest among AL hurlers (min. 300 fastballs thrown).
- Did not allow an extra-base hit on his slider for the second straight season…his last XBH allowed on the pitch came on Sept. 10, 2021 vs. DET (Niko Goodrum, GR 2B).
- Struck out the side in eight individual innings, most among Rays relievers.
- Made his third Opening Day roster, all with the Rays (2021, 2020).
- Converted a career-high 15 consecutive save opportunities from May 19–Aug. 30…marked the longest streak by a Ray since Alex Colomé (15SV) from July 30–Sept. 12, 2017.

- On July 17 at TEX, allowed the game-winning run to cross home plate on a wild pitch in the 9th inning, marking the fourth time in club history the Rays lost on a walk-off wild pitch…the last occurrence came on Aug. 26, 2009 at TOR (J.P. Howell).

> “It’s unbelievable…if we get to the ninth inning, we have the opportunity to win just about every game when he takes the mound.”
> RAYS PITCHER DREW RASMUSSEN
> Tampa Bay Times

- From July 25–Sept. 2, recorded at least one strikeout in 14 straight outings, the second-longest single-season streak of his career (16G, 7/25/20-8/31/20).
- Earned a win in back-to-back outings for the first time in his career from Aug. 18-23, recording scoreless appearances at LAA/vs. COL.
- On Sept. 17 at BAL, threw a career-high-tying 2.0 IP, but was charged with a blown save after allowing a game-tying double to Adam Frazier… recorded a career-high 4 SO on a career-high 39 pitches (30 strikes)…it marked his only multi-inning outing of the season.
- POSTSEASON: Was a member of the Rays 26-man roster for their AL Wild Card Series vs. Texas, but did not pitch.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Min. 50.0 IP, his .224 opp. slugging pct. since the beginning of 2022 leads the AL, outpacing BAL Félix Bautista (.255).
- Limited to 24 appearances in 2022 after opening the season on the 60-day IL with a right lat strain…reinstated on July 17 and tied Jason Adam for the team lead with eight saves despite missing over three months.
- Min. 20 IP, ranked second in the AL behind teammate J.P. Feyereisen in WHIP (0.67), opp. OBP (.186), opp. SLG (.207) and opp. OPS (.393)… ranked fourth with a 1.13 ERA and fifth with a .159 opp. avg.
- Struck out 43.7 pct. (38 of 87) of batters faced, best in the AL and second in the majors (min. 20.0IP) behind NYM Edwin Díaz (50.2%)… signaled the second-highest mark for a single season in franchise history behind Nick Anderson (52.6%) in 2019.
- Ended the season with 22 straight scoreless outings, the second-longest streak in club history behind J.P. Howell (24, June 14–Aug. 30, 2012).
- Allowed 2 XBH in 24.0 IP, both coming against his first 2 BF in his season debut…ended the season on a streak of 23 straight appearances without allowing an extra-base hit, tied for the sixth-longest stretch in franchise history.
- Allowed three hits over his last 15 games and 15.0 IP from Aug. 16 on, holding opponents to an MLB-best .064 (3-for-47) average over that span (min. 40AB).
- On Sept. 5 vs. BOS, yielded a leadoff single to Reese McGuire in the 9th inning, snapping a streak of 19 consecutive batters retired…pitched a scoreless frame to finish a 4-3 win.
- POSTSEASON: Pitched in Game 2 of the AL Wild Card Series at CLE and walked both batters faced to start the 6th inning…replaced after 11 pitches (3 strikes) due to right index finger numbness.
- On Jan. 27, 2023, signed a three-year, $12 million contract through the 2025 season, including a club option for 2026…the pact is worth up to $24.6 million if the club option is exercised, performance escalators are reached and award bonuses are triggered.
- In 2021, missed 25 games with a right rotator cuff strain and another 25 games for right shoulder inflammation…went 0-2 with a 3.86 ERA (11.2IP, 5ER) in 13 games after returning from his second stint on the injured list.
- His six losses were the most among Rays relievers and tied for fifth among AL relievers.
- Pitched to a 2.25 ERA (20.0IP, 5ER) in 20 games at Tropicana Field, compared to a 4.76 ERA (22.2IP, 12ER) in 27 outings on the road.
- Made his second consecutive Opening Day roster, both with the Rays.
- On July 7 vs. CLE (G2), pitched a perfect 7th and final inning as five Rays pitchers combined to allow zero hits in a seven-inning game.
- On Sept. 25 vs. MIA, pitched a scoreless 9th inning of a 7-3 win and was on the mound as the Rays clinched the division title…retired his first 2 BF before loading the bases (single, walk, single), but got a foul pop to end the game.
- POSTSEASON: Totaled 2.2 IP over Games 3-4 of the ALDS at BOS…his only hit allowed was a solo homer to Kiké Hernández in the 5th inning of Game 3…went 1.2 scoreless innings in Game 4.

- In 2020, voted the club's Outstanding Rookie by the Tampa Bay Chapter of the BBWAA.
- His six wins led the team, ahead of Tyler Glasnow (5) and Josh Fleming (5), and tied for most among major league relievers…marked the first time in club history a reliever led the team in wins…his 27 appearances led the Rays and tied for sixth in the AL.
- Tied three others for the major league rookie lead in wins…tied for second among rookies in apps, trailing SF Tyler Rogers (29)…his 35 SO ranked fourth among major league rookies.
- His 13.16 SO/9 IP ratio was the highest mark for a rookie reliever in club history, surpassing Colin Poche (12.54) in 2019.
- From Aug. 12 through season's end, went 4-2 with a 1.37 ERA (19.2IP, 3ER) in 20 games (2GS)…this included a streak of 12 appearances without an earned run from Aug. 12–Sept. 6.
- On Aug. 22 vs. TOR, pitched a scoreless 7th inning, tagging out Cavan Biggio attempting to score from second for the final out…began the frame with a pair of 3-1 groundouts, becoming the first pitcher in franchise history to record three putouts in one inning.
- On Sept. 16 vs. WSH, made his first career start and pitched a scoreless 1st inning.
- POSTSEASON: Went 0-0 with a 3.65 ERA (12.1IP, 5ER) in nine appearances, and the Rays went 8-1 in games he pitched…tied Diego Castillo for the team lead with three saves…became the fifth rookie since saves became an official stat (1969) to have 3+ in the postseason…he joined STL Trevor Rosenthal (4) in 2013, CWS Bobby Jenks (4) in 2005, STL Adam Wainwright (4) in 2005 and SEA Kaz Sasaki (3) in 2000.
- Became the second pitcher since saves became an official stat to have none during the regular season and then record his team's first two in the postseason, joining OAK Vida Blue in 1972.
- Was on the mound when the Rays clinched the pennant in Game 7 of the ALCS vs. HOU, as Aledmys Díaz flew out to right…allowed a pair of inherited runners to score in the 8th inning but pitched around a one-out single for a scoreless 9th, becoming the first rookie to save a Game 7 since TB David Price in the 2008 ALCS vs. BOS.
- In 2019, totaled two stints with the Rays and three stints in the majors…began the season in Class-A in the Rangers organization and reached the majors two months later.
- Acquired from the Rangers on July 13 and went 2-1 with a 5.11 ERA (12.1IP, 7ER) in 13 appearances with the Rays after going 0-2 with a 9.31 ERA (9.2IP, 10ER) with Texas.
- Was on the Rays roster from Aug. 16-17 and Sept. 1 through season's end…his first eight outings came with the Rangers from June 8–July 2.
- Made his major league debut at Globe Life Park on June 9 vs. OAK, striking out the side in a perfect 5th inning and pitching around an error to face the minimum in the 6th inning.
- On Aug 16 vs. DET, made his Rays debut and yielded a run in the 8th inning, allowing a leadoff double and a one-out RBI double.
- On Sept. 10 at TEX, recorded his first career save, pitching the 11th inning against his former team.
- Began the season with Class-A Down East…his season debut marked his first professional outing since July 21, 2017…earned promotions to Double-A Frisco on May 9 and to Triple-A Nashville on May 29.
- Went 3-2 with a 4.53 ERA (43.2IP, 22ER) and 70 SO in 40 games in the minors, including 1-2 with a 5.09 ERA (17.2IP, 10ER) with Durham.
- Missed the entire 2018 season recovering from his second Tommy John surgery…returned to pitch in the Instructional League.
- In 2017, was sidelined from June 15-24 and July 22 through season's end with a UCL strain…underwent Tommy John surgery on Aug. 14.
- Began the 2016 season in the starting rotation for Class-A Hickory before a July 17–Aug. 4 stint on the injured list for a right forearm strain…pitched out of the bullpen after his return.
- Ranked sixth among Rangers minor leaguers with 101.1 IP and 10th with 80 SO.

CONTRACT STATUS Signed through 2024	SIGNING SCOUT Joe Hastings (Rays)
ACQUIRED Selected in the first round (22nd overall) of the 2019 First-Year Player Draft

X-RAY REPORT

- Greg began playing organized baseball as a six-year-old, donning a No. 22 Devil Rays jersey for his team out of west Raleigh…years later, he was selected by the Rays as the No. 22 overall pick in the 2019 First-Year Player Draft…he did not have a favorite team growing up but attended his first major league game in 2004 when his family visited relatives in Florida and his father, Greg Jones Sr., took him to a Devil Rays game against the Yankees at a sold out Tropicana Field.
- He worked on his left-side swing with former Cary High School coach Clay Council, who threw to Josh Hamilton in the 2008 Home Run Derby.

2023 SEASON

- Opened the season with Double-A Montgomery before earning a May 11 promotion to Triple-A Durham…recalled and placed on the 60-day IL on Sept. 16 with a right hamstring strain to open a 40-man roster spot for Tristan Gray.
- Between the two levels, split time at center field (35GS), shortstop (25GS) and right field (6GS).
- Hit .173 (47-for-169) with 3 HR, 9 RBI and 12 SB over 20 games with Montgomery compared to .278 (47-for-169) with 24 XBH (10HR), 35 RBI and 12 SB across 51 games with Durham.
- On April 16 vs. Tennessee (G2), went 2-for-4 with a triple, a homer and a season-high 4 RBI…was the only Montgomery hitter to record a triple and home run in the same game in 2023.
- Played his final game of the season on July 22 at Rochester…from the time of his May 11 promotion to Durham through his final contest, he led the Bulls in steals (12) while his .278 average ranked second (min. 150AB) behind Jonathan Aranda (.392).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Spent the entire 2022 season with Double-A Montgomery…limited to 79 games, missing time from June 2-13 (concussion) and Sept. 3 through the end of the season (right hamstring strain).
- Ranked third among Rays minor leaguers with 37 SB behind Mason Auer (48) and Shane Sasaki (47)…was fifth in the Southern League in steals.
- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 19 prospect in the Rays system following the season…the publication also tabbed him as the Fastest Baserunner in the organization and in the Southern League in its Best Tools survey.
- In 2021, hit .270/.366/.482 (74-for-274) with 14 HR and 40 RBI in 72 games between Class-A Bowling Green and Montgomery.
- Named Minor League Baserunner of the Year by the Rays Baseball Operations department…was successful on 94.4 pct. (34 of 36) of stolen base attempts between the two levels.
- Ranked second among Rays minor leaguers and tied for third in High-A East in stolen bases.
- Named to the Rays Organizational All-Star Team by MLB.com.
- Did not play in the Arizona Fall League due to a quad injury.
- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 6 prospect in the Rays system following the season…the publication also tabbed him as the Best Baserunner and Fastest Baserunner in High-A East in its Best Tools survey.
- In 2020, was added to the Rays 60-man player pool on Sept. 1 and spent time at the alternate training site in Port Charlotte…missed most of the Instructional League with a knee injury.
- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 14 prospect in the Rays system following the season...the publication also tabbed him as the Best Athlete in the organization for a second consecutive year.

- In 2019, named Most Valuable Player for Short-A Hudson Valley by the Rays Baseball Operations department.
- Ranked among New York-Penn League leaders in on-base pct. (2nd, .413), avg. (3rd, .335), runs (T5th, 39), stolen bases (T6th, 19), slugging pct. (7th, .461) and hits (9th, 64)...his .335 avg. led Rays minor leaguers (min. 150 AB).
- Earned NYPL midseason All-Star honors.
- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 12 prospect in the Rays system following the season.

AMATEUR CAREER

- Was the highest draft selection ever out of UNC Wilmington, where he hit .341/.491/.543 (76-for-223) with 5 HR, 36 RBI and 42 SB in 63 games (62GS) as a sophomore...ranked fifth among Division I players and led the Colonial Athletic Association in steals...led the conference in on-base pct., triples, runs (70) and walks (55) and ranked second in avg. and hits...his 9 3B and 42 SB both tied single-season program records.
- Ranked by Baseball America as having the Best Speed among college players in the 2019 First-Year Player Draft.
- Previously selected by the Orioles in the 17th round of the 2017 First-Year Player Draft out of Cary (N.C.) High School.

X-RAY REPORT

- Zack was technically born in Burlington, N.C. because there was no hospital in his hometown of Mebane (pronounced meb-in)...the town was named after Alexander Mebane, an American Revolutionary War general and member of the U.S. Congress.
- One of Zack's favorite baseball memories is recording his first (and only) career hit on Sept. 10, 2021 at Wrigley Field during his stint with the Giants...after striking out looking on three pitches in his first professional at-bat a few months earlier, he told teammate Buster Posey, "Hey, watch this, I'm going to get a hit," before heading to the on-deck circle...he proceeded to notch a single to right-center field off Kyle Hendricks...Zack took the ball and the Giants lineup card as a keepsake.
- The Rays owned the highest winning percentage in the majors when they claimed Zack off waivers from the Red Sox on May 12, 2023, meaning 28 other teams passed on the opportunity to claim him...after working with Rays coaches to add a sweeper and two-seam fastball to his repertoire, he was able to transition into a full-time starting role in mid-July...prior to joining the Rays, he had not been a regular starter since 2019 during his time as a Twins minor leaguer.
- He and his wife, Autumn, were high school sweethearts before getting married in 2019... they have two sons: Wyatt (2) and Drew (born Jan. 2024).
- Some of Zack's hobbies include hunting, fishing and golfing...one of his favorite parts of living in St. Pete is spending time by the water.

2023 SEASON

- Made 28 appearances (14GS) between the Red Sox and Rays...claimed off waivers from the Red Sox on May 12...transitioned to a full-time starting role on July 19.
- Min. 50.0 IP, ranked among MLB leaders in post-All-Star break walks per 9.0 IP (2nd, 0.89), walk rate (2nd, 2.4%) and SO/BB ratio (5th, 7.86).
- Set career highs in starts (14), innings pitched (90.0) and strikeouts (74)...lowered his walk rate from 6.8 pct. in 2022 to a career-low 3.2 pct., the sixth-lowest mark in the majors (min. 150BF).
- Signed a minor league contract with Texas on Feb. 3 and was a non-roster invite to Rangers Spring Training...opened the season with Triple-A Round Rock, going 2-0 with a 2.25 ERA (12.0IP, 3ER) in eight relief outings.
- Traded to Boston in exchange for cash considerations on May 5...after pitching in two games for the Red Sox, was designated for assignment on May 10.
- Went 0-1 with an 8.10 ERA (3.1IP, 3ER) in his first four appearances with the Rays before a May 24–June 14 stint on the injured list with right shoulder fatigue...following his activation, went 3-5 with a 3.76 ERA (83.2IP, 35ER) in 22 games (14GS) over the remainder of the season.
- Became the first pitcher to be claimed off waivers mid-season and go on to make 10+ starts for a team that made the postseason since Doug Fister with the 2017 Red Sox.
- Over 14 starts, went 3-5 with a 3.41 ERA (71.1IP, 27ER) and 1.05 WHIP...in his 14 relief appearances, posted an 0-1 mark with a 6.75 ERA (18.2IP, 14ER) and 1.66 WHIP.
- Made two starts as an opener on June 29 at AZ and July 5 vs. PHI...after moving into a regular starting role on July 19 at TEX, pitched to a 3.34 ERA (67.1IP, 25ER) in his final 12 starts.

- Added a sweeper to his arsenal and limited opponents to a .250 (6-for-24) average on the pitch…relied primarily on his slider/four-seam fastball combination, throwing one of those two offerings 63.6 pct. of the time.
- Registered a 69.2 pct. strike percentage, the fourth-highest mark in the AL (min. 750 pitches thrown)…his 69.3 pct. first-pitch strike percentage ranked fourth in the majors (min. 350BF).
- On May 16 at NYM, made his Rays debut in the 8th inning, striking out the side in order.
- From June 17–Aug. 4, did not issue a walk to 111 straight BF, the sixth-longest streak in Rays history…on the season, did not issue multiple walks in any of his 14 starts, the fifth-longest streak in Rays history (including openers).
- On June 29 at AZ, made his first start since June 15, 2021 (also vs. AZ)…allowed one hit in 2.0 scoreless innings as an opener for bulk reliever Yonnny Chirinos.
- On July 19 at TEX, made his first start as a regular member of the Rays rotation, with the only damage against him in 3.1 IP being a Leody Taveras solo homer.
- On Aug. 4 at DET, turned in his first career quality start in an 8-0 Rays win…earned back-to-back wins for the first time in his career.
- On Sept. 7 vs. SEA, took the loss despite allowing one run over a career-high 8.0 IP…it marked the longest start by a Rays pitcher since Drew Rasmussen's 8.1-inning effort on Aug. 14, 2022 vs. BAL…his 86 pitches tied Bryan Rekar (8.1IP, 6/1/00 vs. BAL) and Ryan Rupe (9.0IP, 5/23/99) for the fewest in an outing of 8.0+ IP in Rays history…he became the second Rays pitcher (3rd instance) to take a loss despite allowing one run over 8.0+ IP, joining James Shields (2x, last: 10/2/12 vs. BAL - 9.0IP, 1R).
- From Sept. 7-12, tossed a combined 15.0 IP between starts vs. Seattle and at Minnesota…marked the most innings thrown by a Ray over a two-game span since Ryan Yarbrough (15.0IP) from June 3-11, 2021.
- On Sept. 23 vs. TOR, threw a career-high 99 pitches (67 strikes) in his final start of the regular season.
- POSTSEASON: Pitched in Game 2 of the ALWC vs. TEX…threw 2.0 hitless innings and struck out three while hitting one batter.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In 2022, went 3-3 with a 5.08 ERA (44.1IP, 25ER) in 39 relief appearances for the Giants.
- Opened the season with six consecutive scoreless appearances from April 10-25…struck out five batters with no walks across 6.0 innings while holding opponents to a .200 (4-for-20) average.
- Missed seven games after being placed on the COVID-IL on April 26…was on the 15-day IL from July 9–August 17 due to a left oblique strain.
- In 2021, went 4-0 with a 2.92 ERA (61.2IP, 20ER) in 63 appearances (2GS) for the Giants…the 63 appearances were third most on the club behind Tyler Rogers (80G) and Jose Alvarez (67G).
- Utilized his four-seam fastball on 57.8 pct. of the time and held opponents to a .167 (20-for-120) average on the offering.
- Signed a minor league contract with the Giants on Feb. 4…had his contract selected from the Giants alternate training site in Sacramento on April 30 and made his season debut that night (1.0IP, BB, SO).
- Made 38 appearances from April 30–July 24, pitching to a 3.44 ERA (34.0IP, 13ER) before being optioned to Triple-A Sacramento on July 27.
- Was recalled from Sacramento on Aug. 7 and remained on the major league roster for the remainder of the season…during that stretch, went 4-0 with a 2.28 ERA (27.2IP, 7ER) and two saves across 25 relief appearances.
- On Aug. 8 at MIL, recorded his first career save after throwing 2.0 scoreless innings.
- POSTSEASON: Pitched in Games 2 and 4 of the NLDS vs. LAD…allowed three runs on four hits over 0.2 IP in Game 2 before working 2.0 scoreless innings in Game 4.
- In 2020, made the Twins Opening Day roster and posted a 9.95 ERA (6.1IP, 7ER) across six relief appearances.
- Had two stints on the 10-day IL due to a left hamstring strain (Aug. 1-13) and right elbow inflammation (Aug. 22–Sept. 6)…was optioned to the alternate training site on Sept. 6 and did not pitch the remainder of the season.
- In 2019, went 6-0 with a 2.68 ERA (37.0IP, 11ER) in 29 relief appearances across five stints with the Twins (May 24–June 2, June 14-28, July 3-22, Aug. 3-19, Sept. 1-end of the season).
- Became one of four pitchers in Twins franchise history to pitch exclusively out of the bullpen and record 6+ wins without suffering a loss,

DID YOU KNOW?

CATWALK RUNDOWN

The four catwalks located above the playing surface at Tropicana Field are labeled the A-, B-, C- and D-rings, with the lowest being the D-ring. Any fair ball that hits the lower two catwalks (C, D) is a home run. A fair ball that hits one of the top two catwalks (A, B) is in play. Any fair ball that stays on one of the top two catwalks is a ground-rule double. A foul ball that hits one of the catwalks is a dead ball.

- The D-ring ranges from 59 feet above the playing surface in CF to 121 feet behind home plate.
- The C-ring ranges from 99 feet in CF to 146 feet behind home plate.
- The B-ring ranges from 142 feet in CF to 173 feet behind home plate.
- The A-ring ranges from 181 feet in CF to 194 feet behind home plate.

In 25 seasons, 197 fair balls have hit catwalks: C-ring (106), B (45), D (40), A (6). This includes two during the relocated Rangers-Astros series in 2017 due to the devastation caused by Hurricane Harvey. Not included in that total is one fair ball that struck the roof, off the bat of MIN Miguel Sanó on Aug 7, 2016.

Five fair balls have hit catwalks in the postseason, all home runs: Evan Longoria off the C-ring in Game 1 of the 2008 ALDS vs. CHW, B.J. Upton off the C-ring in Game 6 of the 2008 ALCS vs. BOS, Willy Adames off the D-ring in Game 4 of the 2019 ALDS vs. HOU, TOR Danny Jansen off the D-ring in Game 2 of the 2020 AL Wild Card Series and Nelson Cruz off the C-ring in Game 1 of the 2021 ALDS vs. BOS.

Eight times a fair ball has hit a catwalk and not come down: TB Brett Phillips, April 12, 2022 vs. OAK (C-ring); TEX Joey Gallo, June 30, 2019 (D-ring); TB Avisaíl García, April 18, 2019 vs. BAL (D-ring); TB John Jaso, Sep 17, 2015 vs. BAL (C-ring); BOS David Ortiz, Sep 17, 2008 (D-ring); BOS Jason Bay, Sep 15, 2008 (C-ring); Carlos Peña, May 26, 2008 vs. TEX (B-ring); and José Canseco, May 2, 1999 vs. DET (B-ring).

Evan Longoria is the all-time leader in fair balls off the catwalk (11) and catwalk home runs (8). Alex Rodriguez and David Ortiz hit the catwalks five times, most of any visiting players. Carlos Peña hit the catwalks five times in 2007, most by any player in one season. All told, 43 different Rays have hit balls off the catwalks in the regular season: Evan Longoria (10), Jonny Gomes (8), Carlos Peña (8), Greg Vaughn (6), Fred McGriff (4), Steven Souza Jr. (3), José Canseco (3), Ben Grieve (3), Willy Adames (2), Curt Casali (2), Carl Crawford (2), Vinny Castilla (2), Avisaíl García (2), Travis Lee (2), Brett Phillips (2), Rocco Baldelli (1), Tim

X-RAY REPORT

- Following a breakout 2018 season at College of the Canyons, Jacob's former high school coach John Maggiora commented, "Everything he throws moves. He's not just throwing, he's actually pitching. But he's a student of the game. You ask him anything about the Dodgers, certain pitchers, he's sort of a walking encyclopedia. Just a kid that eats and breathes baseball."
- Jacob's fastball velocity jumped from 83 mph as a high school senior to 91 mph as a college sophomore…he credited the improvement to his workout routine, believing consistent effort in the weight room taught him greater discipline.
- He pitched for the Perth Heat in the Australian Baseball League in 2020…Jacob, who describes himself as a "big fisherman," enjoyed fishing on the Swan River during his time in the continent.
- Jacob and his girlfriend, Emily, split their time between California and Florida…they enjoy spending time outdoors with their dogs, Penny and Millie.

2023 SEASON

- Made four appearances (1GS) in his first major league season, going 1-0 with a 4.38 ERA (12.1IP, 6ER) and one save.
- Began the season with Double-A Montgomery and posted a 2.57 ERA (28.0IP, 8ER) across eight appearances (6GS)…promoted to Triple-A Durham on May 23 and went on to make 18 starts for the Bulls, going 4-5 with a 2.72 ERA (79.1IP, 24ER).
- Named Southern League pitcher of the Week for the week of April 18-23…in two starts against Mississippi that week, he tossed 7.0 scoreless innings, allowing two hits while striking out 12 batters against one walk.
- On Aug. 14, had his contract selected from Durham and made his MLB debut later that day (SV, 3.0IP, 3H, 1ER, 2SO)…the California native made his debut and earned his first career save against the Giants, the team who originally drafted him in the 26th round of the 2018 First-Year Player Draft.
- Fanned Wade Meckler for the first strikeout of his career in his debut.
- Became the third Ray to record a save in his MLB debut, joining Braden Bristo (April 13, 2023 vs. BOS) and Dale Thayer (May 22, 2009 at FLA).
- On Oct. 1 at TOR, made his first big league start and earned the win (5.0IP, 8H, 6R, 5ER, 2BB, 4 SO).
- Rated as the No. 28 prospect in the Rays organization by Baseball America following the season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In 2022, missed the entire season while rehabbing from Tommy John surgery.

X-RAY REPORT

- Brandon is the unofficial taste-tester for Sweet and Lowe Bakery, a home business his wife, Madison, started in June 2020 after photos of her desserts gained traction on her social media… she creates custom bakes out of their kitchen… Brandon sometimes pitches in with the dishes.
- Brandon and Madison have a one-year-old son, Emmett Dean…they describe Emmett as a "baseball baby," as he's already attended several games at Tropicana Field and has traveled to multiple Rays road series.
- He and Madison built a country home in College Grove, Tenn.…they live there in the offseason with their dog, Collie, a miniature bernedoodle—a mix of a Bernese mountain dog and poodle.
- Brandon maximizes the power potential in his body by implementing a routine of drills using bands and bungee cords to promote posture, balance and the transfer of energy…he uses these to create awareness and feel with his swing.
- In 2019, he launched the "Home Runs for Hope" program…for each home run Brandon hits, he donates $100 to the Crisis Center of Tampa Bay, matched by the Rays Baseball Foundation… mental health has heavily impacted his family and he wants to ensure no one feels helpless when dealing with mental health issues.
- His sister, Bre, is the head coach of the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute field hockey team…his father played baseball at SUNY Cortland.

2023 SEASON

- Appeared in 109 games and made 101 starts, his second-most games in any season behind 2021 (149G)…was on the injured list from June 5–July 4 (low back inflammation) and Sept. 23 through the end of the season (right patella fracture).
- Hit .167/.246/.284 (17-for-102) in 28 games preceding his 30-day stint on the injured list (April 22–May 28)…hit .254/.353/.483 (51-for-201) in his final 59 games after being reinstated on July 4.
- Recorded career highs in both hard-hit pct. (47.5%) and walk rate (11.5%), surpassing his 2020 season in both categories (46.2%/11.2%).
- Despite appearing in only 109 games, his 21 HR ranked third among AL primary second basemen…he is the only primary second baseman in Rays history to record multiple 20+ HR seasons.
- Produced four go-ahead home runs from the 8th inning on, tied with STL Nolan Gorman for the major league lead…it marked the most such HR in a season in Rays history.
- His four outs above average ranked fifth among AL second basemen, according to Statcast… it marked his first season producing a positive number in the statistic.
- Made his fifth straight Opening Day roster and fourth Opening Day start (2019, 2021-23).
- Homered in five straight starts from April 8-13, tying the second-longest streak in Rays history behind Carlos Peña's six-start streak (June 6-12, 2010)…it tied six other players for the longest streak in the majors in 2023.
- On April 8 vs. OAK, scored a career-high four runs and drew a career-high-tying three walks (also May 21, 2021 at TOR)…added a home run in the win, snapping a career-long 24-game homerless drought dating back to August 5, 2022.

- On April 9 vs. OAK, hit his third career grand slam off James Kaprielian in the 4th inning, his first since August 7, 2021 at BAL…his three career grand slams are tied for fourth most in Rays history…also recorded a season-high 5 RBI in the win.
- On April 21 vs. CWS and on Sept. 5 vs. BOS, delivered his first two career walk-off homers… joined OAK Brent Rooker as the only players in the majors with multiple walk-off HR…is one of seven Rays with multiple career walk-off HR, and is one of four to accomplish the feat twice in a season (Carl Crawford, 2003; Johnny Damon, 2011; Evan Longoria, 2011).
- Reached base safely in a career-high 17 straight games from Aug. 15–Sept. 7, the third-longest streak by a Ray in 2023 (Yandy Díaz: 22G; Randy Arozarena: 20G).
- On Aug. 16 at SF, hit his 100th career home run, becoming the fastest primary second baseman to reach the mark in MLB history by both games (477) and plate appearances (1,902), surpassing Dan Uggla in both categories (509G/2,242PA).
- On Sept. 17 at BAL, recorded his 105th career home run, surpassing Carl Crawford (104) for sixth on the Rays all-time home run list.
- On Sept. 21 vs. LAA, fouled a José Soriano curveball off his right knee in the 7th inning… completed the eight-pitch at-bat and played defense the following inning, but was removed from the game in the 9th and diagnosed with a right patella fracture two days later.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Limited to 65 games (61GS) in 2022 due to three stints on the injured list…placed on the 10-day IL for the third time on Sept. 12 and missed the rest of the season…underwent a series of epidural and other injections, performed by Dr. Thomas Tolli…transferred to the 60-day IL on Sept. 28.
- Was on the 10-day IL from May 16–July 15…after undergoing testing, was diagnosed with a stress reaction in his low back…missed the minimum 10 days on his second injured list stint from Aug 28–Sep 6 (right triceps contusion).

X-RAY REPORT

- Josh's father, David, was selected by the Mariners in the fifth round in 1986 out of Satellite Beach (Fla.) High School, but instead accepted an appointment to the U.S. Naval Academy...David played football and baseball at Navy as a linebacker and pitcher...he went on to serve as a Navy pilot for 20 years.
- Josh is the younger brother of Rangers 1B Nathaniel Lowe, who played for the Rays from 2019-20...they became the second set of brothers to each play for the Rays, joining INF Julio Lugo (2003-06) and RHP Ruddy Lugo (2006-07)...they were teammates with Class-A Charlotte in the Rays system in 2017 and lived with Lucius Fox in a three-bedroom townhouse in the Riverwood retirement community in Port Charlotte...when Nathaniel's Rangers beat Josh's Rays in last year's AL Wild Card Series, they became the seventh pair of brothers in MLB history to face off in a postseason series.
- His mother, Wendy, was diagnosed with brain cancer last year, preventing her from attending the postseason series featuring her two sons... Josh was happy to report during Spring Training that she has stabilized and, while she will still report for regular scans, is "doing good."
- One of the family's favorite stories involves a game of catch and a broken window...when the two brothers were young, they were warned not to attempt knuckleballs in the backyard... moments later, Josh uncorked a sidearm knuckler that sailed directly through a back window.
- Josh and his fiancée, Anna, got engaged over the offseason...the two have a pet sheepadoodle named Ruex.

2023 SEASON

- Appeared in 135 games and made 116 starts (RF-86G, DH-17G, CF-12G, LF-1G).
- Joined Randy Arozarena (2022) as the only players in team history to have 20+ HR, 30+ SB and 30+ 2B in a season...was one of seven major leaguers to accomplish the feat in 2023...Lowe was the 26th player (33rd instance) since 1901 to reach those numbers in an age 25 or younger season.
- Became the youngest player in Rays history and third overall (4th instance) with a 20+ HR, 30+ SB season, joining Randy Arozarena in 2022 and B.J. Upton in 2011-12.
- Became the 10th player (20th instance) in Rays history with 30+ steals in a season...his 32 steals were tied for fifth in the AL.
- Joined Carl Crawford (3x, 2005-07) as the only Rays with 75+ RBI and 30+ SB in an age 25 or younger season.
- Min. 100 AB, his .358 (54-for-151) two-out average ranked second in the majors behind TOR Bo Bichette (.361)...it signaled the second-highest mark in club history, ahead of Jason Bartlett (.356) in 2009.
- His .451 (24-for-53) average with runners in scoring position and two outs signaled a club record (min. 50AB), surpassing Carl Crawford (.413) in 2006...ranked third in MLB behind MIA Luis Arraez (.471) and TEX Jonah Heim (.463).
- Averaged a team-leading 411 ft. on his 20 home runs, the third-farthest mark among AL hitters with 20+ HR, trailing only LAA Shohei Ohtani (422 ft.) and NYY Giancarlo Stanton (416 ft.).
- Hit .296 (32-for-108) against offspeed pitches, the fourth-highest mark in the AL (min. 75AB)

> MANAGER KEVIN CASH
> Tampa Bay Times

- Made his second consecutive Opening Day roster, both with the Rays.
- Hit .342 (.26-for-76) in April, fourth best in the AL behind BOS Jarren Duran (.396), TOR Matt Chapman (.372) and OAK Brent Rooker (.358).
- On May 3 vs. PIT, recorded his first career home run off a left-handed pitcher (Jose Hernandez)…the 455-foot blast deflected off Tropicana Field's D-ring catwalk in right field before hitting the scoreboard…it marked the farthest HR of his career.
- On May 11 at NYY, produced a career-high 5 RBI (2-for-5, 2B, HR, 5RBI, 2R).
- Was successful on 22 consecutive stolen base attempts from May 16–Sept. 5, the second-longest streak in team history behind Carl Crawford (32SB: 7/19/08–5/29/09).
- Recorded 10+ HR, 10+ 2B and 10+ SB in his first 42 games to open the season, becoming the fastest player to reach those figures in club history, ahead of Evan Longoria in 2010 (50G).
- Scored at least one run in a career-best six consecutive games from Aug. 16-24.
- In 37 games from Aug. 16 through the end of the season, hit .346 (46-for-133) with 11 doubles, 6 HR, 25 RBI, 23 runs and eight steals…his .346 average during that stretch was second highest in the AL behind teammate Yandy Díaz (.357).
- Hit safely in a career-high-tying 11 consecutive games from Sept. 15–Oct. 1 to end the season.
- On Sept. 23 vs. TOR, registered his first career walk-off plate appearance (RBI-single).
- POSTSEASON: Entered Game 1 of the ALWC vs. TEX as a pinch hitter for Manuel Margot in the 9th inning and drew a walk…went 1-for-4 and scored a run in Game 2.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In 2022, appeared in 52 games and made 48 starts (25-RF, 9-LF, 7-CF, 7-DH) spanning two stints: Opening Day–May 1 and June 20–July 30.
- Hit .259 (36-for-139) with 12 doubles, two triples, 2 HR and 12 RBI off right-handed pitching, compared to .095 (4-for-42) with zero extra-base hits and one RBI off southpaws.
- Made the first Opening Day roster of his career…originally was optioned during spring training on March 31 but was recalled after the Rays traded Austin Meadows to the Tigers.
- On April 29 vs. MIN, hit cleanup for the first time in his career and hit a three-run homer off Dylan Bundy in the 1st inning, the first homer of his career…became the first player in Rays history to hit his first career homer out of the cleanup spot in the order.
- Hit .315/.402/.556 (95-for-302) with 27 doubles, 14 HR, 67 RBI and 25 steals in 80 games for Triple-A Durham.
- In 2021, joined the Rays from Sept. 8-10 when Randy Arozarena was on the paternity list.
- On Sept. 8 at BOS, made his major league debut with a start in right field…reached base safely in both plate appearances including his first career hit, an infield single off Nathan Eovaldi in the 5th inning…became the second player in club history with a hit and stolen base in his major league debut, joining Vidal Bruján on July 7 vs. CLE (G1).

- At 23 years, 218 days, was the third-youngest to start in right field at Fenway Park in their major league debut…the others: TB Wil Myers (22.190) in 2013 and STL-AL Pat Parker (22.080) in 1915.
- Named Minor League Player of the Year and Most Valuable Player for Durham by the Rays Baseball Operations department…hit .291 (117-for-402) with 28 doubles, 22 HR, 78 RBI and 26 steals in 111 games for the Bulls…became the first Durham player with 20 HR and 20 SB in a season since Justin Ruggiano in 2007.
- Named to the Triple-A East postseason All-Star Team and the Rays Organizational All-Star Team by MLB.com.
- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 44 overall prospect in the minors following the season… was the No. 2 prospect in the Rays system… the publication also tabbed him as the Best Defensive Outfielder in the organization for a fourth straight year…earned the nod for Best Outfield Arm for the third time (2017, 2020).

X-RAY REPORT

- Shane wore a suit gifted to him by former teammate Chris Archer for the red carpet parade during 2022 All-Star festivities in Los Angeles... he was joined on the trip west by his parents and girlfriend...he used the experience to catch up with aces around the league, including Gerrit Cole, Clayton Kershaw and Justin Verlander... he returned home with an autographed All-Star jersey, signed balls and Kershaw's signature on a jersey he had brought from his Tampa home.
- Shane collaborated with Kahwa Coffee to create a snickerdoodle flavored iced latte...$2 from each No. 18 Latte is donated to Buddy Baseball, a non-profit baseball league for children with special needs...his mom was a special needs school teacher and Shane has participated in Buddy Baseball events since 2021.
- Shane's phone froze after he debuted in the 2020 postseason thanks to a combination of about 300 texts and a surge of social media notifications.
- He is one of eight University of South Florida alumni to play for the Rays...he met his girlfriend, Andrea Hauksdottir, during his time in college... Andrea has been a member of Iceland's national women's soccer team since 2016.
- Shane was born in Baltimore and lived there until he was six...some of the best memories of his childhood are taking the train to watch the Orioles play...he idolized Cal Ripken Jr. and had signatures and other collectibles, including a life-size poster of him in his bedroom...Cal is the reason "8" remains his favorite number.

2023 SEASON

- Made 21 starts, but saw his season come to an end after being placed on the 15-day IL with left forearm tightness on Aug. 3...was transferred to the 60-day IL on Aug. 12 and it was announced three days later that he would undergo his second Tommy John surgery...also spent time on the 15-day IL from July 1-17 with mid-back tightness.
- Named to his second consecutive AL All-Star team, joining David Price (2010-12) as the only Rays pitchers to earn the honor in back-to-back seasons...became the fourth Rays pitcher overall to earn multiple ASG selections (Chris Archer, Scott Kazmir)...attended All-Star weekend in Seattle, but did not pitch in the game while sidelined with mid-back tightness.
- After making his final start on Aug. 2 at Yankee Stadium, he ranked among AL leaders in whiff rate (1st, 33.4%), wins (T2nd, 11), opp. average (6th, .222) and ERA (8th, 3.29).
- Held opponents to a .153 (20-for-131) average with 0 HR on his changeup...his 54.1 pct. whiff rate on the pitch was the fifth highest on any pitch in the majors (min. 200 swings).
- Averaged 96.8 mph on his four-seam fastball, the fastest mark by any left-handed starter in the majors (min. 500 4SFB thrown).
- Recorded a career-high 8.7 pct. walk rate...issued a career-high four walks in back-to-back starts twice (April 5-11, May 8-13)...allowed at least one walk in each of his first 10 starts.
- Held opposing hitters to a 6-for-37 (.162) clip with RISP/two outs...opponents started the season 0-for-20 in such scenarios.

- On the season, the Rays went 12-1 when providing him with 3+ runs of support compared to 3-5 with two runs or fewer.
- Named the Rays Opening Day starter on March 24…became the first pitcher to make consecutive Opening Day starts for the Rays since Chris Archer from 2015-18…is the sixth pitcher to do so in club history.
- On March 30 vs. DET, became the third pitcher in Rays history to toss 6.0+ scoreless innings on Opening Day, joining Tyler Glasnow (2021) and Steve Trachsel (2000).
- The Rays won each of his eight starts to open the season, the second-longest team winning streak in a pitcher's starts to begin a season in Rays history, behind Matt Moore in 2013 (9GS)…it marked the fourth-longest streak at any point of a season in club history.
- McClanahan earned a win in each of his first five starts, matching Matt Moore (2013) for the longest streak to begin a season in Rays history.
- On April 22 vs. CWS, induced a franchise-record 32 swings-and-misses…tied the fifth-most whiffs in an outing by any pitcher in MLB's pitch-tracking era (since 2008), and were the most since NYY Gerrit Cole (32) on September 1, 2021 at LAA…his 65.3 pct. whiff rate (49 swings, 32 misses) was the highest by any pitcher in a single game in the pitch-tracking era (min. 25 swings)…recorded 10 strikeouts in the game, his fifth career double-digit strikeout performance.
- Opened the season with eight straight starts of 5.0+ innings and two earned runs or fewer, the longest streak to open a season in Rays history.
- On May 8 at BAL, threw a season-high 102 pitches with four walks over 6.0 shutout innings…became the first Rays pitcher with 4+ walks in 6.0+ scoreless frames since Charlie Morton in 2019 (4/27/19 at BOS)…marked his only outing of 2023 in which he threw 100+ pitches.
- On May 24 vs. TOR, improved to 8-0, tying the club record for the longest pitcher winning streak to open a season (Charlie Morton, 2019; Matt Moore, 2013)…it marked his second straight 7.0+ inning start, the first time he had accomplished the feat in back-to-back outings since June 26–July 2, 2022.
- From Opening Day through June 16, he went 11-1 with a major-league-best 2.12 ERA (89.1IP, 21ER), 15 points lower than the next closest pitcher (HOU Framber Valdez - 2.27)…it marked the third-lowest ERA through a pitcher's first 15 starts of a season in Rays history.
- Became the first pitcher in Rays history to win 11 of his first 12 decisions in a season…he was the first major league pitcher to turn the trick since four did so in 2016, led by WSH Stephen Strasburg (12-0).
- The Rays went 13-2 in his first 15 starts, backing him with 7.46 runs of support per 9.0 IP, the second-highest mark in the AL…it marked the best team record through a pitcher's first 15 starts in club history (prev. 11-4, Jeff Niemann in 2010).
- Went 0-1 with a 7.36 ERA (25.2IP, 21ER) over his final six starts from June 22–Aug. 2, receiving a 3.86 RSA in that span.
- On Aug. 2 at NYY, made his final start of the season, departing after allowing five earned runs in 4.0 innings…felt tightness in his left forearm while warming up for his fourth and final inning.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In 2022, won the Don Zimmer Award, given to the club's Most Valuable Player, based on voting done by the Tampa Bay Chapter of the BBWAA.
- In his first full season with the Rays, led the club with 12 wins, 166.1 innings and 194 strikeouts…started on Opening Day, for the AL in the All-Star Game and in Game 1 of the Wild Card Series at CLE.
- His 194 strikeouts tied for seventh in the AL and were the most by a Ray since Charlie Morton (240) in 2019…his 0.93 WHIP ranked second in the AL and was the lowest in franchise history, passing Blake Snell (0.97) in his 2018 Cy Young season.
- Held opponents to a .194/.246/.317 (116-for-597) line…ranked among major league leaders in opp. OBP (2nd), opp. OPS (3rd, .562), opp. avg. (4th) and slugging pct. (8th).
- Totaled 146 strikeouts on offspeed and breaking pitches, third in the majors behind LAA Shohei Ohtani (175 SO) and CWS Dylan Cease (169 SO).
- Used his changeup for 25.4 pct. of his pitches, compared to 8.0 pct. in 2021…the 44.6 pct. whiff rate on the pitch was third in the AL (min. 75 PA).
- His avg. fastball velocity was 96.7 mph, eighth in the majors and first among lefties (min. 1,500 pitches).

- His 19 starts of four hits or fewer ranked second among traditional starters in franchise history behind Blake Snell (20) in 2018.
- Went 9-5 with a 2.81 ERA (105.2IP, 33ER) in 18 starts at home and 3-3 with a 2.08 ERA (60.2IP, 14ER) in 10 starts on the road…the nine home wins tied for third in the AL and tied for second in club history behind Blake Snell (10) in 2018.
- The Rays went 9-3 in his first 12 starts of the season, compared to 6-10 in his last 16 starts.
- Went 10-3 with a 1.71 ERA (110.2IP, 21ER) in 18 starts before the All-Star break, compared to 2-5 with a 4.20 ERA (55.2IP, 26ER) in 10 starts after it.

> That's pretty special stuff right there. Big fastball, but not only that, he really commands his offspeed pitches extremely well. He's good. With good health, that kid's going to be very good for a long period of time. It's not just about that high (strikeout) number. He's a good pitcher. He pitches really well.

- Became the second pitcher in club history to start an All-Star Game, following David Price in 2010…at 25 years, 82 days, was the youngest pitcher to start an All-Star Game since NYM Matt Harvey (24.111) in 2013…allowed an RBI single to Mookie Betts and solo homer to Paul Goldschmidt in the 1st inning.
- POSTSEASON: Started Game 1 of the AL Wild Card Series at CLE and took the loss…his only runs allowed in 7.0 innings came off a go-ahead, two-run homer by José Ramírez in the 6th inning…was the longest postseason start by a Ray since David Price (7.0 IP) in Game 2 of the 2013 ALDS at BOS.
- In 2021, tied Josh Fleming for the team lead with 10 wins, which tied for second among major league rookies behind HOU Luis Garcia (11).
- His 141 strikeouts ranked sixth among rookies in club history and were the most since Nathan Karns (145) in 2015…min. 100.0 IP, his 3.43 ERA ranked third among Rays rookies behind Jeremy Hellickson (2.95) in 2011 and Chris Archer (3.22) in 2013.
- Reached 100 mph 16 times, fourth in the majors among starters…became the second left-handed starter since Statcast data is available (2015) to throw at least 10 pitches at 100 mph (or more) in a single season, joining SEA James Paxton (42) in 2016.
- Went 5-0 with a 2.76 ERA in August, setting a club record for wins in August and a club rookie record for wins in a calendar month…tied the club record (regardless of rookie status) for wins in a calendar month, most recently Blake Snell (5) in September 2018.
- Placed on the injured list on Sept. 10, retroactive to Sept. 9, but missed the minimum 10 days.
- On April 29 vs. OAK, made his first career regular season appearance…began the game with a strikeout of Mark Canha on a 100.5 mph fastball, which tied for the fastest strikeout pitch by a lefty starter in the pitch-tracking era (since 2008)…joined BOS Chris Sale on June 24, 2018 vs. SEA and SEA James Paxton on June 6, 2016 vs. CLE.
- POSTSEASON: Went 1-0 with a 7.94 ERA (5.2IP, 5ER) in two appearances (1 start) in the ALDS against the Red Sox.
- In Game 1 vs. BOS, went five scoreless in his first career postseason start…became the fourth traditional rookie starter (non-opener) in club history to start a postseason game, joining Jeremy Hellickson in 2011, Matt Moore in 2011 and Wade Davis in 2010…joined Moore as the only Rays rookies (non-opener) to start a Game 1.
- In Game 4 at BOS, pitched in relief for the first time all season and yielded five runs in 0.2 innings.
- In 2020, was part of the Rays 60-man player pool and spent the summer at the alternate training site in Port Charlotte.
- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 100 overall prospect in the minors following the season…was the No. 5 prospect in the Rays system…the publication also tabbed him as having the Best Changeup in the organization.
- POSTSEASON: Went 0-0 with a 8.31 ERA (4.1IP, 4ER) in four appearances…became the first pitcher in major league history to debut in the postseason…was one of three players to make his major league debut in the 2020 postseason, along with OF Alex Kirilloff (Twins) and LHP Ryan Weathers (Padres)…prior to the 2020 postseason, only two players had made their major league debuts in the postseason:

CONTRACT STATUS Signed through 2024
SIGNING SCOUT Howard Norsetter, Roberto Aquino and Derrick Chung (Phillies)
ACQUIRED From the Philadelphia Phillies in exchange for LHP Cristopher Sánchez, 11/20/19

X-RAY REPORT

- Curtis is the third Australian-born player to appear for the Rays, joining pitchers Grant Balfour (2007-10, 2014-15) and Damian Moss (2004)...he is attempting to become the first Australian position player regular since MIL Dave Nilsson, who took his final at-bat in the majors over a year before Curtis was born.
- His father, Tim, played for the Adelaide Giants in the Australian Baseball League...newspapers described Tim as having a "Rolls Royce Swing."
- For most of his childhood, he was pushed to play Aussie rules football but chose the road less traveled in baseball...at age 16, the Woodville-West Torrens in the South Australian National Football League wanted Mead to pick a sport... he chose baseball and quickly earned a spot on the Australian junior National Team and as a professional in the Australian Baseball League... according to Curtis, the decision "came down to the wire."
- His grandfather was a cricket player who picked up baseball when he lived in Darwin, where the game was introduced by American servicemen stationed there during World War II.
- His sister, Jamie, plays softball for Southeastern University in Lakeland.
- The Mead family flew approximately 10,000 miles over the course of around 40 hours to witness Curtis' first major league series in Detroit last August...they journeyed from Adelaide, Australia to Melbourne to Los Angeles to Detroit...just as they landed in the U.S., Curtis recorded his first hit, sparking tears of joy while the Meads waited to pass through customs.

2023 SEASON

- Appeared in 24 games and made 20 starts (3B-16, 2B-4) in his first major league season...had two stints on the Rays active roster: Aug. 4-24 and Sept. 12 through the end of the season.
- Began the season with Triple-A Durham and hit .294 (69-for-235) with 21 doubles, two triples, 9 HR and 45 RBI in 61 games...placed on the 7-day IL on May 4 and missed nearly two months due to a fractured left wrist.
- Went 18-for-55 (.327) with one or zero outs compared to 3-for-28 (.107) with two outs.
- Made his MLB debut on Aug. 4 at DET...recorded an opposite-field single on the first pitch he saw off Brendan White, becoming the sixth Ray with a hit on the first pitch he saw in the majors since pitch tracking first became available in 2000, including the first since Robinson Chirinos on Sept. 18, 2011 vs. NYY.
- At the time of his debut, became the 34th Australian-born player to appear in the majors and the first to make his MLB debut since BAL Alex Wells on June 26, 2021 vs. TOR.
- He became the third Australian-born player to appear for the Rays, joining Grant Balfour (2007-10, 2014-15) and Damian Moss (2004).
- Hit safely in 15 straight starts from Aug. 13–Sept. 29, tied for the fourth-longest streak by a major league rookie this season and matching Randy Winn in 1998 for the longest streak by a rookie in Rays history.
- On Aug. 14 at SF, recorded a career-high three hits and matched a career high with three runs (3x, last: Aug. 22 vs. COL).
- Tallied a career-high 2 RBI on Aug. 19 at LAA (1-for-4, 2B, 2 RBI, 2 BB, 2R).

- On Sept. 13 at MIN, registered his first career triple, launching a deep fly ball that deflected off the glove of Max Kepler.
- Hit his first career HR on Sept. 22 vs. TOR (off Chris Bassitt)…was the first Australian-born player to homer since MIN Luke Hughes (8/31/11 at CWS).
- Rated the No. 34 overall prospect in baseball by MLB.com following the season.
- POSTSEASON: Recorded a hit in each game of the ALWC vs. Texas, going 2-for-6 with an RBI…plated the Rays only run of the postseason with an RBI-single in the 7th inning in Game 2, marking the Rays first postseason tally since Jose Siri's solo homer in the 6th inning of Game 1 of the 2022 ALWC at CLE, snapping a 33-inning streak without a run…he became the fifth Rays rookie to record a postseason RBI and the first Australian-born player to record an RBI in the postseason.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In 2022, split the season between Double-A Montgomery and Triple-A Durham, earning a June 27 promotion…combined to hit .298/.390/.532 (84-for-282) with 13 HR and 50 RBI in 76 games…tied for fourth among Rays minor leaguers with 27 doubles.
- Missed time from July 29–Aug 19 with a right elbow strain…after returning for four games, received an injection to help the healing process and was shut down for the rest of the season.
- Named the Rays Minor League Hitter of the Month for June, batting .333 (32-for-96) with eight doubles, 7 HR and 20 RBI between two levels.
- Started for the AL team in the Futures Game in July at Dodger Stadium, going 0-for-3.
- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 36 overall prospect in the minors following the season… was the No. 2 prospect in the Rays system…the publication also tabbed him as the Best Hitter for Average in the organization and the Best Batting Prospect in the Southern League in its Best Tools survey.
- In 2021, advanced from Class-A Charleston to Durham, batting .321/.378/.533 (132-for-411) with 38 doubles, 15 HR and 69 RBI in 104 games… promoted from Charleston to Class-A Bowling Green on July 6 and to Durham on Sept. 11.
- Led the minors in doubles and led Rays minor leaguers in hits and extra-base hits (55).
- Hit .313 (26-for-83) with five doubles, two triples, 3 HR and 11 RBI in 20 games for the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League…named to the AFL Rising Stars Game.
- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 97 overall prospect in the minors following the season… was the No. 5 prospect in the Rays system…the publication also tabbed him as the Best Power Hitter in the organization.
- In 2020, was not part of the Rays 60-man player pool and did not play following the cancellation of the minor league season.
- In 2019, ranked seventh in the Gulf Coast League with 18 extra-base hits and tied for seventh with 12 doubles.
- In 2018, made his professional debut with GCL Phillies West.

X-RAY REPORT

- Richie comes from a baseball family…his older brother, Josh, is currently on the Pirates 40-man roster following stints with the Blue Jays and Nationals…his father, Richard, is a former Tigers minor leaguer while his uncle, Rey, was a backup catcher and utilityman for the Royals (1988-90).
- Richie and Josh, former youth league teammates, played together for Team Netherlands at the 2023 World Baseball Classic…both brothers were eligible because their mother hails from Curacao and has a Dutch passport.
- The Palacios brothers founded their own clothing brand in 2018 called "Built Different Athletes"…the brand aims to promote displays of passion, personality and cultural pride in sports.
- Some of Richie's interests include fashion, sneakers and cars…he often features his outfits, new sneakers and customized Mercedes AMG nicknamed "Poison Ivy" on his Instagram…he broke into the modeling scene this past offseason, participating in Arizona Fashion Week.
- Richie enjoys bowling in his free time and is a self-proclaimed "elite bowler."

2023 SEASON

- Began the year in Cleveland's organization with Triple-A Columbus and hit .217 (47-for-217) with 13 doubles, three home runs and 30 RBI.
- Acquired by St. Louis on June 16 in exchange for cash considerations…following the trade, hit .299/.418/.459 (47-for-157) with 10 2B, 5 HR, 29 RBI and 32 BB against 20 SO in 40 games for Triple-A Memphis.
- Recalled by the Cardinals on Aug. 17 and spent the remainder of the season on the active roster.
- In 32 games for the Cardinals, including 25 starts (LF-17G, CF-7G, 2B-1G), hit .258/.307/.516 (24-for-93) with 6 2B, 6 HR and 16 RBI…had 0 HR and 10 RBI in 54 career major league games prior to being acquired by St. Louis.

X-RAY REPORT

- Isaac is no stranger to swagger or breaking records as he enjoyed a historic run of homers with the Rays in 2022…among his idols is John Cena, from whom he copied the celebratory "you can't see me" gesture of waving his hand in front of his face.
- He takes pride in his walk-up song, "De Los Besos Que Te Di" by Christian Nodal, a Mexican song which translates to "of the kisses I gave you."
- Entering the 2024 season, all 48 of Isaac's career homers have been hit to his pull side…Rays coaches joke with him that he doesn't have power to center field…"I think I don't want him to hit the ball [to] right field at all, I give him grief when he does it," manager Kevin Cash told MLB.com last August.
- Isaac has a daughter, Bella…he has a tattoo in Roman numerals on his left forearm for the birth year of his daughter.
- In September 2014 in a U-15 World Baseball Cup matchup between Mexico and the United States, Paredes took the mound displaying his 90+ mph fastball…he struck out five in 4 IP, and the performance eventually led to him being signed by the Cubs for $850,000 by the same scout who found Miguel Cabrera, Luoie Eljaua.
- Isaac helped Team Mexico to its first semifinal appearance at the 2023 World Baseball Classic… in the quarterfinal vs. Puerto Rico, he hit a 412-foot homer off Marcus Stroman as part of a 3-RBI performance that also included a game-tying two-run single…after the quarterfinal victory, he said, "It's a lot of adrenaline you feel on the field. I had never felt that adrenaline, even when I debuted in the majors. It was beautiful."

- Appeared in 143 games and made 133 starts (3B-109G, 2B-11G, 1B-10G, DH-3G, SS-1G).
- Set career highs in nearly all major categories, including games, hits (123), doubles (24), HR (31), RBI (98), walks (58), batting average (.250), on-base pct. (.352), slugging pct. (.488) and OPS (.840)…ranked among AL leaders in RBI (T6th), OPS (8th) and HR (T8th).
- Recorded a career-high 4.3 bWAR, marking the eighth 4.0+ bWAR season by a Mexican-born player since 1901, including the first since COL Vinny Castilla (5.6) in 1998.
- Led the Rays in home runs, while ranking second in games, total bases (236) and OPS… also led the club with three multi-homer games, ahead of Luke Raley and Jose Siri (2G each).
- His 31 HR were third most among AL infielders behind BOS Rafael Devers and TEX Corey Seager (both 33HR).
- Hit all 31 of his homers to the pull side, joining STL Nolan Arenado (2021-22) and CLE José Ramírez (2021) as the only players in the pitch tracking era (since 2008) to pull all of their home runs in a 30+ homer season…he has pulled all 53 of his career homers; making him the only player in the pitch tracking era (since 2008) with 50+ career homers, all to the pull side.
- Ranked among MLB leaders in pull rate (1st, 52.7%), avg. launch angle (2nd, 22.2°) and lowest ground ball rate (3rd, 31.6%).
- His 20 hit-by-pitches marked the fourth most in a single season in team history behind Brandon Guyer (24HBP in 2015; 23HBP in 2016) and Carlos Gómez (21HBP in 2018)…the 20 HBP were tied with CLE Andrés Giménez for third most in MLB.

- Joined Evan Longoria (2009) as the only players in Rays history with a 30+ HR, 90+ RBI season in an age 24 or younger season.
- Joined Evan Longoria (2009, 2011, 2013, 2016) as the only third basemen in team history to have a 30-homer season.
- Had seven games with 4+ RBI, tying Evan Longoria (2011) and Carlos Peña (2009) for the single-season franchise record…the seven such games led the AL and were tied with ATL Matt Olson for the second most in the majors, behind NYM Pete Alonso (8G).
- Registered three games with 5+ RBI, tying Ben Grieve (2001) and Austin Meadows (2021) for the single-season franchise record.
- Became the sixth Rays infielder (13th instance) to have a 90+ RBI season.
- Produced 7 RBI over two games from April 7-8 vs. OAK, his most over any two-game span in his career, which included his second career grand slam on April 7.
- Tallied multiple hits in a career-best four straight games from April 27-30, batting .474 (9-for-19) with 4 2B, one HR and 7 RBI during the run.
- On June 9 vs. TEX, produced a career-high 6 RBI (3-for-4, 2B, 2 HR, 6RBI)…was the first Ray to record 6+ RBI in a game since Randy Arozarena on Sept. 23, 2022 vs. TOR (also 6 RBI).
- Drew at least one walk in a career-best seven straight games from June 16-23, the longest run by a Ray since a seven-game run by Yandy Díaz from July 24-31, 2020.
- Hit safely in a season-best eight straight games from Aug. 19-29, marking the second-longest streak of his career behind a 10-game run from Sept. 12-24, 2020.
- POSTSEASON: Started at third base in both games of the ALWC vs. Texas…went a combined 3-for-8 (.375) with one double.
- WBC: Hit .375 (9-for-24) with one HR and 6 RBI in six games for Team Mexico in the 2023 World Baseball Classic.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

X-RAY REPORT

- Ryan and his wife, Lilia, got married on Nov. 13, 2021 in Puerto Vallarta…the couple loves to travel—some of their recent destinations include Dubai, Paris, Barcelona and Portugal…they plan on visiting either Japan or Australia on their next trip.
- After the Dodgers were eliminated from the postseason last year, Ryan was at home watching a show on Bravo with Lilia when he first saw his name involved in trade rumors… after reading a few posts and texts, he turned to Lilia and said, "I think we just got traded."
- While visiting his then-fiancée Lilia and her family in Louisiana in 2020, he spent time working out with Louisiana native and MLB veteran Wade Miley along with coach Chris Westcott while waiting for a verdict on the postponed baseball season…Ryan spent the time honing in on his mechanics and breaking pitches.
- Ryan was a three-sport athlete in high school… he stopped playing basketball following his sophomore year and had an offer to play football at Ball State before choosing to pursue a baseball career.
- While growing up in Indianapolis, he was a Reds fan because his father is from Ohio…some of his favorite players included Bronson Arroyo, Ken Griffey Jr., Brandon Phillips and Joey Votto…he still hopes to meet Votto in the future.
- Ryan started growing out his hair in 2020 when most barbers shut down due to the COVID pandemic and has yet to return to a barbershop.

2023 SEASON

- Went 2-1 with a 2.14 ERA (42.0IP, 10ER) in eight appearances (3GS) with the Dodgers…placed on the 15-day IL on March 30 (retro March 27) with a left oblique strain…transferred to the 60-day IL on April 21.
- In six rehab starts with Triple-A Oklahoma City from July 14–Aug. 13, went 0-2 with a 3.97 ERA (22.2IP, 10ER)…struck out 26 batters against five walks during the rehab stint.
- From his Aug. 19 season debut through the end of the season, his 0.76 WHIP was the lowest mark among National League pitchers while his 2.14 ERA ranked third (min. 40.0IP).
- Walked one batter or fewer in all eight of his appearances after issuing multiple walks in seven of nine appearances in 2022.
- Utilized his four-seam fastball 50.6 pct. of the time and limited opponents to a .156 (10-for-64) average on the offering…the .156 avg. was the second-lowest such mark in the NL (min. 50AB) from Aug. 19 through the end of the season, trailing only MIL Brandon Woodruff (.155).
- Worked 5.0+ innings in three separate relief appearances (Aug. 19-G1 vs. MIA, Sept. 18 vs. DET and Sept. 26-G1 at COL)…the three such outings were the most by a Dodgers pitcher since Dave Stewart (3G) in 1982.
- On Sept. 9 at MIA, he threw a career-high 7.0 scoreless innings, yielding one hit with three strikeouts.
- On Sept. 26 at COL, recorded a career-high 9 SO across 6.0 relief innings, allowing one run on five hits and one walk…the 9 SO were tied for the most by a Dodgers reliever in franchise history

(8x, last: Kevin Brown on Aug. 25, 2002 at ATL)…he was one of four relievers in 2023 to record 9+ SO in an outing, joining BOS Nick Pivetta (13SO), KC Alec Marsh (9SO) and OAK Luis Medina (9SO).

- Entered the season rated the Dodgers No. 5 prospect by Baseball America.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In 2022, went 3-0 with a 3.47 ERA (36.1IP, 14ER) in nine appearances (7GS) across seven stints with the Dodgers (May 11-12, May 17-18, May 27-28, July 5-6, Aug. 10-22, Sept. 4-5 and Sept. 20-21).
- In 19 appearances (17GS) with Oklahoma City, went 9-1 with a 2.56 ERA (91.1IP, 26ER)…the nine wins were tied for second most among Los Angels farmhands and were tied for fourth most in the the Pacific Coast League.
- Named PCL Pitcher of the Month for April after going 2-0 with a 1.66 ERA (21.2IP, 4ER) across five starts…was also named a Triple-A All-Star by Baseball America.
- On May 11 at PIT, made his major league debut and did not factor into the start…tossed 3.0 scoreless innings, allowing one hit and five walks with three strikeouts…recorded his first career strikeout on the first batter he faced, fanning Ben Gamel on four pitches.
- On July 5 vs. COL, earned his first career win after working 5.0 innings, allowing one run on four hits and one walk with six strikeouts.
- In 2021, went 5-9 with a 4.62 ERA (101.1IP, 52ER) in 26 appearances (22GS) between Oklahoma City and Double-A Tulsa.
- Ranked among Los Angeles minor leaguers in strikeouts (2nd, 127), opponent avg. (3rd, .222), starts (T3rd), WHIP (5th, 1.29) and innings (6th).
- In 15 appearances (13GS) for Tulsa, posted a 2.87 ERA (59.2IP, 19ER) and a .149 (30-for-202) opponent avg…in 11 appearances (9GS) for Oklahoma City, recorded a 7.13 ERA (41.2IP, 33ER) and a .305 (54-for-177) opponent avg.
- On July 4 vs. ARK, tossed 7.0 scoreless and hitless innings, allowing only one walk while fanning a season-high 11 batters.
- In 2020, was not part of the Dodgers initial 60-man player pool but later reported to the alternate training site on July 10 as a non-roster invite.
- In 2019, split his first professional season between AZL Dodgers Mota and Class-A Great Lakes, posting a 1.93 ERA (23.1IP, 5ER) across 13 appearances (10GS).

AMATEUR CAREER

- Selected by the Dodgers in the third round of the 2019 First-Year Player Draft from Butler University, becoming the highest draft pick in school history.
- Set Butler's all-time (306) and single-season (126, 2019) strikeout records during his three-year career.
- Following his sophomore season in 2018, went 3-0 with a 4.91 ERA (22.0IP, 12ER) in 14 appearances (1GS) for the Hyannis Harbor Hawks in the Cape Cod League.
- After his freshman season in 2017, went 0-2 with a 5.73 ERA (22.0IP, 14ER) over five starts for the Keene Swamp Bats in the New England Collegiate Baseball League.

STORMY WEATHER

The Rays have had games affected by six hurricanes:

- Hurricane Hilary (Aug. 19, 2023): A rare West Coast hurricane forced the Rays and Angels to conclude their weekend series with a day-night doubleheader on Saturday, Sept. 18 rather than finishing the series with the scheduled game on Sunday. The Rays dropped the opening contest but pushed across a season high in runs in an 18-4 victory in the nightcap.
- Hurricane Dorian (Sept. 2-4, 2019): MLB moved up the Rays-Orioles series finale to be part of a traditional doubleheader on Sept. 3—just the third doubleheader in Tropicana Field history. The Rays split the twin bill, and won two of three games in the series.
- Hurricane Irma (Sept. 11-13, 2017): MLB moved the three-game series against the Yankees from Tropicana Field to Citi Field in New York. The Rays lost two of three games. It was the fifth time in baseball history that weather concerns forced the relocation of games to a neutral site—but the second in a span of two weeks.
- Hurricane Jeanne (Sept. 26, 2004): The Rays and Blue Jays were canceled at Tropicana Field with the storm approaching. The previous night's game, which began at 6:16 p.m., was played with the caveat that no inning could start after 9:15 p.m. The curfew was a precaution to make sure the Blue Jays were able to fly out of Florida after the game.
- Hurricane Frances (Sept. 3-5, 2004): MLB postponed two games against the Tigers (Sep 4-5), and the Tigers left St. Pete after the Sept. 3 series opener to avoid the storm. The Rays were scheduled to play a Labor Day doubleheader at Yankee Stadium on Sept. 6, but were unable to leave Tampa International Airport until 3 p.m. that day. They arrived in New York at 5:25 p.m. and played a single game that night, a 7-4 loss which began at 7 p.m. The postponed game was eventually made up in New York on Sept. 23. The Rays and Tigers played (and split) a doubleheader on Sept. 30—the first doubleheader ever played at Tropicana Field.
- Hurricane Gordon (Sept. 17, 2000): The Rays and Athletics were postponed at Tropicana Field with the storm bearing down. Instead of playing that afternoon, the Athletics flew to Baltimore. The game was never made up, one of three such games in club history.

In addition, Tropicana Field served as a neutral host for a similar situation, as the Rangers-Astros series Aug. 29-31, 2017 was moved from Houston due to the devastation caused by Hurricane Harvey. The Astros won two of three games.

X-RAY REPORT

- His father, René Sr., was also a catcher who played seven seasons in the Yankees system from 1994–2000 and played for the Venezuelan National Team at international tournaments.
- René was the starting catcher on Sept. 15, 2022 vs. TOR, when the Rays used the first batting order in major league history comprised of nine players from Latin American countries to celebrate Roberto Clemente Day
- He is the longest-tenured member of the Rays organization on the 40-man roster, originally signing with the club on Oct. 1, 2013…he made his major league debut nearly a decade later in 2022.
- René is quiet by nature but gained confidence during his extended stay in the big leagues last season…he has set a goal of becoming a more vocal leader this year.
- His wife, Genesis, grew up in the modeling and pageantry worlds…she recently started her own model coaching business, Smart Models Academy.

2023 SEASON

- Appeared in 38 games, making all 31 of his starts at catcher…promoted from Triple-A Durham on July 21 and remained on the active roster through the end of the season.
- Hit .351 (20-for-57) with 3 2B, 4 HR and 10 RBI in 21 road games compared to .130 (6-for-46) with 2 HR and 6 RBI across 17 games at Tropicana Field.
- With one or two outs, hit .309 (22-for-71) with 6 HR and 16 RBI…with zero outs, hit .125 (4-for-32) with one double and no HR or RBI.
- Despite throwing out only three of 22 potential base stealers (13.6%), his 1.87 sec. average pop time to second base ranked in the 94th percentile among all MLB catchers (Baseball Savant).
- On July 29 at HOU, made his first career pitching appearance (1.0IP, 5H, 5ER).
- On Aug. 2 at NYY, tallied a career-high three hits…the same day, threw out Anthony Volpe at second base, marking his first career catcher caught stealing…became the first Rays catcher to go 3-for-3 or better since Francisco Mejía on Aug. 18, 2022 (4-for-4).
- Hit safely in a career-best six straight games from Aug. 29–Sept. 8, batting .421 (8-for-19) with two doubles, 3 HR and 7 RBI during the run.
- Recorded an extra-base hit in a career-best four straight games from Aug. 29–Sept. 5.
- Homered in consecutive games for the first time in his career from Sept. 3-5.
- Hit .253 (37-for-146) with 12 doubles, 9 HR and 24 RBI in 37 games for Durham from March 31–May 29.
- POSTSEASON: Started both games of the ALWC vs. TEX and went a combined 0-for-5 with four strikeouts.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In 2022, appeared in 25 games and made 23 starts, all at catcher…was on the active roster from April 22–May 4, June 10–July 10, July 26–Aug. 4, Sept. 12-21 and Oct. 4-5, his first career major league action.
- Hit .250 (12-for-48) with one HR and 7 RBI in 14 games from July 1 through season's end.
- Went 0-for-13 in throwing out base stealers.

- On April 26 vs. SEA, made his major league debut as a defensive replacement in the 5th inning and hit a two-run homer off Matt Koch in the 7th, the second at-bat of his career…became the first catcher in club history and eighth Ray overall to homer in his major league debut, joining Wander Franco in 2021, Yoshi Tsutsugo in 2020, Willy Adames in 2018, Brandon Guyer in 2011, Elijah Dukes in 2007, Delmon Young in 2006 and Brent Abernathy in 2001…was the 10th position player in club history to homer for his first career hit.
- Became the 11th player in AL history to homer in his MLB debut off the bench and the first since SEA Greg Dobbs on September 8, 2004 vs. CLE… became the second catcher in AL history to enter as a reserve and homer in his major league debut, joining OAK Terry Steinbach on September 12, 1986 at CLE.
- Hit .266/.320/.521 (75-for-282) with 26 doubles, 14 HR and 54 RBI for Triple-A Durham…hit .351 (27-for-77) vs. LHP and .281 (25-for-89) with RISP.
- Threw out 25.8 pct. (16 of 62) of attempted base stealers with Durham.
- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 14 prospect in the Rays system following the season…the publication also tabbed him as the Best Defensive Catcher in the organization.
- Split the 2021 season between Double-A Montgomery and Durham…hit .274/.325/.500 (97-for-354) with 20 HR and 60 RBI in 93 games between the two levels.
- Named to the Rays Organizational All-Star Team by MLB.com.
- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 22 prospect in the Rays system following the season.
- In 2020, added to the Rays 60-man player pool on July 24 and spent the summer at the alternate training site in Port Charlotte.
- In 2019, appeared in 77 games for Montgomery, including 65 starts at catcher…hit .305/.337/.512 (25-for-82) with eight doubles, 3 HR and 15 RBI in his last 23 games.
- Limited to 72 games for Class-A Charlotte in 2018 due to an April 13–May 8 stint on the injured list with a left hamstring strain.
- Played 15 games for the Navegantes del Magallanes in the Venezuelan Winter League.
- Ranked by Baseball America as the Best Defensive Catcher in the Florida State League in its Best Tools survey.
- Spent the entire 2017 season with Class-A Bowling Green, aside from a four-game rehab assignment with the GCL Rays (left wrist).
- Split the 2016 season between the GCL Rays and Rookie-level Princeton, batting .262/.304/.483 (39-for-149) with 8 HR in 40 games.
- Promoted on Aug. 4 and homered in his first Appalachian League game.
- Played eight games for the Navegantes del Magallanes in the Venezuelan Winter League.
- In 2015, named Most Valuable Player for the VSL Rays by the Rays Baseball Operations department.
- Spent a second consecutive season with the VSL Rays and led the league with a .323 batting avg., .552 slugging pct. and 27 extra-base hits.
- Led qualifying VSL catchers in throwing out 47.9 pct. (23 of 48) of attempted base stealers.
- Named to the Rays Organizational All-Star Team by MLB.com.
- In 2014, threw out 50.0 pct. (24 of 48) of attempted base stealers in his first season.

X-RAY REPORT

- While matters of racial justice took center stage in 2020, Colin voiced support for efforts to launch a new inquiry into the 2014 killing of Tamir Rice by police in Cleveland...Rice was shot and killed while playing with a toy pellet gun... Colin shared that he had a similar encounter under the same circumstances at Tamir's age but had been calmly approached and educated by the officer..."The difference between Tamir's mom losing a son and mine not even knowing about this story is the difference in the color of our skin. There was no justice served in this case. It's time to take another look at it."
- He won his school's third grade spelling bee to earn the right to compete at the district level, where he was subsequently "destroyed."
- He only played basketball up to his freshman year of high school, but has been able to dunk since his senior year...the first time that he dunked on someone was at a local gym, just in time for his best friend's dad to walk in and witness it—the only person he knew who did.
- Colin was friends with late Rays bullpen catcher Jean Ramirez and remains involved with JC 98 Inc., whose mission is to "advocate for mental health and suicide prevention through education and community service."
- Colin was inducted into the Dallas Baptist University Athletics Circle of Honor this past offseason along with Mets reliever Drew Smith.
- Colin and his wife, Jessica, were married on November 20, 2021 in Dallas...the couple celebrated the birth of their first child, Mia Grace, last Halloween...they adopted a golden retriever, Zeus, in 2020.

2023 SEASON

- Set career highs in appearances (66), wins (12), ERA (2.23), innings (60.2) and HR/9.0 IP (0.59)... the 66 appearances led the Rays...his 2.23 ERA ranked eighth in the AL (min. 50.0IP).
- After making his first career Opening Day roster, he was the only reliever to remain on the Rays active roster for the duration of the season.
- His 12 wins led all MLB relievers, outpacing BAL Mike Baumann (10)...marked the second-most victories by a reliever in Rays history, trailing Ryan Yarbrough (14) in 2018.
- Became the sixth pitcher in Rays history to appear in 65+ games in consecutive seasons, joining Roberto Hernández (1998-2000), Dan Wheeler (2008-09), Joel Peralta (2011-14), Jake McGee (2012-14) and Fernando Rodney (2012-13).
- Utilized his slider 35.0 pct. of the time and held opponents to a .127 (10-for-79) mark on the pitch...opponents hit .234 (32-for-137) on his fastball, an offering he used 65.0 pct. of the time.
- Of his 66 appearances, 64 were 1.0 inning or fewer (1.2 IP on Aug. 6 at DET & 1.1 IP on Sept. 17 at BAL).
- Allowed 13-of-26 (50%) of his inherited runners to score, tied for the fifth-highest percentage in the AL (min. 25 inherited runners).
- From Aug. 6–end of season, pitched to a 1.64 ERA (22.0IP, 4ER) across 23 appearances, holding opponents to a .173 (13-for-75) average...this stretch included a career-high 12 consecutive scoreless appearances from Aug. 30–Sept. 23.
- POSTSEASON: Worked 1.0 inning in Game 2 of the ALWC vs. the Rangers in his first postseason action since 2019, allowing two runs on three hits while fanning two batters.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Began 2022 with Triple-A Durham and made six appearances…did not surrender a run and allowed one hit while striking out 11 batters against two walks.
- Recalled on April 22, and remained with the Rays for the rest of the season…his 65 appearances ranked second on the club behind Jason Adam (67).
- Suffered a right oblique strain in the season-ending series in Boston and placed on the 15-day IL in advance of the last regular season game.
- Allowed 11 HR, tied for fifth among major league relievers…marked the most by a Rays reliever since Emilio Pagán (12) in 2019.
- Allowed two home runs over his last 24 appearances (20.2IP) after allowing nine homers in his first 41 appearances (38.0IP).
- Among pitchers with zero GIDP, his 58.2 IP ranked fourth in the majors behind ATL Kenley Jansen (64.0IP), SEA Paul Sewald (64.0IP) and MIA Elieser Hernández (62.1IP)…ranked second in franchise history, trailing Al Reyes (60.2 IP) in 2007.
- On May 25 vs. MIA, tallied his first save since Sept. 23, 2019 vs. BOS…entered with a 5-3 lead in the 9th inning and the Rays defense made two errors behind him, leading to an unearned run…facing the bases loaded, got a game-ending strikeout of Jesús Aguilar.
- On July 26 at BAL, allowed a go-ahead, two-run homer to Ramón Urías in the 8th inning, the first time in his career he allowed one on an 0-2 pitch…marked his first loss since Sept. 11, 2019 at TEX and the three runs were his most since July 16, 2019 at NYY (6R).
- On July 27 at BAL, allowed a game-tying, solo homer to Jorge Mateo with one out in the 9th inning, the second consecutive appearance he was charged with a blown save…recorded the win after the Rays reclaimed the lead in extra innings.
- On Aug. 10 at MIL, yielded a game-tying homer to Rowdy Tellez in the 9th inning…marked the second time in six appearances he allowed a game-tying or go-ahead homer in the 9th inning or later.
- On Oct. 4 at BOS, allowed a grand slam to Xander Bogaerts in the 5th inning…marked the third grand slam allowed in his career, following July 16, 2019 at NYY (Didi Gregorius) and June 12, 2019 vs. OAK (Ramón Laureano)…left the game with a 1-0 count on the next batter (right oblique strain) and placed on the 15-day IL the next day.
- Missed the entire 2021 season recovering from Tommy John surgery.
- Underwent Tommy John surgery on his left elbow on July 29, 2020, performed by Dr. Keith Meister in Arlington, Texas.
- In 2019, selected from Triple-A Durham on June 8, between games of a doubleheader at BOS, and made his major league debut in the second game…stayed in the majors the rest of the season, making a team-high 51 appearances over that span.
- Led AL lefty relievers with a .181 opponent avg. (33-for-182), and ranked seventh overall among AL relievers…min. 50.0 IP, his 12.54 SO/9.0 IP ratio ranked fourth among AL lefties behind NYY Aroldis Chapman (13.42), BOS Chris Sale (13.32) and CLE Brad Hand (13.19).
- Allowed nine home runs in 51.2 innings, but only one homer in his last 23 appearances spanning 22.0 innings…27.3 pct. (9 of 33) of his hits allowed were homers.
- On June 8 at BOS (G2), became the third Ray all-time to enter in relief and take the loss in his major league debut, joining Álex Torres on July 18, 2011 vs. NYY and Franklin Núñez on Aug. 14, 2004 at TEX.
- On June 16 vs. LAA, retired all six batters he faced, including three strikeouts for his first career win.
- On July 26 at TOR, entered with a 3-1 lead and got three flyouts to earn his first career save.
- Went 2-2 with a 6.26 ERA (27.1IP, 19ER) and 48 strikeouts in 20 appearances (2 starts) for Durham…from the start of May until he was selected to the major league roster, went 2-0 with a 3.38 ERA (18.2IP, 7ER) and 33 strikeouts in 13 appearances (2GS) with the Bulls, including 11 scoreless outings.
- POSTSEASON: Pitched in all five games of the ALDS against the Astros…became the third rookie to appear in five games of a Division Series, joining WSH Sammy Solis in 2016 and TOR Aaron Sanchez in 2015…his only run allowed was a Robinson Chirinos homer in Game 4.
- In 2018, named Minor League Reliever of the Year by the Rays Baseball Operations department…began the season with Double-A Jackson in the D-backs organization, then pitched for Double-A Montgomery and Durham in the Rays system following a May 1 acquisition as a player to be named in the Steven Souza Jr. trade.

X-RAY REPORT

- Harold dyed his hair blue for his oldest son, Elian, who was diagnosed with autism three years ago…blue is the color for autism awareness, an important cause for Harold and his family as they support Elian.
- His mother, Celina, had a major influence on his baseball career…Celina, a former third baseman, got him playing baseball at age 3, taking him every day to a field near their house in Cartagena where she and Harold's dad, Andres, played softball.
- Harold has several tattoos representing those closest to him…his mother's name can be found on his right arm while his son's name is on his neck…he also has several puzzle piece tattoos to promote autism awareness.
- Two of Harold's favorite activities are painting and going to the beach with his family…Elian is also a big fan of the beach, but he prefers the family's trips to the zoo, which tend to turn into marathon affairs due to his love of animals.
- He created the Harold Ramírez Foundation in 2021 to support youth sports and social causes in his native Cartagena…the foundation hosts an annual baseball tournament, a tradition that dates back to 2021.
- He likes both nicknames that get thrown around the clubhouse related to his offensive prowess, "Hittin' Harold" and "Barreled Ramírez."
- Harold represented Colombia in the World Baseball Classic for the first time in 2023…he appeared in three games for his home country during the qualifying phase of the 2017 World Baseball Classic, but was not on the roster for the tournament.

2023 SEASON

- Appeared in 122 games and made 99 starts (DH-86G, RF-6G, LF-5G, 1B-2G).
- Set career highs in hits (125), HR (12), RBI (68), walks (22), runs (58), steals (5), batting average (.313), on base pct. (353), slugging pct. (.460) and OPS (.813).
- Was one of three AL batters to have 375+ AB and hit .310 or better, joining teammate Yandy Díaz and TEX Corey Seager.
- Min. 100 AB, his .387 (46-for-119) average against left-handed pitching led the AL and ranked second in the majors behind ATL Ozzie Albies (.391)…under the same parameters, his .387 AVG vs. southpaws was the highest mark in a season in team history, ahead of Jason Bartlett (.379 in 2008) and Jeff Keppinger (.376 in 2012).
- Min. 200 AB, his .244 (49-for-201) average with two strikes was the second-highest mark in the AL behind teammate Yandy Díaz (.256).
- Hit .378 (14-for-37) in extra-inning games, the third-best average in the majors (min. 30AB) behind BAL Adam Frazier (.391) and WSH Lane Thomas (. 385).
- Hit an MLB-best .354 (67-for-189) in 55 road games (min. 150AB), outpacing LAD Freddie Freeman (.351).
- His 11 hits as a pinch hitter set the single-season team record, outpacing the 10 hits recorded by both Brandon Guyer (2015) and Travis Lee (2005).
- Min. 15 AB, his .524 (11-for-21) average and 10 RBI as a pinch hitter led MLB.
- His .391 (27-for-69) average against breaking/offspeed pitches from Aug. 1–end of the season was third highest in MLB behind CWS Elvis

Andrus (.472) and SD Luis Campusano (.440) (min. 50AB ending in a breaking/offspeed pitch).

- Made his third career Opening Day roster (2020, 2022-23) — all of which have come as a starter (2023-DH, 2022-1B, 2020-RF).
- On April 9 vs. OAK, his 441-foot home run off James Kaprielian marked the farthest long ball of his career.
- On April 13 vs. BOS, tallied two doubles in the fifth inning, becoming the eighth Rays hitter (10th instance) with multiple extra-base hits in an inning, and the first since Matt Joyce on Aug. 28, 2011 at TOR (2 2B, 9th inn.).
- Registered multiple hits in a career-best five consecutive games from April 16-22, batting .500 (10-for-20) during the run.
- Min. 125 AB, his .367 (51-for-139) average from Aug. 1–end of the season led MLB, outpacing LAD Mookie Betts (.364).
- On Aug. 19 at LAA, registered a career-high four hits…his 4 RBI in the game matched a career high (also 4 RBI on Sept. 19, 2021 at NYY).
- On Sept. 8 vs. SEA, snapped a career-long 55-game homerless drought (June 9–Sept. 7) with a long ball off Isaiah Campbell.
- On Sept. 15 at BAL, recorded his first career pinch-hit home run off Bryan Baker.
- On Sept. 23 vs. TOR, notched his first career outfield assist, throwing out Whit Merrifield at home to preserve a 5-4 lead.
- POSTSEASON: Started both games of the ALWC vs. Texas at designated hitter and went 1-for-8 (.125) with two strikeouts and one GIDP.
- WBC: Hit .133 (2-for-15) with one walk in four games for Team Colombia in the 2023 World Baseball Classic.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Enjoyed a breakout campaign in his first season with the Rays in 2022, batting .300 in 120 games… set career highs with 121 hits, 24 2B and 58 RBI.
- Min. 400 AB, his .300 avg. was the highest by a Ray since Casey Kotchman (.306) in 2011 and ranked 8th in the AL…was batting .332 through the end of play on Sept. 2 before hitting .198 (19-for-96) over his final 27 games (24GS).
- Hit .360/.413/.460 (40-for-111) vs. LHP, compared to .277/.315/.384 (81-for-292) against righties… min. 100 AB, ranked third in the majors in avg. vs. LHP behind STL Paul Goldschmidt (.411) and BOS Xander Bogaerts (.382)…marked the highest batting average by a Ray against lefty pitching since Jeff Keppinger (.376) in 2012.
- Hit .333/.380/.453 (64-for-192) in 63 games (49 starts) at Tropicana Field, .312/.343/.400 (39-for-125) with RISP and .474/.524/.474 (9-for-19) with 7 RBI and 2 BB when used as a pinch-hitter.
- Made starts at DH (52), first base (29), right field (15) and left field (2)…was on the 10-day IL from July 18–Aug. 16 for a right thumb fracture.

X-RAY REPORT

- Drew and his wife, Stevie, welcomed their son, Rhett William, on Sept. 6, 2022…Drew lists being a dad among his favorite hobbies.
- Drew and Stevie are closely involved with Miracle League, volunteering with chapters in Oregon, Arizona and Florida, including the Tampa Bay-based Miracle by the Bay…Miracle League removes the barriers that keep children with mental and physical disabilities off the baseball field…the organization uses a "buddy" system, assigning an able-bodied volunteer to work with each athlete.
- Drew has been described as a heavy sweater and often changes jerseys during games in sweltering conditions…he will induce sweat to prepare for starts by working out in a hoodie and running outside at 90+ degrees.
- As a redshirt sophomore at Oregon State University in 2017, he went 3-0 with a 1.00 ERA (27.0IP, 3ER) in eight appearances (4GS) after returning in late-April from Tommy John surgery…the batterymate in each of his outings that season was a true freshman named Adley Rutschman.

2023 SEASON

- Made eight starts in his third season with the Rays before being placed on the 60-day IL on May 12 (right elbow flexor strain)…was shut down from throwing for eight weeks and hoped to return later in the season, but a follow-up MRI revealed that surgery was necessary…opted for an internal brace procedure rather than a third Tommy John surgery, performed by Dr. Keith Meister on July 24.
- Following his final start on May 11 at Yankee Stadium, his 2.62 ERA (44.2IP, 13ER) was tied for eighth in the AL.
- Utilized his cutter 35.9 pct. of the time…from Opening Day through May 11, it marked the highest usage rate on an AL pitcher's cut fastball (min. 500 pitches thrown)…opponents batted .204 (10-for-49) against his cutter with a 27.5 pct. whiff rate.
- Threw fastballs 77.6 pct. of the time (cutter, four-seam, sinker), the fifth-highest mark in MLB at the time of his injury (min. 500 pitches thrown).
- Made his third straight Opening Day roster and second since becoming a regular member of the Rays rotation.
- Of his 13 ER, 10 came in two of his starts: April 14 at TOR and April 25 vs. HOU…he recorded a 0.76 ERA (35.2IP, 3ER) in his other six starts.
- Opened the season on a 13.0 scoreless inning streak before a George Springer HR in the 1st inning on April 14 at TOR, tying rotation-mate Jeffrey Springs for the third-longest streak by a Rays starter to open a season in club history.
- From Sept. 24, 2022–April 9, 2023, recorded a career-best four straight quality starts, going 3-1 with a 1.03 ERA (26.1IP, 3ER)…entered that stretch with seven career quality starts.
- Logged 12.2 scoreless innings over his final two starts from May 6-11, both against the Yankees…it marked the fifth-longest scoreless inning streak to open the month of May by a Rays starter in club history…he posted a 6.16 ERA (19.0IP, 13ER) in his previous four starts from April 14-30.

- On April 25 vs. HOU, opened the game with 4.0 scoreless innings before yielding six hits over a stretch of seven batters faced in the 5th…the six hits and 5 ER allowed in the frame both marked the most in any inning of his career.
- On May 11 at NYY, retired 21 of his 23 batters faced in an 8-2 win in the Bronx, his final start of the season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In his first full season in the majors in 2022, his 11 wins ranked second on the club behind Shane McClanahan (12) and his 28 starts tied for second behind Corey Kluber (31)…yielded three or fewer runs in 24 of 28 starts and two runs or fewer 20 times…allowed five or fewer hits in 19 of 28 starts.
- Was on the 15-day IL from June 15–July 1 with a left hamstring strain…reinstated on July 2 as the 27th Man for a doubleheader at Rogers Centre.
- Went 6-4 with a 2.45 ERA (73.1IP, 20ER) in 13 starts after the All-Star break.
- Went 6-3 with a 2.24 ERA (76.1IP, 19ER) in 13 starts at Tropicana Field…yielded three or fewer runs in 14 consecutive home starts from Aug. 17, 2021–Aug. 25, 2022.
- Opponents hit .178 (19-for-107) with RISP, fifth lowest in the AL (min. 100 AB) and the lowest against a Rays pitcher since Blake Snell (.088) in 2018…opponents hit .145 (10-for-69) with RISP against him from June 4 through season's end.
- Added a cutter to his arsenal and used it for 32.9 pct. of his pitches, ninth-highest in MLB (min. 1,500 total pitches)…his cutter was rated at 10.8 Runs Above Avg., second in the majors (min. 100 IP) behind MIL Corbin Burnes (26.4).
- Named AL Pitcher of the Month for August, going 3-1 with a 1.57 ERA (34.1IP, 6ER) and 33 strikeouts in six starts…marked his first career monthly honor and became the first Rays pitcher to win the award since Rich Hill in May 2021…took a perfect game into the 9th inning on Aug. 14 vs. BAL, a no-hitter into the 6th on Aug. 20 vs. KC and recorded a then-career-high-tying nine strikeouts on Aug. 25 vs. LAA…became the first pitcher in club history to take a no-hit bid into the 6th inning in back-to-back starts.
- Made his second Opening Day roster and first as a regular member of the starting rotation after opening the 2021 season in the Brewers bullpen.
- Won five straight decisions from April 27–May 25, pitching to a 1.71 ERA (31.2IP, 6ER) in six starts over that stretch…went 5.0+ innings and allowed one run or fewer in five straight starts from April 27–May 18, tying Chris Archer from May 17–June 7, 2015 and Scott Kazmir from May 10-31, 2008 for the longest run in club history…it was matched by Shane McClanahan from June 20–July 13.
- On April 27 vs. SEA, recorded a then-career-high nine strikeouts in six scoreless innings…struck out five consecutive batters from the second out of the 4th inning (J.P. Crawford) through the end of the 5th (Cal Raleigh)…became the fourth Washington-born pitcher in major league history to make a scoreless appearance of at least 6.0+ innings against the Mariners, first since CHC Jon Lester (6.0IP) on Sept. 3, 2019 at Wrigley Field…joined Lester (5x), Blake Snell (twice) and Dana Eveland (once).
- On Aug. 2 vs. TOR, lost at Tropicana Field for the first time in 18 career appearances (11GS) and lost at home for the first time in 32 career appearances (11GS) between the Brewers and Rays…his only run allowed in 6.0 innings was a two-out, RBI single by Bo Bichette in the 1st inning.
- Over two starts from Aug. 7-14 at DET, vs. BAL, yielded three baserunners in 11.1 innings and opponents went 1-for-36 against him…his baserunners reached on an E4, double and strikeout/wild pitch…the double ended a streak of 11 straight hitless innings, which tied Steve Geltz from June 6-24, 2015 for the longest streak in club history.
- On Aug. 14 vs. BAL, retired his first 24 batters faced and carried a perfect game into the 9th inning, broken up on a Jorge Mateo double…matched a combined effort by Ryne Stanek (2.0 IP) and Ryan Yarbrough (6.0IP) on July 14, 2019 at BAL for the longest perfect game bid in franchise history, both broken up on the first pitch of the 9th inning…passed Chris Archer (6.1IP) on July 29, 2015 vs. DET for the longest individual perfect game bid in franchise history…his bid for his first career shutout ended on a run-scoring wild pitch in the 9th, and his bid for a complete game ended when he was replaced after Brett Phillips reached on a strikeout/wild pitch on his 87th pitch.
- Went a career-high 8.1 innings, passing his previous high from June 4 vs. CWS (7.0IP)…became the seventh pitcher (8th time) in club history to go 8.0+ innings and allow one hit or fewer, first since Drew Smyly (8.0IP) on April 19, 2016 at BOS and first at home since Matt Garza's no-hitter on July 26, 2010 vs. DET…became the third Ray to go 8.0+ innings, allow one hit or fewer and no walks, following James Shields (9.0 IP) on May 9, 2008 vs. LAA and Ryan Rupe (9.0 IP) on May 23, 1999 vs. ANA.

X-RAY REPORT

- By making his major league debut on July 30, 2021, Manuel became the first Yucatán-born pitcher in major league history…he spent three seasons in his hometown of Merida playing for Leones de Yucatán in the Mexican League before signing with the Cubs in 2016.
- Manuel's father, Manuel Sr., played in men's baseball leagues in Merida and inspired his son to pick up the sport…the younger Manuel would accompany his father to the park every Sunday and the two would often play catch…when his father was busy working as a taxi driver, Manuel's mother, Rocío Caamal, would throw with him…he began playing organized baseball at the age of 10.
- After signing Manuel in 2012, Leones de Yucatán wanted to send him to a baseball academy in Monterrey, over 1,200 miles from his family Merida…his father left the decision to Manuel's mother…when Manuel looked his mother in the eyes and told her he wanted to go, she said, "Yo no te traje al mundo paracortarte las alas," which translates to, "I didn't bring you into this world to clip your wings."
- He credits his father for teaching him how to throw a slider…it was the first pitch Manuel learned to throw.

2023 SEASON

- Made 15 relief appearances for Triple-A Durham after being acquired from the Cubs on Aug. 1… went 2-0 with a 3.06 ERA (17.2IP, 6ER) and one save for the Bulls…was on the 7-day injured list from Aug. 23-30.
- Prior to the trade, made 35 appearances with Triple-A Iowa, going 2-4 with a 4.42 ERA (38.2IP, 19ER) while recording 13 saves in 14 opportunities…the 13 saves led all Cubs farmhands and his 14 saves overall were tied for second most in the International League.
- Across 50 appearances, held right-handed batters to a .182/.298/.240 (22-for-121) line compared to .355/.410/.538 (33-for-93) against left-handed hitters.
- In 15 appearances from June 7–July 29, went 1-2 with a 2.16 ERA (16.2IP, 4ER), striking out 28 batters against two walks during that stretch.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In 2022, made 14 relief appearances for the Cubs, going 2-0 with a 3.29 ERA (13.2IP, 5ER) and converting four saves in six opportunities.
- Allowed one run or fewer in all 14 of his outings, including a stretch from Sept. 12–Oct. 1 during which he allowed one run across 6.2 IP while holding opponents to a 2-for-20 (.100) clip.
- Began the season with Iowa and made two appearances before being placed on the 7-day IL on April 13…was recalled and placed on the 60-day IL with a right elbow strain on June 1.
- On Aug. 31 at TOR, recorded his first win of the season (2.0IP, SO)…the 2.0 innings matched a career high (4x, last: 9/23/22 at PIT).
- On Aug. 26 at MIL, earned a save in his season debut with the Cubs (1.0IP, 2H, 1R, 0ER, BB, SO).
- On Sept. 27-28 vs. PHI, recorded saves in consecutive outings for the first time in his career.

- In 2021, made 20 appearances with the Cubs, going 3-3 with a 6.11 ERA (17.2IP, 12ER) and one save…placed on the 10-day IL with right shoulder inflammation on Sept. 17 and missed the remainder of the season.
- On July 30, was recalled from Iowa and made his major league debut vs. WSH (1.0IP, 2SO).
- Posted a 0.75 ERA (12.0IP, 1ER) across 11 appearances from Aug. 5–Sept. 5.
- On Aug. 4 at COL, registered his first career save (1.0IP, 1H, 1SO).
- On Aug. 18 at CIN, recorded his first career win (2.0IP, BB, 3SO).
- Made 20 appearances between Double-A Tennessee and Iowa, going 1-1 with a 1.31 ERA (20.2IP, 3ER) and five saves.
- Pitched for the NL in the SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game, throwing a scoreless inning.
- Did not pitch in 2020 due to a right bicep strain suffered on March 1 during spring training.
- In 2019, went 1-3 with a 3.45 ERA (47.0IP, 18ER) and two saves in 35 appearances with Class-A Myrtle Beach…was on the injured list from June 14-27 due to a right shoulder impingement.
- In 2018, went 3-5 with a 7.59 ERA (40.1IP, 34ER) and three saves in 32 appearances for Class-A South Bend…was on the injured list from May 30–July 3 with right biceps tendinitis.
- In 2017, went 1-0 with a 3.94 ERA (29.2IP, 13ER) in 16 appearances between Short-A Eugene and South Bend.
- Named Northwest League Pitcher of the Week for the week of July 3-9…struck out nine batters across 6.0 hitless innings over two relief outings.
- Following the season, went 1-2 with a 2.37 ERA (19.0IP, 5ER) in 15 appearances for Los Mochis in the Mexican Winter League.
- In 2016, went 1-0 with a 5.06 ERA (16.0IP, 9ER) in 19 appearances for Leones de Yucatán in the Mexican League…signed a minor league contract with the Cubs on July 21.
- In 2015, was the Mexican League Rookie of the Year and named to the Mexican League midseason All-Star Team…went 4-0 with a 1.84 ERA (49.0IP, 10ER) in 50 appearances for Leones de Yucatán.
- In 2014, allowed three runs across 2.2 innings in three appearances for Leones de Yucatán.

X-RAY REPORT

- Amed remains active in his hometown of Santo Domingo…he donate cleats, equipment and clothing to local children and is part of a group of major league players to help clean up beaches near the city over the last several offseasons… he has also helped underprivileged families by taking them on holiday shopping sprees.
- Amed is on the board of Players for the Planet, a non-profit that works to connect professional athletes, sports teams and organizations with actionable opportunities to serve and protect our natural world and environment…the organization hopes to transform the professional sports industry into a leading example of ecologically conscious, environmentally responsible and sustainable practices…more than 200 current and former pro athletes have joined the organization to date.
- He is the proud owner of 10 dogs, most of which are French bulldogs.
- Amed's brother-in-law is Twins infielder Willi Castro…the two battled several times as AL Central rivals—Willi was a member of the Tigers during Amed's stint with the Guardians.

2023 SEASON

- Hit .263/.305/.378 (134-for-510) with 25 2B, 8 3B, 6 HR and 58 RBI over 142 games between the Guardians (94G) and Dodgers (48G)…acquired by Los Angeles in a mid-season trade on July 26 in exchange for RHP Noah Syndergaard and cash considerations.
- Prior to the trade, made 88 starts at shortstop with the Guardians…after joining the Dodgers, started at both middle infield spots (2B-19GS, SS-7GS) including his first career action at second base…recorded -16 Defensive Runs Saved with Cleveland and 3 DRS with Los Angeles.
- Hit .321 (44-for-137) with runners in scoring position and .333 (18-for-54) with RISP/two outs.
- Batted .282 (51-for-181) with a .768 OPS against left-handed pitchers and .252 (83-for-329) with a .636 OPS vs. RHP.
- Posted a career-best 0.29 BB/SO ratio, surpassing his 2019 campaign (0.25)…his 5.3 pct. walk rate also marked a career high.
- Batted a combined .309 (68-for-188) over 47 games in June and July…entered that stretch with a .233 (47-for-202) average during the first two months of the season.
- From June 6 through his final game with Cleveland on July 25, his 55 hits ranked second in the AL behind teammate Josh Naylor (57H).
- On June 17 at AZ, matched a career high with five hits, all of which were singles…became the first Cleveland hitter to go 5-for-5 or better without an extra-base hit since Julio Franco on July 9, 1986 at CWS (also 5-for-5).
- On July 4 vs. ATL, went 3-for-5 with a season-high 4 RBI in a 6-5 Guardians win, marking his career-best fourth straight multi-RBI game… went 8-for-20 (.400) with 10 RBI during the run.
- On July 28 vs. CIN, went 2-for-4 in his Dodgers debut…doubled to the gap in left-center in the 4th inning and added an RBI-single in the 7th.
- After hitting .197 (14-for-71) in August, his first full calendar month with Los Angeles, posted a .306 (15-for-49) average over his final 21 games from Sept. 1 on…this includes a 9-for-19 (.474) clip vs. RHP in that span.
- On Sept. 17 vs. SEA, went 3-for-4 and finished a homer shy of the cycle in his first three-hit game as a Dodger.

- POSTSEASON: Was left off the Dodgers 26-man NLDS roster in favor of Kolten Wong.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Leads the majors with 39 triples since 2018…min. 350 AB, his .314 (132-for-421) average with RISP since 2021 is tied with TOR Bo Bichette for third best in the majors, trailing LAD Freddie Freeman (.373) and HOU Yordan Alvarez (.316).
- Since 2021, his 14 games with 4+ hits rank second in the majors behind LAD Freddie Freeman (15G)…also ranks among league leaders in 3+ hit games (3rd, 44G) during that span.
- In 2022, set career highs in runs (86), hits (180) and triples (9)…became the first Cleveland hitter to lead the majors in triples since Kenny Loften in 1995…paced the AL in singles (134) and ranked third in hits.
- His 4.2 bWAR marked a career high and ranked fourth among AL shortstops behind BOS Xander Bogaerts (5.8), MIN Carlos Correa (5.4) and HOU Jeremy Peña (4.8).
- Appeared in 153 games, including 139 starts (SS-139GS, LF-6GS, DH-6GS)…started in left field on Opening Day.
- Enjoyed the best defensive season of his career, recording 6 Defensive Runs Saved at shortstop after posting -9 DRS at the position in 2021.
- Recorded five games with 4+ hits for the second straight season, becoming the first batter in Guardians history with multiple seasons of at least five 4+ hit games.
- Collected 142 hits from June 1 on, tied with CWS Jose Abreu for the most in the AL over that timeframe.
- From June 5-18, recorded a career-long 12-game hitting streak, going 20-for-50 (.400).
- Over 27 games in June, hit .360 (41-for-114) with 7 2B, 2 3B, 2 HR and 21 RBI…the 41 hits led the majors and were the most by a Cleveland batter in June since Carlos Baerga (43) in 1995.
- On Aug. 3 vs. AZ, launched a career-long 450-foot three-run homer to center field off Tommy Henry.
- On Sept. 17 vs. MIN, recorded four hits in both ends of a doubleheader at Progressive Field, joining Earl Averill (May 7, 1933 vs. NYY) and Nap Lajoie (Oct. 9, 1910 at STB) as the only Clevelanders to record multiple 4+ hit games on the same day.
- POSTSEASON: Making his postseason debut, reached base safely in all seven of the Guardians postseason games, going 7-for-29 (.241)…hit a game-tying homer off NYY Nestor Cortes in Game 2 of the NLDS at Yankee Stadium.
- Became the fifth player in CLE history to reach safely in each of his first seven career postseason games, including the first since Carlos Santana from 2013-16 (7G)…only Kenny Lofton (12G, 1995) and Ryan Garko (9G, 2007) have posted longer streaks in club history.
- In 2021, hit .282 (155-for-550) with 25 2B, 6 3B, 11 HR and 57 RBI over 141 games in his first season with Cleveland…was on the bereavement list from Sept. 15-19 and the COVID-19-related IL from Sept. 20-24.
- Appeared in 142 games and made 135 starts (SS-118GS, CF-14GS, DH-3GS)…saw his first career starts in the outfield.
- Led the majors with six games of 4+ hits, most by a Cleveland hitter since Joe Carter (6G) in 1986.
- Slashed .313/.356/.483 (55-for-176) vs. LHP…min. 150 AB, recorded the sixth-best average against southpaws in the AL.
- Paced the AL in both average and hits (42-for-113) in August…also ranked among league leaders in total bases (4th, 66) and OPS (5th, .981) during the month.
- On Aug. 31 at KC, became the first player since RBI became an official stat in 1920 with 5+ hits, 5+ RBI, an inside-the-park HR and an over-the-fence HR in the same game…marked the first 5+ hit, 5+ RBI, 2+ HR game by an AL hitter since LAA Mike Trout on Sept. 8, 2018 at CWS and the sixth such game in Cleveland history.

X-RAY REPORT

- Austin grew up a Mariners fan and spent two seasons in the Seattle organization after the club drafted him in 2019…he is no stranger to the state of Florida, however, spending the final two seasons of his collegiate career at Miami's Florida International University.
- While awaiting a verdict on the postponed 2020 season, he built a small gym in his garage using equipment purchased on Craigslist and constructed a backyard batting cage with his dad…he also picked up cycling and went on daily rides to help stay in shape.
- Austin and Buffalo Bills safety Taylor Rapp have been friends since childhood…in May 2020, the two completed a 10,000-calorie workout challenge, biking 125 miles, hiking/running seven miles and swimming 1.25 miles…the workout lasted 17 hours and was completed in Rapp's girlfriend's backyard pool.
- During an intrasquad game at the Mariners alternate site in Tacoma in 2020, Austin made headlines after belting a 453-foot homer off George Kirby over the 29-foot wall in center field at Cheney Stadium…previously, the only documented homers to clear the wall had been hit by Jose Canseco, Jay Buhner, Shin-Soo Choo and A.J. Zapp…the stadium opened in 1960.
- Austin is big supporter of the Max Higbee Center, which supports teens and adults with developmental disabilities by providing social, recreational and learning opportunities in Bellingham, Washington…his brother, Ian, is a long-time member of the Center…upon receiving his signing bonus, Austin used part of the money to kickstart a GoFundMe that supported the Center's renovation efforts.

2023 SEASON

- Split the season between Double-A Montgomery and Triple-A Durham, batting a combined .304/.423/.584 (144-for-473)…paced all Rays farmhands in RBI (99), doubles (45), walks (94), total bases (276) and runs scored (102) while ranking second in OPS (1.007) and hits (144).
- His 45 doubles were tied with BAL Coby Mayo for the most in the minors while his 74 extra-base hits ranked second behind Mayo (77XBH)…the 74 XBH were the second most by a Rays farmhand in club history, trailing only Steve Cox (78XBH) in 1999.
- Named the Rays Minor League Co-Hitter of the Month and Southern League Player of the Month for June, batting .385 with 7 2B, 9 HR and 27 RBI in 25 games.
- At the time of his July 14 promotion to Durham, he sat atop the Southern League leaderboards in average (.307), slugging pct. (.567), OPS (.982) and doubles (21).
- From July 14 through the end of the season, he led the International League in total bases (132), extra-base hits (38) and runs scored (57)…finished the season batting .323/.506/.554 (21-for-65) over 19 games in September.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In 2022, was placed on the 7-day IL with a hip injury on June 28 and missed the remainder of the season…ranked by Baseball America as the No. 29 prospect in the Rays system following the season.

- Hit 11 HR in his first 35 games of the season…entered the year with 11 HR in 125 career games.
- On March 30 vs. DET, made his first career Opening Day start and scored the Rays first run of the season, a 393-foot solo homer in the 3rd inning.
- Hit safely in a career-best six straight games to open the season from March 30–April 7, batting .318 (7-for-22) with 2 2B, 2 HR and 8 RBI.
- Recorded an RBI in a career-best five straight games to open the season from March 30–April 5…became the first Ray with 5+ RBI within the club's first three games of a season since Carlos Peña in 2012 (also 5RBI).

- His 18 HR from May–July were tied for third most in the AL, trailing LAA Shohei Ohtani (32HR) and CWS Luis Robert Jr. (24HR).
- On May 12 vs. NYY, hit a solo homer off NYY Gerrit Cole in the 5th inning, ending Cole's 51.0 homerless inning streak to open the season…accomplished the feat again five days later at Tropicana Field, becoming the only player in the majors to hit multiple homers against the eventual AL Cy Young winner.
- On June 6 vs. MIN, his 457-foot home run marked the farthest homer by a Ray in 2023.
- On June 23 vs. KC, set season highs with three hits and 4 RBI (3-for-4, HR, 4 RBI, 2R).
- Struck out in 24 straight games from July 15–Aug. 15, marking the longest streak in franchise history, surpassing Evan Longoria (23G, July 6–Aug. 3, 2013)…marked the second-longest streak in the majors in 2023 behind SF Thairo Estrada (26G).
- On July 22 vs. BAL, went 2-for-4 with one double on his 28th birthday…was one of four Rays to record a hit on their birthday in 2023, joining Yandy Díaz (Aug. 8), Christian Bethancourt (Sept. 2) and Harold Ramírez (Sept. 6).
- POSTSEASON: Started Game 1 of the ALWC vs. Texas in center field…went 0-for-3 and committed a throwing error in the 6th inning.
- Following the season, played for Gigantes del Cibao in the Dominican Winter League for a seventh straight year…hit .231 (9-for-39) with 2 HR and 6 RBI in 13 games.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In 2022, was voted the club's Outstanding Rookie by the Tampa Bay Chapter of the BBWAA.
- Appeared in 56 games and made 49 starts, all in center field, for the Rays after being acquired on Aug. 1 in a three-team trade from the Astros.

X-RAY REPORT

- He and his wife, Bailey, got married in 2018…their son, Stetson, was born on Jan. 27, 2022.
- Jeffrey signed for the minimum $1,000 after the Rangers selected the senior pitcher in the 30th round of the 2015 First-Year Player Draft…he worked multiple part-time jobs during the minor league offseasons, including pitching lessons, landscaping and at the YMCA, where he used his employment for a free gym membership.
- Jeffrey's major league debut came on July 31, 2018 and he assumed he had been traded when he received a 2 p.m. call from the Rangers director of minor league operations…instead, he was informed of his call up and made it to the airport in time to debut that night.He grew up a Red Sox fan and enjoyed watching Pedro Martínez and Jason Varitek…his mother sent him a picture of a Red Sox keychain and gym bag she found in his room after he was traded from Texas to Boston in January 2020.

2023 SEASON

- Limited to only three starts after suffering a left elbow flexor strain on April 13 vs. BOS…it was originally thought to be a nerve issue, but further imaging revealed a "significant tear" in his ulnar collateral ligament…underwent Tommy John surgery on April 24 performed by Dr. Keith Meister.
- Signed a four-year, $31 million contract with the Rays on Jan. 25 following a breakout 2022 season.
- The Rays went 3-0 in his starts, outscoring opponents, 25-4 (+21).
- His 0.56 ERA (16.0IP, 1ER) was third lowest through a Rays pitcher's first three starts of a season (min. 10.0IP), trailing Tyler Glasnow in 2021 (0.46) and 2019 (0.53)…allowed only eight baserunners, tied for third fewest through any MLB pitcher's first three starts of a season since at least 1901 (min. 40BF) behind NYM Jacob DeGrom (7, 2022) and MIL Corbin Burnes (7, 2021).
- Made his fifth consecutive Opening Day roster and third with the Rays.
- On April 2 vs. DET, spun 6.0 hitless frames with a career-high 12 SO in his season debut…joined José Berríos as the only pitchers in the modern era (since 1900) to strike out 12+ batters over 6.0 or fewer hitless innings…joined Nathan Eovaldi (6.0IP - May 30, 2018 at OAK) and Matt Garza (9.0IP - July 26, 2010 vs. DET) as the only Rays pitchers to finish a game with 6.0+ hitless innings.
- On April 8 vs. OAK, logged a career-high 7.0 innings on only 89 pitches…entering the outing, he had never pitched into the 7th inning in any of his previous 28 career starts.
- Opened the season with a 13.0 scoreless inning streak before Rob Refsnyder's 1st-inning HR on April 13 vs. BOS…tied rotation-mate Drew Rasmussen for the third-longest streak by a Rays starting pitcher to open a season, trailing Mark Hendrickson (14.0IP, 2006) and Matt Moore (13.1IP, 2013)…it was also tied for ninth longest by any Rays pitcher to begin a season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In 2022, transitioned to the starting rotation in his second season with the Rays and enjoyed a breakout campaign…his last 24 appearances came as a starter.
- Min. 100 IP, ranked sixth in the AL with a 2.46 ERA behind HOU Justin Verlander (1.75), CWS Dylan Cease (2.20), TOR Alek Manoah (2.24), LAA Shohei Ohtani (2.33) and NYY Nestor Cortes (2.44)…was second in club history behind Blake Snell (1.89) in 2018.

> “He’s brought a considerable amount of persistence to his career. He just dominated [as a starter in 2022]. The success just continued to kind of snowball, and his confidence and everything else just came with it. It was a lot of fun to watch.”
> PITCHING COACH KYLE SNYDER
> Tampa Bay Times

- Allowed three runs or fewer in 22 of 25 starts and two runs or fewer 17 times.
- Went 6-3 with a 2.40 ERA (71.1IP, 19ER) in 14 starts after the All-Star break…yielded two runs or fewer in 10 of 14 starts and one run or fewer seven times…went 6-2 with a 2.18 ERA (62.0IP, 15ER) in 12 starts from Aug. 4 through season’s end.
- Went 4-2 with a 2.23 ERA (60.2IP, 15ER) in 16 appearances (11GS) at Tropicana Field…min. 10 starts, ranked fifth in the AL in home ERA.
- Opponents hit .192 (20-for-104) against him with RISP, ninth lowest in the AL (min. 100 AB).
- According to FanGraphs, induced a swing on 38.9 pct. of pitches outside of the strike zone, third in the majors (min. 100.0 IP) behind TOR Kevin Gausman (42.7 pct.) and LAD Tyler Anderson (39.1 pct.) and the highest in franchise history.
- Used his changeup for 34.7 pct. of his pitches, second in the majors (min. 1,500 pitches) behind MIA Pablo López (35.3 pct.)…opponents hit .229 (53-for-231) with a .320 SLG in at-bats ending with the changeup.
- Induced a swing-and-miss on 38.1 pct. of swings against the changeup and 92.9 pct. (65 of 70) of his strikeouts with it came on whiffs…the 70 strikeouts with the changeup ranked fourth in the majors.
- His 1.44 ERA (31.1IP, 5ER) in September was the third lowest in club history (min. 25.0 IP) behind Jake Odorizzi (1.03) in 2017 and Blake Snell (1.26) in 2018…went 3-0 in six starts and limited opponents to a .192 avg. (23-for-120) with 8 XBH.
- Missed time while on the COVID-19 Related IL (close contact) on April 24, Family Medical Emergency List from June 30–July 4 and 15-day IL (right lower leg tightness) from July 10-23.
- Eight of his first nine appearances through May 3 came out of the bullpen, starting a bullpen day on April 28 vs. SEA (2.2 IP) over that stretch…threw 3.1 relief innings on May 3 at OAK before officially joining the starting rotation on May 9 at LAA.
- Became a regular member of a starting rotation for the first time since 2017, when he spent the entire season with Class-A Down East and his first 17 appearances came as a starter, going 1-8 with a 4.60 ERA (90.0IP, 46ER) in that role…transitioned to the Down East bullpen on July 26 that season.
- Made his fourth straight Opening Day roster.
- On Opening Day vs. BAL, struck out the side in a perfect 7th inning…marked his first appearance in the majors since July 31, 2021 vs. BOS.
- On July 5 at BOS, returned from the Family Medical Emergency List and faced the Red Sox, for whom he pitched for in 2020, as a starter for the first time…went 4.0 innings and all three runs allowed were on homers, yielding a 2-run shot to Xander Bogaerts and solo homer to Trevor Story.
- On July 24 at KC, returned from the injured list (right lower leg tightness) and allowed a career-high eight hits in his first start since July 5 at BOS…the Rays lost in one of his starts for the first time since May 27, ending a six-game winning streak.
- On Sept. 13 at TOR (G1), pitched 6.0 scoreless innings and extended his scoreless streak to 16.2 IP…became the fifth traditional starter in club history to make three straight scoreless starts in a single season (without a relief appearance in between), joining Rich Hill in 2021, Tyler Glasnow in 2019, Jake Odorizzi in 2016 and Alex Cobb in 2014.
- On Sept. 18 vs. TEX, allowed a solo homer in the 2nd inning and snapped a career-long scoreless streak at 17.2 innings…defeated the Rangers, who selected him in the 30th round of the 2015 First-Year Player Draft, for the first time in his career.

- POSTSEASON: Was on the roster for the ALWC at Cleveland but did not pitch…would have started had the Rays forced Game 3.
- On Jan. 25, 2023, signed a four-year, $31 million contract through the 2026 season, including a club option for 2027…the pact is worth up to $65.75 million if the club option is exercised, innings pitched incentives are reached and Cy Young Award bonuses are triggered.
- In 2021, led the team with 43 appearances until suffering a season-ending knee injury on July 31 vs. BOS.
- Attempts to rehab the injury resulted in continued discomfort…underwent surgery on Aug. 16 to reconstruct a torn ACL in his right knee, performed by Dr. Koco Eaton in St. Petersburg.
- On April 18 at NYY, recorded his first career save with a perfect 9th inning…became the fourth Ray to record his first career save at Yankee Stadium, joining Adam Kolarek in 2018, Jake Odorizzi in 2013 and Jeff Sparks in 1999.
- In 2020, acquired by the Red Sox prior to spring training and made 16 appearances over two stints in the majors…was on the active roster from Opening Day–Aug. 10 and Aug. 22–Sept. 25.
- In 2019, made 25 appearances over three stints with the Rangers, including his first career Opening Day roster…his four wins ranked second among Rangers relievers…was on the injured list for more than two months for left shoulder inflammation.
- Totaled eight appearances (2GS) in the minors between his option to Triple-A Nashville and rehab…went 3-0 with a 3.00 ERA (9.0IP, 3ER).
- Reinstated from the 60-day IL on Sept. 1 and spent the rest of the season in the majors.
- Began the 2018 season with Double-A Frisco and ended it in the majors…selected to the active roster on July 31 and remained with the Rangers through the end of the season…made 18 appearances (2GS), with both starts coming from the opener role.
- On July 31 at AZ, made his major league debut and his only run allowed in 2.0 innings came on a run-scoring wild pitch in the 6th inning.
- On Sept. 23 vs. SEA, pitched two scoreless innings to record his first career win.

X-RAY REPORT

- In Game 7 of the 2022 Japan Series, Jacob closed out a 5-4 victory for the Orix Buffaloes over the Tokyo Yakult Swallows...it marked the franchise's first championship since Ichiro Suzuki led the club, then known as the BlueWave, to the title in 1996...the Game 7 save was one of three earned by Jacob during the championship series.
- After posting a 5.77 ERA in his final season with Orix, he temporarily moved to Charlotte, North Carolina this past offseason to live near the Tread Athletics facility...Jacob worked under former Rays minor leaguer Tyler Zombro, ironing out his mechanics while continuing to push the intensity level of his training...his hard work was rewarded when the Rays invited him to Spring Training in mid-January.
- He and his wife, Leslie, were married in early 2023 and are expecting their first child in June.

2023 SEASON

- Went 4-7 with a 5.77 ERA (43.2IP, 28ER) and two saves across 31 appearances in his second consecutive season with the Orix Buffaloes in the Nippon Professional Baseball Organization.
- Made five appearances with their minor league club, surrendering two runs over 13.0 innings.
- Signed a minor league contract with with the Rays with a non-roster invitation to Spring Training on Jan. 15, 2024...selected to the 40-man roster on March 15.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In 2022, went 2-6 with a 2.97 ERA (72.2IP, 24ER) in 32 appearances for Orix.
- Made three appearances for the minor league club, allowing two runs (one earned) on four hits with 17 strikeouts across 12.0 innings.
- In 2021, made 24 appearances (10GS) for Triple-A Buffalo, going 7-2 with a 2.86 ERA (69.1IP, 22ER) and one save...the seven wins were tied for fifth most among Blue Jays farmhands.
- On Dec. 17, signed with the Orix Buffaloes.
- In 2020, made 11 appearances for Toronto over five stints in the majors, posting an 8.15 ERA (17.2IP, 16ER)...was in the big leagues from July 23–Aug. 18, Aug. 19-21, Aug. 23–Sept. 1, Sept. 11-12 and Sept. 16–season's end...placed on the injured list with a left back strain on Sept. 17 and missed the remainder of the season.
- In his first four appearances from July 28–Aug. 7, tossed 5.1 scoreless innings...in his final seven outings from Aug. 12–Sept. 16, posted an 11.68 ERA (12.1IP, 16ER).
- In 2019, went 5-5 with a 4.38 ERA (78.0IP, 38ER) in 16 appearances (13GS) in his first major league action with Toronto.
- On May 27 at TB, made his MLB debut and tossed 4.0 relief innings, allowing three runs (2ER) on three hits and one walk with seven strikeouts...the seven strikeouts set a franchise record for the most punchouts by a Toronto reliever in his MLB debut...it marked the fifth time in club history a pitcher debuted with 4.0+ innings of relief...only twice in MLB history had a pitcher debuted with more than seven strikeouts in relief: PIT Barry Jones (8SO) on April 20, 1986 at CHC (4.0IP) and HOU Joe Musgrove (8SO) on Aug. 2, 2016 vs TOR (4.1 IP).
- On July 3 vs. BOS, earned his first career win (5.0IP, 6H, 3ER, 4SO).

- On July 16 at BOS, made his first career start (4.2IP, 6H, 4ER, 3BB, 2SO).
- On Aug. 22 at LAD, tossed a career-high 7.0 innings, allowing one hit and one walk while fanning five batters.
- In 2018, acquired by Toronto from Philadelphia on July 31 in exchange for LHP Aaron Loup.
- Went 6-10 with a 4.80 ERA (122.0IP, 65ER) in 28 appearances (21GS) between the Phillies and Blue Jays systems.
- In 2017, split the season between Class-A Clearwater and Double-A Reading, going 9-7 with a 3.42 ERA (105.1IP, 40ER) across 31 appearances (16GS).

OPENING DAY AGE 27	MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE 1 year, 92 days
BORN 7/10/96 in Cordele, GA	RESIDES Cordele, GA
CONTRACT STATUS Signed through 2023	SIGNING SCOUT Brett Foley (Rays)
ACQUIRED Selected in the third round of the 2017 First-Year Player Draft

X-RAY REPORT

- Taylor began a postgame journaling routine during the second half of the 2022 season with help from Justin Su'a, performance development specialist for the Rays…he takes a few minutes at the end of each day to transfer his thoughts to paper, during which he answers three questions: What did I do well today? What did I learn today? What am I going to do better tomorrow?
- Taylor ordered hats for Rays teammates with the logo of his dad's business, Walls Well Drilling Inc. …his great grandfather started the company and it has remained in the family, and went by Walls & Sons when his grandpa owned it and employed Taylor's father and uncle.
- He and his wife, Hallie, welcomed daughter, Sutton Grace, on April 25, 2021 and celebrated the birth of their son, Davis Nolan, this past offseason…the couple has a golden retriever named Maverick…the two met at Florida State… Hallie first saw Taylor while attending a FSU baseball game with her mom.
- Although he goes by Taylor, Davis is a family name…several generations of men in his family have shared the name before him.
- His hobbies include video games, hunting and both nerf and classic basketball…he has also been known to enjoy a friendly game of ping pong in the clubhouse.
- His hometown of Cordele is known as the watermelon capital of the world…converted school buses hauling thousands of watermelons were a common sight in the summertime.

2023 SEASON

- Appeared in 99 games and made 87 starts (2B-33G, SS-28G, 3B-26G)…was on the 10-day IL with a left oblique strain from July 22–Sept. 1.
- Set career highs in RBI (36) and SB (22) while his 8 HR matched a career high set in 2022.
- Became the fifth player (15th instance) in Rays history to steal 20+ bases before the All-Star break…on the season, recorded a team-leading five multi-steal games, ahead of Randy Arozarena (4G).
- Stole 22 bases in 23 attempts (95.7 SB%)…the 95.7 pct. success rate was the highest mark in club history (min. 20 attempts).
- Despite being limited to 99 games due to injury, his 10 Defensive Runs Saved tied for seventh most among AL infielders.
- Made his second straight Opening Day roster, both with the Rays.
- Hit .412 (14-for-34) with 4 2B, 1 3B, 2 HR and 8 RBI against left-handed pitching from Opening Day–May 27…during that stretch, led AL hitters vs. LHP (min. 30PA) in OPS (1.238) and slugging pct. (.765) while ranking fifth in average…from May 31–end of the season, hit .152 (7-for-46) with 1 XBH (2B) and 3 RBI vs. LHP.
- Had three games with 3+ hits within his first 31 games of the season…entered the season with no such performances in 196 career games.
- Hit safely in a career-best six straight games from April 1-12.
- Joined Luke Raley as the only Rays to have both a triple and home run in multiple games (April 18 at CIN & May 14 at NYY)…they became the first Rays to accomplish the feat since Steven Souza Jr. had two such performances in 2017.
- Was the only Ray in 2023 to steal multiple bases in back-to-back games (May 25-26)…was the first Ray to do so since Randy Arozarena (2G) from June 28-29, 2022.

- On April 18 at CIN, joined Rocco Baldelli (Sept. 14, 2006 at NYY) and Mike Zunino (Sept. 7, 2021 at BOS) as the only players in club history to record a triple and 2+ HR in the same game…became the fourth player (fifth instance) in Rays history to homer from both sides of the plate in the same game, and the first since Ben Zobrist (April 13, 2014 at TEX).
- On April 30 at CWS, became the second Rays hitter with 4+ hits, a HR and 2+ SB in a game, joining Carl Crawford on May 24, 2006 at Toronto (5H, HR, 4SB).
- On May 14 at NYY, hit his first career grand slam off Albert Abreu.
- POSTSEASON: Started both games of the ALWC vs. Texas…went 2-for-4 in Game 1 and 0-2 in Game 2 before being replaced by Junior Caminero.

> He's a future Gold Glover. Day in and day out, the plays he makes, the consistency, the range he has. It really is unbelievable. [Highlight reel plays] are kind of expected because he's done it so much.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In 2022, appeared in 142 games and made 122 starts (80-SS, 22-2B, 20-3B) in his first full season in the majors…led the team with 19 Defensive Runs Saved, which tied for third among MLB infielders behind PIT Ke'Bryan Hayes (24) and COL Brendan Rodgers (22)…was the most among AL infielders over CLE Andrés Giménez (17).
- Had 11 Defensive Runs Saved at shortstop, tied for fourth in the majors…had 5 Defensive Runs Saved at third base and 3 DRS at second base.
- Min. 300 AB, his .172 avg. was the second lowest in the majors, ahead of NYY/LAD Joey Gallo (.160)…was the lowest mark in franchise history, passing Carlos Peña (.196) in 2010…hit .110 (24-for-219) on the road, the lowest avg. in the majors and the lowest in club history (min. 100 AB).
- Was one of four players from the Opening Day roster to remain active all season, joining Jason Adam, Randy Arozarena and Corey Kluber.
- Made the first Opening Day roster of his career.
- On April 30 vs. MIN, hit a solo homer in the 2nd inning, snapping homerless droughts of 54 games and 145 AB…the homer was the second of his career and first since June 9, 2021 vs. WSH.
- On June 7 vs. STL, hit a three-run homer off Drew VerHagen in the 10th inning for the first walk-off hit of his career…entered the at-bat with a .147 avg., the lowest season avg. before hitting a walk-off homer (min. 100PA) since MTL Nate Colbert (.143) on Aug. 2, 1975 vs. PHI, according to Stats LLC, and the fourth lowest since 1901.
- On Sept. 17 vs. TEX, homered as a right-handed batter for the first time in his career, hitting a solo shot off Taylor Hearn in the 5th inning.
- On Sept. 30 at HOU, hit a solo homer off Phil Maton in the 8th inning as the Rays clinched a Wild Card berth…homered on the road for the first time, ending a streak of 8 HR at home to start his career…ended a drought of 286 road at-bats without a homer to start his career.
- POSTSEASON: Appeared in both games of the ALWC at Cleveland, including a Game 1 start at second base…was used as a pinch-hitter in Game 2 and stayed in the game at third base.
- In 2021, appeared in 54 games and made 44 starts over three stints with the Rays: May 22–July 23, Sept. 1-6 and Sept. 11-20…his first stint began after Willy Adames was traded to the Brewers and included a minimum stay on the 10-day IL due to right wrist tendinitis.
- Despite only 54 games at the MLB level, his 10 Defensive Runs Saved tied for third among major league shortstops behind HOU Carlos Correa (20) and MIN Andrelton Simmons (15).
- On May 22 at TOR, made his major league debut as the starting shortstop and doubled in the 5th and 9th innings, becoming the sixth Ray with multiple hits in his major league debut and first with multiple extra-base hits…became the third switch-hitter in the modern era (since 1900) to record an extra-base hit from each side of the plate in his major league debut, according to the Elias Sports Bureau, following MIN Rich Becker on Sep 10, 1993 at TEX and TEX George Wright on April 10, 1982 at CLE.
- On June 9 vs. WSH, hit his first career home run, a solo shot off Kyle Finnegan.
- Named Minor League Defensive Player of the Year by the Rays Baseball Operations department, the third straight minor league season he won the award (2018-19)…had a .972 fielding pct. in 52 games for Durham and played three infield positions: shortstop, second base and third base.

- Ranked by Baseball America as the Best Defensive Shortstop in Triple-A East in its Best Tools survey.
- In 2020, was part of the Rays 60-man player pool and spent the summer at the alternate training site in Port Charlotte.
- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 15 prospect in the Rays system following the season…the publication also tabbed him as the Best Defensive Infielder and Best Infield Arm in the organization.
- In 2019, named Defensive Player of the Year by the Rays Baseball Operations department for a second straight year…recorded a .972 fielding pct. between Class-A Charlotte and Double-A Montgomery, earning a June 25 promotion.
- Hit a combined .270/.343/.452 (99-for-367) with 10 HR, 46 RBI and 28 SB between the two levels.
- Named to the Florida State League midseason All-Star Team.
- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 19 prospect in the Rays system following the season…the publication also tabbed him as having the Best Strike-Zone Discipline in the FSL in its Best Tools survey.
- In 2018, named to the Midwest League midseason All-Star Team…ranked second in the MWL with 87 runs and third with 142 hits.
- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 21 prospect in the Rays system following the season…the publication also tabbed him as the Best Defensive Shortstop in the MWL in its Best Tools survey.

X-RAY REPORT

- Colby and his high school sweetheart, Morgan, were married during the offseason…the couple is expecting their first child in October.
- After transferring to Mississippi State, Colby earned the nickname "Night Night" because he put batters to bed…had 48 strikeouts in 26.0 innings while serving as a set-up man in the Bulldogs bullpen.
- He weighed 140 pounds when he graduated high school and his only scholarship offer was from Pearl River (Miss.) Community College… he gained weight, confidence and velocity with the Wildcats, occasionally breaking 90 mph as a freshman to reaching 100 at Mississippi State.
- He hosts the "Brushing 'Em Back with Colby White" podcast, which attempts to provide a "fresh look" at a classic game…each episode is an open discussion about not just the game of baseball but the avenues taken by so many to achieve the highest level of success in the sport.

2023 SEASON

- Opened the season on the 7-day IL while rehabbing from Tommy John surgery…began a rehab assignment with the FCL Rays on June 6, his first action since Oct. 3, 2021…posted a 1.74 ERA (10.1IP, 2ER) in 11 appearances (5GS) with the FCL Rays.
- On Aug. 4, transferred to Bowling Green and made five relief appearances with the Hot Rods, pitching to a 3.60 ERA (5.0IP, 2ER).
- On Aug. 22, promoted Montgomery and made eight relief appearances to conclude the season… threw 6.2 scoreless innings for the Biscuits while fanning eight batters.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Underwent Tommy John surgery on April 4, 2022, performed by Dr. Koco Eaton…was added to the Rays 40-man roster following the season.
- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 20 prospect in the Rays system following the season.
- In 2021, named Minor League Reliever of the Year by the Rays Baseball Operations department…went 4-3 with a 1.44 ERA (62.1IP, 10ER) and in 43 games (1GS) between four levels…his 11 saves led all Rays farmhands.
- Began the season with Class-A Charleston… promoted on June 10 to Class-A Bowling Green, Aug. 10 to Double-A Montgomery and Sept. 9 to Triple-A Durham.
- Named to the Rays Organizational All-Star Team by MLB.com.
- Ranked by Baseball America as the No. 15 prospect in the Rays system following the season.
- In 2020, was not part of the Rays 60-man player pool and did not play following the cancellation of the minor league season.
- In 2019, began his professional career with Rookie-level Hudson Valley.

AMATEUR CAREER

- Selected by the Rays in the sixth round of the 2019 First-Year Player Draft out of Mississippi State…worked as a late-inning reliever as a junior in 2019, going 3-1 with a 3.12 ERA (26.0IP, 9ER) with 48 strikeouts over 27 appearances.
- Began his collegiate career at Pearl River (Miss.) CC…as a sophomore in 2018, named the team's most valuable pitcher.

162 LANDING

In 2012, the Rays introduced a new seating area to commemorate the team's dramatic clinching of the 2011 AL Wild Card in Game 162, the final day the regular season. The Seminole Hard Rock Tampa 162 Landing is located off Left Field Street at the point where Evan Longoria's 12th-inning walk-off home run landed, clinching the Rays third postseason berth. The entrance to the area is open to the public, and includes a time-line chronicling the events at Tropicana Field and Oriole Park at Camden Yards from that historic evening. The area also features a screen with video highlights and interviews, as well as unique photos and displays, all surrounding Game 162.

ALL-STAR GAMES

The 2024 All-Star Game will be held on Tuesday, July 16 at Globe Life Field in Arlington. It is the second time the Rangers have hosted the Midsummer Classic (1995). The Rays are the only current club yet to host one.

The pandemic-shortened 2020 season was the first summer in 75 years without an All-Star Game. In 1945, no Midsummer Classic was played due to World War II.

The 2025 All-Star Game will be played at Truist Park in Atlanta.

EXTRA! EXTRA!

In February 2023, Major League Baseball's joint Competition Committee unanimously voted that extra-inning games in the regular season will begin each half-inning in extras with a runner on second base. The runner placed on second base at the start of each half-inning is the player (or a substitute for such player) in the batting order immediately preceding that half-inning's leadoff hitter. The rule was originally in place on a temporary basis for the 2020-22 seasons.

2023 | Did not pitch after undergoing arthroscopic surgery on his right shoulder in early April…was acquired by the Rangers from the Braves on Nov. 9, 2022 in exchange for LHP Kolby Allard and cash considerations.

2022 | Combined to go 6-6 with a 4.40 ERA (106.1 IP, 52ER) over 22 starts with HOU and ATL…missed nearly two months on the IL from May 17–July 23 with left lower leg discomfort…was 3-2 with a 3.13 ERA (31.2 IP, 11ER) in seven starts prior to the injury, then went 3-4 with a 4.94 ERA (74.2 IP, 41ER) over his final 15 starts following his return.

2021 | Made 23 appearances (22GS)…signed with the Astros during Spring Training and opened the year at extended Spring Training…had a pair of IL stints: April 26–May 29 (right pronator muscle strain) and Sept. 14-26 (right foot soreness)…went 2-1 with a 3.07 ERA (41.0IP, 14ER) over his final nine outings.

2020 | Began the year on the 10-day IL with a right intercostal strain…pitched in intrasquad games at the Twins Alternate Site and was activated on Aug. 8…placed on the 10-day IL from Aug. 22–Sept. 15 (chest contusion) after being struck in the chest by an Alex Gordon line drive on Aug. 21 at KC… exited his final start on Sept. 16 at CWS with a right middle finger blister.

2019 | Earned his first career All-Star selection, but did not pitch in Cleveland due to injury…went 15-7 with a 3.51 ERA (159.0IP, 62ER) while setting career highs in wins, SO (178), opp. SLG (.371), opp. OPS (.671), SO/9.0 IP (10.08) and SO/BB ratio (3.36)… was on the 10-day IL from July 3-12 (right middle finger blister).

2018 | Went 7-10 with a 4.49 ERA (164.1IP, 82ER) over 32 starts in his first season with the Twins… made his first career Opening Day start…went 3-2 with a 3.17 ERA (54.0IP, 19ER) in his first 10 starts to open the season…traded by the Rays to Minnesota on Feb. 17, 2018 in exchange for SS Jermaine Palacios.

2017 | Opened the season as the Rays No. 2 starter, making 28 starts despite a pair of stints on the injured list: April 16-30 (left hamstring strain) and July 25–Aug. 8 (lower back strain)…his 1.03 ERA (26.1IP, 3ER) in five September starts was third lowest in the AL.

2016 | Established career bests in starts (33) and innings (187.2)…went 7-1 with a 2.71 ERA (83.0IP, 25ER) in 14 starts following the All-Star break—in all of MLB, the only two pitchers that matched his combination of winning pct. (.875) and ERA in that span were CLE Corey Kluber and CHC Jon Lester.

2015 | His 28 starts were second most on the Rays behind Chris Archer (34) while his 3.35 ERA (169.1IP, 63ER) ranked eighth in the AL…was one of five AL pitchers to maintain an ERA below 3.50 over the entire season…spent five weeks on the injured list from June 6–July 11 (left oblique strain).

2014 | Named the Rays Outstanding Rookie by the Tampa Bay chapter of the BBWAA…led MLB rookies in SO (174) and starts (31) while ranking second in innings (168.0)…joined Scott Kazmir (2005) as the only Rays in franchise history to lead rookies in strikeouts.

2013 | In his first season in the Rays organization, had five stints in the majors: May 20-29, June 11-14, June 18-19, Aug. 29-30 and Sept. 20–end of season… finished third in the International League and second in the Rays system with 124 SO…acquired by the Rays on Dec. 9, 2012 as part of a seven-player trade involving RHP James Shields.

2012 | Saw his first major league action after being selected to the Royals roster on Sept. 16…made two starts, both vs. CLE…named Pitcher of the Year for Triple-A Omaha after opening the season with Double-A Northwest Arkansas…went a combined 15-5 with a 3.03 ERA (145.1IP, 49ER) in 26 games (25GS)…started for the U.S. team in the Futures Game on July 8 at Kauffman Stadium.

2011 | Opened the season with Class-A Wilmington, making 15 starts before a July 1 promotion to Double-A Northwest Arkansas, where he made 12 starts to finish the season… named Wilmington's Pitcher of the Year as well as a Carolina League midseason All-Star.

2010 | Named the Brewers Minor League Pitcher of the Year in his first full professional season…spent the entire season with Class-A Wisconsin, earning mid-season Midwest League All-Star honors while leading the circuit with 10.1 SO/9.0 IP.

2009 | Spent the season with Rookie-level Helena.

7-INNING DOUBLEHEADERS

On July 31, 2020, Major League Baseball and the MLBPA announced that both games of doubleheaders would be seven innings in length for the remainder of the season. This agreement remained in effect for the 2021 season. Prior to 2020, the Rays had only played four games that lasted fewer than 8½ innings, all ending early due to rain, and all losses: July 23, 2010 at CLE (7), Sep 12, 2009 at BOS (5½), May 12, 2005 at KC (6½) and June 21, 2003 at FLA (5½).

MAJOR LEAGUE WAIVER RULES

There are two types of waiver requests: outright waivers and unconditional release waivers. Both types are irrevocable. Outright waivers are required for a major league club to assign a player outright to a minor league club. Unconditional release waivers can be secured at any point during the year to release a player. After the trade deadline, the only way clubs can acquire major league players until after the World Series is through waiver claims—a new rule introduced in 2019.

PITCH TIMER

In September 2022, MLB announced three rule changes beginning with the 2023 season. They introduced a pitch timer, shift restrictions and bigger bases, each of which had been tested in over 8,000 minor league games. The pitch timer is set at 15 seconds with the bases empty. New for 2024, the timer will be set at 18 seconds with runners on base, reduced from 20 seconds in 2023. Hitters will receive one timeout per plate appearance and the pitcher can step off the rubber twice.

INSTANT REPLAY

The first decade (2014-23) of expanded instant replay have allowed MLB to get more calls correct, especially in key, game-changing situations. Over these 10 years, the overall timing of instant replay has been reduced from 1:46 in 2014 to 1:26 in 2023. Of 1,390 reviews in the 2023 regular season, there were 365 "confirmed" (26.3 pct.), 378 "stands" (27.2 pct.) and 630 "overturned" (45.3 pct.). An additional 17 were "rules check" or "record keeping."

THREE-BATTER MINIMUM

Beginning in 2020, the starting pitcher and any relief pitcher must pitch to a minimum of three batters, until the batters are retired or reach base, or until the half-inning is over. An exception exists if the substitute pitcher sustains injury or illness which, in the Crew Chief's judgment, incapacitates him from pitching. This rule was created in an effort to reduce the number of pitching changes and, in turn, cut down the average game time.

RAYS & MLB VISIT CUBA

On March 20-22, 2016, the Rays traveled to Havana, Cuba, after being selected via lottery to be the first Major League Baseball team to visit Cuba since the 1999 Orioles. The voyage coincided with the historic diplomatic visit of President Barack Obama, the first sitting U.S. President to visit Cuba since Calvin Coolidge in 1928. Among the 55,000 in attendance at Estadio Latinoamericano for the March 21 contest were many dignitaries, including President Obama and the First Lady, Cuban President Raúl Castro, Cuban-born stars Luis Tiant and José Cardenal, MLB Commissioner Rob Manfred, Derek Jeter and Joe Torre. The Rays defeated the Cuban National Team, 4-1.

DID YOU KNOW?

LET'S PLAY TWO!

The Rays have played 40 doubleheaders in club history, going 8-14-18 (W-L-T). They are 3-4-7 in traditional doubleheaders and 5-10-11 in split doubleheaders. The eight times they swept a doubleheader: July 17, 2023 at KC; July 2, 2022 at TOR; July 7, 2021 vs. CLE; September 17, 2020 at BAL; May 1, 2014 at BOS; June 24, 2012 at PHI; April 28, 2011 at MIN and Septemer 23, 2008 at BAL.

Five of these doubleheaders occurred at Tropicana Field, all of them traditional. The Rays have split four of these and swept one.

- The first Tropicana Field doubleheader, September 30, 2004 vs. DET, was a result of games rescheduled due to Hurricane Frances four weeks prior. They lost the first game, 8-0, and won the second, 6-4.
- On June 10, 2017 vs. OAK, the Rays hosted MLB's first scheduled twin bill since July 16, 2011 (Angels at Athletics). They won the first game, 6-5, on a 10th-inning walk-off single by Evan Longoria. Forty minutes later, they began the next game, a 7-2 loss.
- On September 3, 2019 vs. BAL, the series finale was moved up a day as part of a doubleheader as Hurricane Dorian approached. The Rays lost the first game, 4-2, and won the second, 2-0.
- On August 8, 2020 vs. NYY, a schedule change due to the COVID-19 pandemic prompted a doubleheader. The Rays lost the first game, 8-4, and won the second, 5-3.
- On July 7, 2021 vs. CLE, the schedule was adjusted due to the path of Tropical Storm Elsa. The Rays swept a doubleheader at Tropicana Field for the first time, winning a pair of 7-inning games 8-1 and 4-0. They did not allow a hit in Game 2, using five pitchers to combine for the Elias Sports Bureau definition of a "notable achievement."
- On August 18, 2023 vs. LAA, the series finale was moved up a day as Hurricane Hilary approached Southern California. The Rays lost the first game, 7-6, and won the second, 18-4.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Rob Manfred, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each major league club. These local winners are announced in September on Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pregame ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Edgar Martínez, Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Derek Jeter, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith and Cal Ripken Jr. The Rays were represented on the ballot by Shane McClanahan in 2023.

ABOUT PAUL C. SMITH & AL LOPEZ

Paul C. Smith, a longtime local sports journalist, passed away in 2005 at age 46. He wrote for the St. Petersburg Times and the Rays official website, and was executive sports editor of the Tampa Tribune from 1990–2000.

Al Lopez, one of four Tampa natives in the Hall of Fame, passed away in 2005 at age 97. After a 19-year career as a major league catcher, he found great success as manager of Cleveland and the White Sox.

SPLASH DOWN

Since the Rays Touch Tank opened in 2006 in right-center field, 7 HR have been hit into the water. Only two of those 7 HR were by Rays players: José Lobatón hit a walk-off solo homer in the 9th inning of Game 3 of the 2013 ALDS vs. Boston (Koji Uehara) to save the Rays from elimination, and Brad Miller did it against the Yankees on July 31, 2016.

TRIPLE PLAYS

The Rays have pulled off three triple plays in club history. The most recent came on September 27, 2011 vs. NYY when Russell Martin grounded into a 5-4-3 triple play (Evan Longoria to Ben Zobrist to Sean Rodríguez).

On September 2, 2006 vs. SEA, the Rays pulled off their second triple play, the first at Tropicana Field, in the top of the 1st inning. With runners on first and third, J.P. Howell threw a strike on a 3-2 count to Raul Ibañez for the first out. Catcher Dioner Navarro threw the ball to shortstop Ben Zobrist to retire Adrián Beltré, who was running from first on the pitch. Zobrist then threw back to Navarro to nail José López as he tried to score from third to complete the triple play. It was the first 2-6-2 triple play in major league history.

On September 13, 2002 at TOR, the Rays executed the first triple play in club history (L-4-6-3) with Dewon Brazelton on the mound in his major league debut.

Rays opponents have turned four triple plays, the most recent coming on August 18, 2023 at LAA (Harold Ramírez: 6-4-3-2). Sean Rodríguez accounts for two of the four triple plays, both of the 5-4-3 variety—April 17, 2014 vs. NYY and August 16, 2011 at BOS—making him the first player to hit into a pair of triple plays since ATL Chipper Jones (2007, 1996) and before that, SD Tony Gwynn (1995, 1991). In 2011, Rodríguez became the first player since STL Gregg Jefferies in 1993 to hit into a triple play and participate in one defensively in the same season.

On June 11, 2006 at KC, the Royals turned an 8-1-6-5 triple play when Russell Branyan's apparent sacrifice fly was nullified upon appeal, when it was ruled that Aubrey Huff had left third base early on the tag-up. Rocco Baldelli was also caught on the play trying to advance from first to second base.

ERIK WALKER COMMUNITY CHAMPION AWARD

The Erik Walker Community Champion Award annually recognizes one Rays minor league player who exemplifies teamwork, sportsmanship and community involvement, attributes exhibited by Rays minor league pitcher Erik Walker, who died tragically in an October 2006 canoeing accident. Walker was drafted by the Rays in June 2006 and had just completed his first professional season with the Hudson Valley Renegades when his life was cut short on Oct. 26, just 11 days after his 23rd birthday. Each of the Rays domestic minor league affiliates nominates a candidate for the award.

DEVIL RAYS INAUGURAL GAME

ST. PETERSBURG, FLA. – Hall of Famers Ted Williams, Stan Musial, Al Lopez and Monte Irvin throw out the ceremonial first pitches and minutes later, at 5:08 p.m. on March 31, 1998, Major League Baseball is born in Tampa Bay as Wilson Álvarez delivers a ball to Tigers leadoff hitter Brian Hunter. Álvarez pitches a perfect 1st inning but nine of his next 13 BF reach base safely. The Rays fall behind, 11-0, in the 5th inning before Wade Boggs hit a 2-run homer off Justin Thompson in the 6th to account for the first 2 runs in franchise history. The Devil Rays rally for 4 runs in the 9th inning and leave the tying run in the on-deck circle when Paul Sorrento strikes out to end the game. Tampa native Luis Gonzalez hit the first home run at Tropicana Field and added a single and double.

DEVIL RAYS FIRST WIN

ST. PETERSBURG, FLA. – In Game 2 of the season-opening series, the Devil Rays rally from a 3-0, 1st-inning deficit and record 18 hits on their way to an 11-8 victory, the first win in franchise history. Rookie Rolando Arrojo earns the win in his major league debut and Fred McGriff records three run-scoring hits including a 2-run single in the 8th inning. The Rays bat around in both the 4th and 8th innings and get 2-out, RBI singles from Wade Boggs and McGriff to take the first lead in franchise history. The Rays record a hit in every frame except the 5th.

104 YEARS OF MLB IN ST. PETERSBURG

THIS SEASON MARKS THE 104TH YEAR MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL HAS HAD A PRESENCE IN ST. PETERSBURG, DATING BACK TO 1914 WHEN THE ST. LOUIS BROWNS OPENED SPRING TRAINING WORKOUTS.

MLB has also had a presence in St. Pete every year since travel restrictions during World War II prohibited teams from traveling south for spring training from 1943-45.

Nine teams have trained in St. Petersburg: the St. Louis Browns (1914), Philadelphia Phillies (1915-18), Boston Braves (1922-37), New York Yankees (1925-42; 1946-50; 1952-61), St. Louis Cardinals (1938-42; 1946-97), New York Giants (1951), New York Mets (1962-87), Baltimore Orioles (1993-95) and the Devil Rays/Rays (1998-2008).

In 1910, a former Pittsburgh laundry owner named Al Lang moved to St. Petersburg to benefit his health. He soon became interested in the local economy and focused on trying to help the sagging tourism industry. As a baseball fan, he believed the answer was to attract a major league team for spring training.

Lang convinced the St. Louis Browns, under manager Branch Rickey, to move to St. Petersburg in 1914. A baseball committee, formed to attract a major league team to the city, raised $20,000 to buy a large tract of land for a ballpark. The site chosen for the field was Coffee Pot Bayou in St. Pete, where a 2,000-seat grandstand was built.

The first game between two major league teams in St. Petersburg took place on March 27, 1914 as the Grapefruit League was established. The Browns hosted the Chicago Cubs, who were training in Tampa and made the trip by steamboat across Tampa Bay. The Cubs won, 3-2. James Leslie (Hippo) Vaughn was the winning pitcher for the Cubs as an estimated 4,000 looked on.

The resourceful Lang helped engineer a new ballpark, Waterfront Park—located at the approximate site where the parking lot for Al Lang Field is today—and a new arrival, the Boston Braves, christened the new park in 1922. The Yankees joined the Braves in St. Pete in 1925. They would remain for all but four years until 1962, when Casey Stengel and the expansion New York Mets moved in and the Yankees went to Fort Lauderdale.

When the Boston Braves left for Bradenton in 1937, the St. Louis Cardinals came to St. Petersburg the following year and would stay 57 of the next 60 years, missing only the war years.

Minor league baseball in the city began in 1920 as the St. Pete Saints entered the Florida State League.

There was one other professional league in St. Petersburg prior to the Rays arrival in 1998. The Senior Professional Baseball Association—a league of former major leaguers who were 35 years of age or older—sprang up for one season, 1989-90. The St. Pete Pelicans were the first and only league champions.

2023 RAYS POSTSEASON REVIEW

WILD CARD

The Rays went 99-63 and entered the postseason as the AL's first Wild Card for the second time (2020)...it tied the fourth-most victories by a non-division winner in the Wild Card era (since 1995), behind only the 2021 Dodgers (106), 2001 Athletics (102), 2022 Mets (101) and 2018 Yankees (100).

- The Rays clinched a fifth straight postseason berth, extending the longest streak in franchise history...they clinched a Wild Card berth on Sept. 17 and spent the entire 185-day regular season in postseason position from the end of play on March 30 through Oct. 1, shattering the previous club record of 143 consecutive days (May 11-Sept. 30, 2008)...the Rays spent a franchise-record 114 days with at least a share of first place, surpassing the 2008 Rays (113)...this included a stretch of 113 consecutive days from Opening Day through July 19.

BATS GO SILENT

The Rays were swept in the Wild Card round for the second consecutive season, falling to the eventual World Series champion Rangers...the offense combined for 14 hits, two extra-base hits, one walk and 18 strikeouts in two games...their lone run in 18 innings was an RBI-single by Curtis Mead in the 7th inning of Game 2...prior to Mead's RBI, the Rays had not scored a run in 33 consecutive postseason innings dating back to Game 1 of their 2022 AL Wild Card Series at Cleveland, marking the second-longest streak in postseason history, trailing only the Dodgers (34 innings) from 1966-74.

- The Rays saw their franchise-record postseason losing streak extend to seven games...they fell to 4-14 over their last 18 postseason games dating back to Game 4 of the 2020 ALCS vs. Houston...the Rays dropped to 10-9 all-time when facing elimination in the postseason (6-4 at home), including four straight losses...the Game 2 defeat marked their first home loss in an elimination game since Game 4 of the 2013 ALDS vs. Boston.

RANGER DANGER

With a 7-1 win in Game 2, Texas earned its seventh consecutive postseason victory at Tropicana Field dating back to Game 1 of the 2010 ALDS...the Rangers went 11-0 away from Globe Life Field (2-0 at TB, 2-0 at BAL, 4-0 at HOU and 3-0 at AZ) en route to their first World Series in club history,

2022 RAYS POSTSEASON REVIEW

WILD CARD

The 2022 postseason featured a new format, expanding the pool of teams from 10 to 12 and replacing the two single-elimination Wild Card Games with four best-of-three Wild Card Series... the Rays went 86-76 and entered the postseason as the AL's third Wild Card... the 86 wins were the fewest among the majors' 12 postseason teams and the fewest for a postseason team in club history (excluding 2020).

- The Rays clinched a fourth straight postseason berth, extending the longest streak in franchise history...they clinched a Wild Card berth on Sept. 30 and ended the season in postseason position for 54 straight days beginning with the end of play on Aug. 13 and 95 of 96 days beginning with the end of play on July 2... the Rays joined the Astros, Braves, Cardinals, Dodgers and Yankees as the only teams to make the postseason every year from 2019-22.

2021 RAYS POSTSEASON REVIEW

SUDDEN END

After setting a franchise record for wins in a season (100), the reigning AL champions were eliminated in the ALDS for the fifth time in seven trips to the postseason...the Rays lost Game 3 on a walk-off, 2-run homer and Game 4 on a walk-off sacrifice fly...according to Stats LLC, they became the second team in postseason history to lose a series with back-to-back walk-off losses, joining the Braves in the 1991 World Series at MIN.

- The Rays clinched the best record in the AL for the third time (2020, 2010) and became the first AL club to do so in back-to-back seasons since the 2011-12 Yankees...they held sole possession of the AL's best record for 61 consecutive days from Aug. 6 through the end of the regular season.

PITCHING PLANS

The Rays started rookies Shane McClanahan in Game 1 and Shane Baz in Game 2...according to Sarah Langs of MLB.com, they became the second team in postseason history to start rookie pitchers in each of the first 2 games of a postseason series, joining the Athletics (Jarrod Parker, Tommy Milone) in the 2012 ALDS at DET...McClanahan pitched five scoreless innings in the series opener and Baz yielded 3 runs in 2.1 IP of Game 2.

- Baz became the second pitcher in major league history to start a postseason game with three (or fewer) career regular season appearances up to that point, joining TB Matt Moore in Game 1 of the 2011 ALDS at TEX...he was the 2nd-youngest pitcher in postseason history to start against the Red Sox behind 21-year-old NYM Dwight Gooden in the 1986 World Series.

- The Rays had 13 pitchers on the ALDS roster, none of which made a start in any of the club's 20 games from the 2020 postseason...ten of the 13 pitchers on the 2021 ALDS roster were not on the 2020 World Series roster.

FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH

Rookies Randy Arozarena and Wander Franco combined to hit .353 (12-for-34) with 3 HR, 7 RBI and 2 SB in the series...in Game 1, Arozarena hit a solo homer off Nick Pivetta leading off the 5th inning and stole home off Josh Taylor in the 7th...he became the first player in postseason history to homer and steal home in the same game, according to Stats LLC...the 20-year-old Franco homered in Games 3-4 to become the youngest player to hit multiple homers in a single postseason since FLA Miguel Cabrera in 2003.

- At 20 years, 220 days in Game 1, Franco became the 2nd-youngest player all-time with an RBI in his first postseason game behind BAL Manny Machado (20.091) in the 2012 AL Wild Card Game at TEX...he became the youngest player in major league history with multiple hits in his postseason debut...with Arozarena batting leadoff and Franco hitting 2nd, the Rays were the first team to start rookies in the No. 1 and No. 2 spots of the order in Game 1 of a postseason series.

NOT THE RAYS WAY

After pitching a shutout in Game 1, the Rays combined to allow 47 hits, 26 runs, 9 HR and 16 XBH in the 3 losses...the 35 hits allowed in Games 2-3 matched the most for a 2-game span in postseason history, joining Cleveland in 1999 (Games 3-4 of the ALDS at BOS) and the 1960 Pirates (Games 2-3 of the World Series against the Yankees).

2020 RAYS POSTSEASON REVIEW

A.L. CHAMPS

The Rays won the AL pennant for the second time in franchise history (2008) but lost the World Series to the Dodgers...they set a major league record in playing 20 postseason games, due in part to the expanded playoff format...the Rays were the ninth team in major league history to play a "winner take all" game in the Division Series and League Championship Series but only the third to win both, joining the 2012 Giants and 1981 Dodgers.

- The Rays clinched a postseason spot on Sept. 17, won the AL East on Sept. 23 and secured the No. 1 seed on Sept. 26...it marked the second time in club history the Rays finished with the best record in the AL (2010).

PLAYOFF PAD

With the exception of the Wild Card Series, where the higher seed hosted each game, the rest of the postseason was played at neutral sites due to health, safety and competitive considerations in the COVID-19 pandemic...the Rays spent 17 nights in San Diego for the ALDS and ALCS before flying to Arlington, Texas for the World Series, which was played in front of a limited capacity.

POWER BALL

The Rays hit 34 HR, the most in a single postseason in major league history...67.1 pct. (53 of 79) of the Rays runs came on home runs, compared to 41.5 pct. (120 of 289) in the regular season...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, this was the highest rate for a team in a single postsea-

THE GREAT RANDINO

Rookie Randy Arozarena enjoyed a historic postseason, batting .377/.442/.831 (29-for-77) with 10 HR and 14 RBI in 20 games (all starts) and setting major league records for a single postseason in home runs, hits, extra-base hits (14, tied) and total bases (64)...the previous record was 8 HR by TEX Nelson Cruz in 2011, HOU Carlos Beltrán in 2004 and SF Barry Bonds in 2002.

- He was named Most Valuable Player of the ALCS, the first rookie position player to win MVP of a League Championship Series or World Series...he has since been joined on this list by HOU Jeremy Peña in the 2022 ALCS and 2022 World Series.

FRENCH POETRY

In Game 5 of the ALDS vs. NYY, Mike Brosseau hit a go-ahead, solo homer off Aroldis Chapman in the 8th inning to end a 10-pitch at-bat...it was his second time facing Chapman after he was nearly hit in the head by a 100.5 mph pitch on Sept. 1 at NYY.

- He entered as a pinch-hitter in the 6th and became the third player in postseason history to enter as a sub and deliver a go-ahead homer in a "winner take all" game, joining NYY Aaron Boone's walk-off in Game 7 of the 2003 ALCS vs. BOS and PIT Hal Smith in Game 7 of the 1960 World Series vs. NYY.

PHOTO FINISH

The Rays entered the final week of the regular season tied with Cleveland for the AL's second Wild Card spot, then won four consecutive games to clinch a postseason berth for the fifth time in franchise history and first time in six seasons...they held at least a share of one of the AL's five postseason spots for 167 of 186 days (89.8 pct), including 29 consecutive from Sept. 1 through season's end after finishing a 3-game sweep of Wild Card-contending Cleveland...the Rays were in contention to host the Wild Card Game until losing the penultimate game of the season.

Through eight seasons under the Wild Card Game format, the Rays joined the Yankees and Giants as the only teams to win it twice... the Rays advanced to the Division Series with a 5-1 win over the Athletics in front of 54,005 fans at the Oakland Coliseum, the highest attendance for a Wild Card Game under the new format...it was the highest attendance for a Rays game (regular season or postseason) since September 14, 2008 at NYY (54,279), which was in the final month of games at Old Yankee Stadium.

- The Rays held a lead from the fifth pitch of the Wild Card Game through the final pitch, after Yandy Díaz hit a leadoff homer...it was the first postseason leadoff homer in franchise history and second in Wild Card Game history, following MIN Brian Dozier in the 2017 AL Wild Card Game at NYY.

ELIMINATED BY A.L. CHAMPS

The Rays pushed the eventual AL champion Astros to a decisive fifth game in the ALDS, with the home team winning every game...the Rays outscored the Astros, 14-4, in 2 games at Tropicana Field but lost the 3 games at Minute Maid Park by a combined 15-4 score...it was the second time in franchise history the Rays forced a decisive Game 5 after trailing 0-2, losing both series (2010 ALDS)...Game 5 was the fourth time in a stretch of nine days that the Rays played in a potential elimination game...the Rays fell behind, 4-0, in the bottom of the 1st inning after allowing hits to the first four Astros batters and five of the first six.

POWER SURGE

The Rays hit 4 HR in the Wild Card Game and 4 HR in Game 3 of the ALDS, twice tying their single-game postseason record…the Rays, who hit the fewest homers among the AL's five postseason clubs, totaled 11 HR in six postseason games…all 11 HR came in the club's 4 games when facing elimination, a major league record for homers in elimination games in a single postseason.

CHARLIE 2.0

In his first season with the Rays, Charlie Morton went 2-0 with a 0.90 ERA (10-IP, 1-ER) in two postseason starts…with his win in the Wild Card Game, he became the first pitcher in major league history to record the win in three "winner take all" playoff games…he defeated his former team in Game 3 of the ALDS, helping the Rays avoid elimination…it was his fourth career win in a potential elimination game, tied for the most in major league history…he won Game 7 of the ALCS the following year to extend both of these postseason records.

CUBAN SMOKE

Yandy Díaz was reinstated from the 60-day IL for the last game of the regular season and hit leadoff in the Wild Card Game…he homered in the 1st and 3rd innings, becoming the fifth Ray with a multi-HR game in the postseason and the first to do it in a "winner take all" game.

- Díaz was the 10th player in postseason history with a multi-HR effort in a "winner take all" game but only the second out of the leadoff spot, joining BOS Johnny Damon in Game 7 of the 2004 ALCS…he became the first leadoff hitter in major league history to homer in each of his first 2 AB of a postseason.

2013 RAYS POSTSEASON REVIEW

POSTSEASON THE HARD WAY

With a 5-2 win in a Game 163 tiebreaker on Sept. 30 at TEX, the Rays became the 14th team to enter the postseason via tiebreaker and only the second in the Wild Card era (since 1995) to win a tiebreaker game on the road, joining the Mets on October 4, 1999 at CIN...the Rays advanced to the ALDS by winning 3 games in which they would have been eliminated had they lost—all over a four-day span in three different cities...in Game 162 on Sept. 29 at TOR, the Rays avoided a third consecutive loss to remain tied with Texas in the standings...the Rays snapped the Rangers 7-game winning streak in Game 163 on Sept. 30 at TEX and snapped Cleveland's 10-game winning streak in the AL Wild Card game on Oct. 2 at CLE...the Rays advanced to the postseason for the fourth time in franchise history, all in a six-season span from 2008-13.

SHUTOUT AT CLEVELAND

The Rays blanked Cleveland, 4-0, in the AL Wild Card Game behind Alex Cobb, Joel Peralta, Jake McGee and Fernando Rodney...it was the 44th postseason home game in Cleveland history but only the second time they were shut out...the Rays snapped Cleveland's winning streak covering the last 10 games of the regular season...earlier in the regular season, the Rays snapped a Blue Jays 10-game winning streak...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the Rays became the first team to snap two 10-game winning streaks (or longer) in one season since the 2006 Rockies (Dodgers-11, Athletics-10).

DONE IN BY THE WORLD CHAMPS

The Rays lost the ALDS to the Red Sox, 3-1...Rays starting pitchers allowed 18 runs (16 ER) in 17.1 IP in the series and Rays batters hit .179 (5-for-28) with RISP...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the Rays lone win—in Game 3 at Tropicana Field—was only the second postseason game in which a team took a lead in the bottom of the 8th inning, surrendered it in the 9th and won it in the bottom of the 9th...the first was Game 7 of the 1960 World Series—the Pirates trailed the Yankees, 7-4, entering the bottom of 8th inning, scored 5 runs to take a 9-7 lead, allowed 2 runs in the top of the 9th and won, 10-9, on Bill Mazeroski's home run leading off the bottom half.

ICE CREAM MAN

In the Rays 5-4 win in Game 3 of the ALDS, catcher José Lobaton became the 13th player to hit a walk-off home run in a postseason elimination game…he was the first AL player to do it since BOS David Ortiz in Game 4 of the 2004 ALCS vs. NYY… Lobaton, known for eating ice cream after hitting a home run, also became just the third player to hit a walk-off home run to avoid being swept in a postseason series…he joined Ortiz in 2004 and BOS Trot Nixon in Game 3 of 2003 ALDS vs. OAK.

- Lobaton's homer was hit into the Rays Touch Tank, the third home run to land there and first by a Rays player…the previous times were by DET Miguel Cabrera on June 30, 2013 and LAD Luis Gonzalez on June 24, 2007.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

In Game 3 of the ALDS, Evan Longoria homered on his 28th birthday, becoming the second player in major league history to hit a postseason homer on his birthday…he joined KC Willie Mays Aikens, who hit 2 HR in Game 1 of the 1980 World Series.

NINE FOR NINE

In the Rays 3-1 loss in Game 4 of the ALDS, Rays Manager Joe Maddon used nine pitchers, which set a major league postseason record at the time for a 9-inning game…this has since been broken by the Padres, who used 11 pitchers in their 12-3 loss in Game 3 of the 2020 NLDS vs. LAD.

2011 RAYS POSTSEASON REVIEW

THIRD TIME IN FOUR YEARS

The Rays advanced to the postseason for the third time in a span of four seasons (2008-11), first time as the AL Wild Card...during that span only two other teams made as many postseason appearances: Phillies (4) and Yankees (3)...the Rays became the third major league team and first AL team to advance to the postseason after starting the season 0-6, and just the second major league team to advance to the postseason after starting 1-8...the 1995 Reds won the NL Central after starting 0-6 and 1-8, and the 1974 Pirates won the NL East after starting 0-6.

MATT MOORE

HISTORIC COMEBACK

The Rays became the first team in major league history to be at least 9 GB of a playoff berth in September and make the postseason...the Rays were 9 GB of playoff contention on Sept. 3...the 2011 World Series champion Cardinals were 8.5 GB on Sept. 5...the Rays were 16-8 and the Red Sox were 6-18 over the last 24 games of the regular season, starting Sept. 4.

RAYS vs. RANGERS, PART II

For the second year in a row, the Rays lost to the Rangers in the ALDS...the Rays actually outscored the Rangers, 21-16, but lost the series, 3-1...in these two series, the visiting teams went 8-1...the Rays went 3-1 with 26 runs and 21 XBH at Texas, but 0-5 with 8 runs and 8 XBH at home.

MATT MOORE

At 22 years, 104 days, Matt Moore became the youngest starting pitcher in major league history to win his team's first game of the postseason...that mark was previously held by CIN Gary Nolan (22.129) in the 1970 NLCS...Moore did not allow a run in 7 IP in the Rays 9-0 win in Game 1...he allowed 2 hits, 2 BB and recorded 6 SO while throwing 98 pitches.

- Moore became the fifth rookie starter to win his team's first game of the postseason and the first to do it since NYY Jim Beattie in Game 1 of the 1978 ALCS at KC...he also became the first rookie in major league history to go at least 7 IP and allow no runs and 2 hits (or fewer) in a postseason game...he remains the 2nd-youngest pitcher to ever do that, behind NYY Waite Hoyt (22.027) in Game 2 of the 1921 World Series vs. the New York Giants.

- His .091 opp avg. (3-for-33) remains the 2nd-lowest by a rookie in the postseason (min. 10 IP), topped only by PIT Bruce Kison in 1971 (.088)...remains one of 15 rookies all-time to post a sub-1.00 ERA in the postseason (min. 10 IP)...he was the first to do that since NYY Orlando Hernández in 1998.

REMARKABLE ROOKIES

Matt Moore and Jeremy Hellickson started Game 1 and Game 4 of the ALDS...the Rays were the 10th team and first since the 2007 Rockies to use two rookie starters in the postseason...the Rays had seven rookies on their 25-man postseason roster.

JAMES SHIELDS

Started and lost Game 2 of the ALDS at TEX, 8-6... he took a 3-0 lead into the 4th inning but allowed 5 runs that frame, which included 2 HBP and 2 WP... he remains the only pitcher in major league history with 2 HBP and 2 WP in a postseason game... it was the first time in his career (in 190 regular and postseason starts) with 2 HBP in an inning and only the second time he threw 2 WP in an inning, following July 6, 2007 at KC.

2010 RAYS POSTSEASON REVIEW

2010 POSTSEASON

The Rays won the AL East for the second time in three seasons...after the current divisional format was adopted in 1994, the Rays became the first team other than the Yankees to win two AL East titles in a full 162-game season...with 96 wins, the Rays led the AL in wins for the first time and finished 2nd in the majors to the Phillies (97)...in addition, the Rays became:

- The first team in major league history to endure 10 straight losing seasons, then make the postseason in two of the next three seasons.
- The first team to average 90-plus wins over three consecutive seasons after 10 straight losing seasons.
- The fourth team to average 90-plus wins over three seasons after averaging 90-plus losses the three previous seasons, joining the 1996–2001 Athletics, 1975-80 Brewers and 1988-93 Braves.

RANGERS DEFEAT RAYS IN ALDS

For the first time in major league history, the road team won every game of a postseason series...the Rays became the first team in major league history to lose three home games in any 5-game postseason series...it was the first ALDS to reach 5 games in five years—since the Angels won at home over the Yankees in 2005.

- The Rays became the third team to force a Game 5 in a best-of-five series after losing the first 2 games of the series at home...the 1981 Brewers (vs. New York) and 2001 Yankees (vs. Oakland) did it before them...a Division Series was necessary in 1981 due to the split season.
- The Rays became the 11th team to force a Game 5 in a 5-game series after losing the first 2 games (home or road)...the Rays were the first team since the 1981 Brewers to force a Game 5 after an 0-2 start and lose Game 5.

DAVID PRICE AND CLIFF LEE

Price had 14 SO and 0 BB in the series, and Lee had 21 SO and 0 BB...no pitchers in baseball history have totaled more strikeouts without allowing a walk in a postseason series than Lee and Price...ATL Kevin Millwood (2002 NLDS) and CLE Andrew Miller (2016 ALCS) have since tied Price's mark.

[1] REPLACED INJURED ROCCO BALDELLI ON ALDS ROSTER PRIOR TO GAME 2

- Price lost to Lee twice at home in the series, posting a 4.97 ERA (12.2-IP, 7-ER)…he went 9-2 with a 1.96 ERA (114.2-IP, 25-ER) at home during the regular season…prior to the series, he was 4-0 with a 1.79 ERA (45.1-IP, 9-ER) in 7 starts vs. former Cy Young Award winners, and the Rays won all 7 games.
- At the time, Lee set an ALDS record with 21 SO and tied SD Kevin Brown in 1998 for the overall LDS record…this record is now held by HOU Gerrit Cole (25) in 2019…Rangers pitching set a Division Series record at the time with 55 SO, topping the 1998 Padres (49 SO vs. HOU)…Cleveland in 2001 (48 vs. SEA) held the previous ALDS record…the Rangers staff posted a 2.40 ERA (45-IP, 12-ER), including a 1.15 ERA (31.1-IP, 4-ER) by Rangers starters.

ODDS AND ENDS

- The battery of Wade Davis and John Jaso in Game 4 marked the first time in 63 years a team started a rookie pitcher and a rookie catcher in a postseason win…in Game 7 of the 1947 World Series, the Yankees defeated the Brooklyn Dodgers, 5-2, with a battery of Spec Shea and Yogi Berra.
- Carlos Peña became the first player in history with a single, double, triple and home run in four consecutive postseason at-bats (last 2 AB of Game 3 and first 2 AB of Game 4).

2008 RAYS POSTSEASON REVIEW

2008 POSTSEASON

Only one team in major league history lost more games than the Rays (96) the year before going to the World Series: the 1991 Braves, who were 65-97...the Rays were the second team in major league history and the fifth team in the four major sports to advance to its league's championship series the year after having the worst record in the league...the others to do that: 1991 Braves, 1958-59 Minneapolis Lakers, 1958-59 Toronto Maple Leafs and 1949-50 New York Rangers.

RAYS SET A.L. POSTSEASON HOMER MARK

The Rays hit 26 HR in the postseason, an AL record at the time...the previous record was 24, by the Angels in 2002...that mark remained one shy of the major league record until the 2020 postseason, when the Rays hit 34 HR and the Dodgers hit 30 HR...ten different players hit a postseason homer for the Rays.

- The Rays hit 16 HR in the ALCS, most in LCS history, ahead of the Astros (14) in 2004...this has since been tied by the 2020 Dodgers... they belted 13 HR from Games 2-5, most home runs over a 4-game stretch in postseason history...the Yankees tied this mark in the 2020 postseason.
- B.J. Upton's 7 HR in the postseason fell 1 HR shy of the major league record for a single postseason at the time (8, SF Barry Bonds in 2002, HOU Carlos Beltran in 2004)...four of his 7 HR came in the ALCS, tying the LCS record at the time...he became the first player to hit 5 HR (or more) in the postseason after hitting 10 HR (or fewer) during the regular season.
- Evan Longoria's 6 HR were a major league rookie record for a single postseason, until TB Randy Arozarena (10) broke it in 2020...the previous record was

[1] ALDS, WS ROSTER ONLY; REPLACED INJURED CLIFF FLOYD ON WS ROSTER PRIOR TO GAME 4
[2] ALCS, WS ROSTER ONLY

4 HR, by FLA Miguel Cabrera in 2003...four of his 6 HR came in the ALCS, tying the LCS record at the time...all 4 HR in the ALCS came in consecutive games (Games 2-5), which remains tied for a LCS record...he turned 23 on Oct. 7, the youngest player in major league history to hit 6 HR (or more) in a single postseason.

RAYS SET POSTSEASON STEAL MARK

The Rays recorded 24 SB in the postseason, which remains a major league record ahead of the 1992 Braves (20) and 1975 Reds (20)...the Rays were caught just three times in 16 games.

ALCS MVP MATT GARZA

Matt Garza went 2-0 with a 1.38 ERA (13-IP, 8-H, 2-ER, 6-BB, 14-SO) in the ALCS...he won Game 3 and Game 7 for the Rays...it was the 11th time that a pitcher won ALCS MVP honors (10th different pitcher)...at 24, Garza became the youngest pitcher to ever win ALCS MVP honors, passing Mike Boddicker (26) of the 1983 Orioles.

DAVID PRICE

The 23-year-old top overall selection of the 2007 Amateur Draft became the quickest No. 1 overall pick to play in the World Series...he earned his first win at the major league level in Game 2 of the ALCS vs. BOS and recorded the final 4 outs in Game 7 for his first career save...at the time, he was the third rookie pitcher to record a win and a save in the same postseason series.

REMEMBERING A TRAILBLAZER

Andrés Reiner passed away on Aug 3, 2016, at age 80. Hired by the organization in 2006, Andrés was instrumental in reorganizing how the Rays approached recruiting and signing players in Latin America. He played a major role in the building of the Rays academies in Venezuela and the Dominican Republic.

Andrés transformed how baseball was scouted in Venezuela when he opened the country's first baseball academy for the Astros in 1989. Though many are aware of the 25 young men from that program who reached the big leagues, including Johan Santana, Bobby Abreu and Carlos Guillén, fewer know about the managers and coaches in minor league baseball who were influenced by Andrés. The Rays have several staff members who were signed by Andrés as players, including bullpen coach Jorge Moncada, field coordinator Alejandro Freire, Durham bench coach Reinaldo Ruiz, FCL Rays coach Germán Meléndez and DSL Tampa Bay manager Héctor Giménez.

Andrés pioneered the cultural transition programs in professional baseball. These are programs the Rays have established for young men signed in Latin America. The Rays stand with many others in tribute to a man who dedicated his life to growing our game and mentoring others to do the same.

ALL-STAR BALLOTING

In 2019, Major League Baseball introduced a revamped All-Star balloting process that features two phases of fan voting to determine the starting position players. The top three vote-getters at each position (and top nine outfielders) from the primary phase advance to The Starters Election. Fans then elect starters to the AL All-Star Team and NL squad from that pool of players.

The pitchers and reserves for both All-Star teams will be determined through a combination of player balloting and selections made by the Commissioner's Office. The managers of the teams that played in the previous year's World Series choose the batting orders and starting pitchers.

Since the first All-Star Game in 1933, selection of the All-Stars has shifted on several occasions between fans, players, managers and MLB. In 1933-34, selection of the All-Star teams was up to the fans, who could vote for All-Stars through newspaper ads featuring official ballots. From 1935-46, each league's eight managers selected the participants while the All-Star managers chose the starters. Balloting for the starting lineups, tabulated by the Associated Press, returned to the fans from 1947-57. However, a case of ballot-stuffing by Cincinnati fans in 1957 prompted Commissioner Ford Frick to make player selection the privilege of managers, players and coaches from 1958-69.

Commissioner Bowie Kuhn returned voting to the fans in 1970. Since then, fan balloting has developed into the largest voter participation program in the U.S. outside of state and national elections.

EXPANDING INTERNATIONAL OPERATIONS

Players from the Rays 2023 June Draft visited the colonial zone in Santo Domingo with staff and academy players as part of the fall instructional league program, which paired on-field development and cultural exchange for the newest members of the organization.

RYAN BURNETT / TAMPA BAY RAYS

BASEBALL IS A GLOBAL GAME. TODAY, MORE THAN ONE-FOURTH OF ALL MAJOR LEAGUERS WERE BORN OUTSIDE OF THE UNITED STATES.

As a result, the Rays have expanded the reach of their international operations. Entering the 2023 season, the Rays organization has players from eight countries—Australia, Canada, Colombia, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Mexico, Panama and Venezuela—in addition to those from the United States.

While the organization spans the globe in search of talent, the main focus is in the Dominican Republic and Venezuela, where the Rays operate baseball academies.

In 2006, shortly after the ownership group led by Stuart Sternberg took control of the club, the Rays agreed to a partnership with the Los Angeles Dodgers in which the two organizations would share Campo Las Palmas in the Dominican Republic, long considered the gold standard for Dominican facilities. Campo Las Palmas was home to the Rays baseball academy and a summer league team until early 2009 when the organization inaugurated a new academy located on the property adjacent to the Dodgers. The complex has two full diamonds and a half field, clubhouse, gym, covered batting cages, classrooms, a dining area and living facilities which can accommodate up to 92 players. In 2018, the program claimed its first Dominican Summer League (DSL) title.

In 2007, the Rays opened their Venezuelan baseball academy in Guacara, 100 miles west of Caracas. In addition to baseball fields, the Venezuelan academy includes a dining area and dormitory which can accommodate 56 players. The Rays played in the Venezuelan Summer League (VSL) in 2007 as part of a co-op team with the Cincinnati Reds before forming a team of their own in 2008. The program won VSL championships in 2009 and 2011. The VSL closed its operations after the 2015 season, prompting the Rays to add a second team in the DSL in 2016.

The Rays international efforts are overseen by Carlos Rodriguez, vice president of baseball operations and assistant general manager. Steve Miller enters his fourth season as director, international scouting, running the department and overseeing all scouts. Patrick Walters enters his fourth season as director, international operations, overseeing all operations at the Latin American academies. Jeff Johnson serves as manager, international scouting. Brad Budzinski was added to the staff in 2018 as an international crosschecker, and area scout Andrew Fabian, responsible for South Florida, will provide international crosschecking coverage for his first season.

Ronnie Blanco, former general manager of the Magallanes baseball club in the Venezuelan professional league and the Rays long-time director of Venezuelan operations, is assistant director, international operations.

The Rays maintain scouting programs in the Dominican Republic, supervised by Daniel Santana, crosschecked by Rigo De Los Santos and staffed by scouts Miguel De La Cruz, Remmy Hernandez and Jorge Perez; Venezuela, crosschecked by William Bergolla and scouts Juan Castillo, Carlos León, Sergio León, Marlon Roche and Frank Tineo; Brazil, scouted by Tiago Campos; Colombia, coordinated by Angel Contreras and scout Alex Zuniga; Curaçao, led by Chairon Isenia; Panama, with Gustavo Zapata; and Mexico, with Karla Espinoza, the country's first female scout.

The Rays have also expanded scouting efforts in the Pacific Rim, Europe and Australia. Tateki "Bori" Uchibori, who served as an interpreter for former Tampa Bay infielder Akinori Iwamura, scouts for the Rays in Japan. In 2016, Joe Park was added to the Korean scouting staff. Keith Hsu covers Taiwan.

With rising numbers of international players, the Rays have also developed programs in the U.S. and in their Latin American academies to educate players and create cultural awareness. Today, these programs cater to international and domestic players alike and have grown to include language training, life skills, professional development and education on social issues. The programs are overseen by George Pappas, director, minor league operations. Jairo De La Rosa, assistant director, Latin America Player Programs, supervises educational initiatives in the academies, which are led by Junior Sencion and Gilberto Fernandez in the Dominican Republic and Venezuela, respectively. He also supports players and staff in their transition to the United States and aids in the integration of player plans. Lenore Sanchez coordinates language instruction for international players in the U.S. The education program is also supported by Wilson Made, coordinator, minor league operations; Karly Fisher, manager, team travel and logistics; Ryan Burnett, assistant, minor league operations; Welington Castillo, player development specialist and a former big leaguer; and Milton Jamail, who begins his 17th year in the organization and fourth as advisor, player education.

2024 FIRST-YEAR PLAYER DRAFT

The annual First-Year Player Draft is scheduled for July 14-16. For the fourth consecutive year, it will be held as part of the All-Star Game festivities.

The Rays hold the No. 18 overall selection. In 2023, the Rays selected SS Brayden Taylor out of Texas Christian University with the No. 19 overall selection.

This year is the 60th First-Year Player Draft and the 29th draft in Rays history. It was on June 8, 1965 that the Oakland Athletics selected Arizona State outfielder Rick Monday with the first-ever pick. Since its inception, over 68,000 players have been selected in the First-Year Player Draft. The Rays have made 1,295 of those. Among the major sports, baseball was the last to adopt a draft. The NFL was first in 1936, followed by the NBA in 1947 and NHL in 1962.

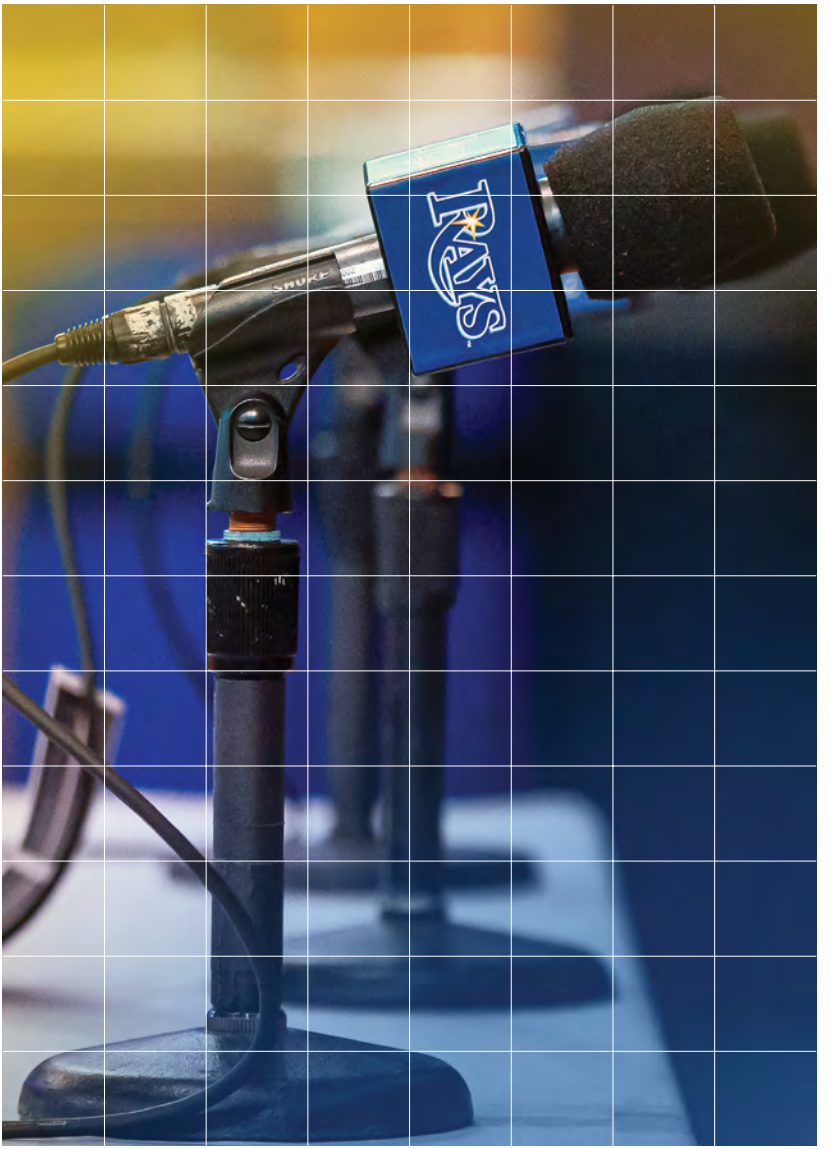
BROADCAST INFORMATION



DAVIDA FRANKLIN / TAMPA BAY RAYS

RAYS ON TELEVISION

DEWAYNE STAATS

Dewayne anchors the Emmy Award-winning Bally Sports Sun telecast this year, his 49th season broadcasting major league baseball and 27th with the Rays. Dewayne has also handled play-by-play for FOX Sports national baseball coverage. He has broadcast more than 7,000 MLB games in his career, including 10 no-hitters. Before joining the Rays, he spent three years calling play-by-play for a variety of ESPN sports broadcasts. He began his major league play-by-play career on the radio and TV for the Astros from 1977-84, then for the Cubs from 1985-89. He was the lead play-by-play announcer for the Yankees from 1990-94, and spent the 1994-95 seasons calling the action for The Baseball Network (ABC/NBC). Dewayne began his baseball career as the radio voice of the Oklahoma City 89ers (1973-74). In 1975-76 he won an Emmy Award as the sports director at KPLR TV in St. Louis. Dewayne began his sports career with WSIE Radio before graduating from SIU-Edwardsville in 1975. He earned Distinguished Alumnus of the Year honors in 1987 and was inducted into its Alumni Hall of Fame in 2010. Dewayne was named a finalist for the Ford C. Frick Award, presented annually by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, in 2012, 2013, 2016 and 2019. He was named the 2013 Florida Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association. In 2015, Dewayne authored Position to Win: A Look at Baseball and Life From the Best Seat in the House, which chronicles his life and career in sports broadcasting. In 2018, Dewayne was inducted into the Tampa Bay Sports Club Hall of Fame. In 2021, he received a Suncoast Sports Emmy Award for the broadcast of Wander Franco's debut. He and his wife, Carla, support a number of causes, including military combat veterans via their 501(c)(3) charity W.A.R. (Warriors at Rest). He has two daughters, Stephanie Wheeler and Alexandra, and three grandchildren: Gabriel, Zachary and Evie.

BRIAN ANDERSON

Brian enters his 14th season as the full-time television color analyst on Bally Sports Sun and his 16th season as part of the Rays broadcast. Brian previously served on the major league staff as assistant to the pitching coach, working under Jim Hickey from March 2008 through the 2009 season. He also filled in as a broadcaster for Cleveland on Sports Time Ohio and hosted a weekly highlights show while recovering from injury in 2007. Brian spent 13 seasons pitching in the majors with the Angels, Cleveland, Royals and Diamondbacks, and was a member of the latter's 2001 World Champion team. He was selected third overall by the Angels in the 1993 First-Year Player Draft and the following season was named the Sporting News AL Rookie of the Year. He was also selected by the Diamondbacks as their first pick in the 1997 Expansion Draft. Brian was inducted to the Greater Cleveland Sports Hall of Fame on Sep 30, 2015 and made his acceptance speech by phone during the Rays broadcast. He is a member of the inaugural class of the Summit League Conference Hall of Fame, as well as a member of the Wright State Hall of Fame, where he had his number 34 retired. In 2021, he received a Suncoast Sports Emmy Award for his work on the Rays broadcast. He resides in Tampa. Brian has four children: Rylyn Mae, Jackson James, Harper Marie and Baker James.

TRICIA WHITAKER

Tricia begins her sixth season on the Bally Sports Sun telecast as the in-game reporter and host of select feature episodes. She is a six-time Emmy Award recipient, receiving two nods in 2022 for her roles in the Rays Live pregame show and the Jean Ramirez episode of Rays All-Access. She previously recieved accolades for the Lou Gehrig Day pregame special, a "Salute to the Troops" pregame special in 2020 and a 2018 production on the legacy of Peyton Manning. Prior to joining the Rays broadcast, the Stuart, Fla. native spent four years covering local sports with the CBS affiliate in Indianapolis, including the Indiana Pacers and Indianapolis Colts. Her career experience also includes a two-year stint covering professional and collegiate teams, including the Brewers and Green Bay Packers, for the ABC affiliate in Green Bay. Her professional career began as a web reporter with the Pacers and Indiana Fever. Tricia graduated from Indiana University with a degree in communications. She has since returned to teach sports broadcasting at IU's media school as an adjunct professor for the past eight years.

RICH HOLLENBERG

Rich enters his 11th season covering the Rays on television with the Bally Sports Sun broadcast team. He is a three-time Emmy Award recipient, including in 2022 when he and his crew were recognized for their roles in the Rays Live pregame show. In 1995, he began his broadcasting career as a sports anchor with the ABC affiliate in Great Falls, Mont. From 1995-97, he served as the sports director with Time Warner Cable (now Spectrum Sports) in Clearwater, where he received a CableACE award for the best local sports program. Rich was also host of "H.S. Sports Extra" for WTVT FOX-13 from 1996-98, the in-arena voice for the Tampa Bay Lightning and Tampa Bay Storm from 1999–2002 and a host for a variety of other regional programs. He spent a number of years as a national reporter for NFL Network as well. During the baseball offseason, Rich handles college basketball play-by-play duties on ESPN Networks. Rich earned a bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism from the Newhouse School at Syracuse University in 1993. A New Jersey native, Rich has called the Tampa Bay area home for 28 years. He and his wife, Jill, reside in St. Petersburg with their three children: Jason, Lindsey and Bryan.

DOUG WAECHTER

Doug begins his 10th season providing in-depth pitching analysis as a member of Bally Sports Sun's pre- and postgame shows. He is a three-time Emmy Award recipient, including in 2022 when he and his crew were recognized for their roles in the Rays Live pregame show. Doug is a St. Petersburg native and graduate of Northeast High School. Prior to being selected by the Devil Rays in the 1999 First-Year Player Draft, he had signed a letter of intent to play football at the University of South Florida. With his 2003 debut, he became the first St. Petersburg native to play for the Rays. He remains one of three Rays players born in St. Petersburg, along with Casey Kotchman and Ryan Weber. In his first major league start, on Sep 3, 2003 at Tropicana Field, he pitched a 2-hit shutout against the Mariners. He spent 11 years in professional baseball, six of which came in the majors with the Devil Rays, Marlins and Royals. In 2004, he was presented a key to the city of St. Petersburg by Mayor Rick Baker. Doug is a realtor in the Tampa Bay area and resides in St. Petersburg with his wife, Kristin, and two children, Kaden and Karsyn.

MATT JOYCE

Born and raised in Tampa, Matt begins his second season as an analyst on Bally Sports Sun's pre- and postgame shows after a 14-year career in the majors. He attended Armwood High School and Florida Southern College before being selected by the Tigers in the 12th round of the 2005 First-Year Player Draft. After hitting 12 HR in 92 games with the Tigers as a rookie, Matt was traded to the Rays in December 2008 in exchange for Edwin Jackson. He played six seasons with the Rays (2009-14), was named to the AL All-Star Team in 2011 and remains ranked among the franchise's top 10 in games, doubles, homers, RBI and walks. Among his favorite Rays highlights is a grand slam off Max Scherzer on the night of Matt Garza's no-hitter in 2010 and a go-ahead homer in the 7th inning of the penultimate game of the 2011 season—the night before Evan Longoria's walk-off in "Game 162" clinched the AL Wild Card. Matt spent time in the majors with the Tigers, Rays, Angels, Pirates, Athletics, Braves, Marlins and Phillies before announcing his retirement in 2022. In 2023, he was involved in started the Big League Podcast, with Tyler Glasnow as its first guest. He has also opened/acquired six F45 Training studios, a group-fitness concept that has locations in Tampa and St. Petersburg that are both among the top five performing studios in Florida.

DENARD SPAN

Denard begins his second season as an analyst on Bally Sports Sun's pre- and postgame shows. After starring at Hillsborough High School and Tampa Catholic High School, he was selected by the Twins in the first round (20th overall) of the 2002 First-Year Player Draft. He spent 11 seasons in the majors with the Twins (2008-12), Nationals (2013-15), Giants (2016-17), Rays (2018) and Mariners (2018). He hit a combined .281 and collected 1,498 hits, 72 3B, 71 HR and 185 SB. He tied for the NL lead with 184 hits in 2014, and led his league in triples in 2009 and 2013. He finished 6th in the AL Rookie of the Year voting in 2008. Raised by his mother, Wanda Wilson, he founded the nonprofit Denard Span Foundation in 2014 to serve and empower single parent households through transportation, education and grocery programs. Money raised by the foundation goes directly to providing reliable cars for families in need. Denard also enjoys serving his community through his church and spending time with his wife, Anne, and their children, DJ, Jace, and Jada.

RYAN BASS

Ryan enters his third season with the Bally Sports Sun broadcast team as an in-game reporter and occasional host of the Rays Live pre- and postgame shows. He has covered sports in the Tampa Bay area for nearly a decade, serving as the sports director and main anchor for CBS affiliate WTSP-TV from 2016-22 and as a sports reporter, host and play-by-play broadcaster with Bright House Sports Network from 2012-15. In addition to his role on the Bally Sports Sun broadcasts, Ryan reports on a variety of topics as a national correspondent for NewsNation TV. He also does some freelance work with the Tampa Bay Sports Commission. Prior to his second stint in Tampa Bay, Ryan was a national host for CBS Sports based in Fort Lauderdale, anchoring shows including the award-winning Fantasy Football Today and Daily Fantasy Live. He began his television career in Davenport, Iowa, anchoring for the Independent News Network in 2011. Ryan is a proud UCF Knight, graduating with a journalism degree. He was born and raised in Miami but has strong ties to the St. Petersburg area, as his father, Steve, attended St. Petersburg High School. He currently lives in downtown St. Petersburg and spends much of the offseason in Nashville.

RAYS ON RADIO

ANDY FREED

Andy returns to the booth for his 20th season with the Rays Radio Network. From 2005-22, he shared play-by-play and analyst duties with then-broadcast partner Dave Wills, and the broadcast team was voted best in the American League in 2020 by subscribers of The Athletic. In 2023, he was inducted into the Sports Club of Tampa Bay Hall of Fame. He also joins the television broadcast as the Rays TV play-by-play announcer for a select number of games throughout the season. Andy joined the Rays after serving as the voice of the Triple-A Pawtucket Red Sox for four seasons. He was also the voice of the Double-A Trenton Thunder (Red Sox) for five seasons (1996–2000) and was inducted into the Trenton Baseball Hall of Fame in 2018. He began his play-by-play career with the Class-A St. Lucie Mets in 1994-95. His baseball radio career began as a broadcast assistant with the Orioles, conducting postgame interviews for home games during the 1990-93 seasons. His other play-by-play experience includes college basketball for ESPN Regional, Providence College (2003-05) and Rider University (1996–2001). He also broadcast for The College of New Jersey football and Baltimore Spirit soccer. Freed is a graduate of Towson (Md.) University, where he called basketball, football and lacrosse during his time at school. Andy was named 2015 Florida Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association. He enthusiastically works with the ALS Association. In addition to reciting Lou Gehrig's famous speech at Tropicana Field every year on "ALS Night," he emcees various local events, including their annual "Ride to Defeat ALS." He and his wife, Amy, reside in Bradenton, Fla. with their daughter Sarah, twins Casey and Maddie, and rescue dog, Charlie.

NEIL SOLONDZ

Neil begins his 13th season on the Rays Baseball Network, and second as play by play broadcaster. The previous 11 seasons, Neil hosted the pre- and postgame shows, This Week in Rays Baseball, other team podcasts and was fill-in play-by-play voice. In 2021, he was awarded the Rays Joyce Smith Community Spirit Award, which annually recognizes one employee who makes significant societal contributions beyond their professional responsibilities. Before joining Tampa Bay, Neil was the radio voice of Triple-A Durham from 2004-11 and filled in on the Rays pre- and postgame show from 2010-11. With Durham, he broadcast the Triple-A All-Star Game and Triple-A National Championship Game to a nationwide audience. Before the Bulls, he broadcast for Class-A Lakewood (Phillies) and Class-A Quad City (Twins). He was part of the TV broadcast for the Olympic baseball qualifier Premier12 in South Korea in 2019, and he has done other freelance work for regional and college TV and radio networks. Neil attended Rutgers University, where he received a bachelor's degree in English. He and his wife, Sari, reside in Palm Harbor with their daughters, Emily and Abby.

CHRIS ADAMS-WALL

Chris begins his first full season with the Rays Radio Network after joining the booth in June 2023 as the Rays Radio pre- and postgame show host, as well as the host of The Week in Rays Baseball and the Tampa Bay Rays podcast. He also serves as a play-by-play fill-in for select games during the season. Chris joined the Major League staff after spending just over seven seasons as the voice of the Montgomery Biscuits, the Rays Double-A affiliate. In addition to his work with the Biscuits, he previously served as a sports anchor and reporter for the Alabama News Network, a play-by-play broadcaster for the Northeast Sports Network and Alabama State football, a writer for ESPN and a production assistant for FOX Sports' NFL and college football broadcasts. Chris graduated from Bowdoin College in Brunswick, Me. with a bachelor's degree in English/Spanish. He resides in Pinellas Park, Fla.

RAYS ON SPANISH RADIO

ENRIQUE OLIU

Enrique returns for his 26th season as color analyst on the Rays Spanish broadcast. He received the Alexis Arguello Award, given to the top sports figures in Nicaragua, and the Nicaraguan Sportswriters Association Award for his accomplishments in the world of sports during the 2016 season. In February 2009, Enrique was inducted into the Florida College Sports Hall of Fame for his impact on the college and in life. He is the subject of the award-winning 2009 documentary Henry O!, filmed by Boston-based Rosemont Productions during the 2007 season. Born in Nicaragua, Enrique came to the United States at age 10 and attended the St. Augustine School for the Blind. He called his first professional action in 1989 for the Jacksonville Expos, and then served as color commentator for the St. Petersburg Pelicans of the Senior Professional Baseball League. Prior to that, he was the public address announcer for seven years for Florida College baseball in Tampa. He also appeared as a regular contributor on Solamente Pelota ("Only Baseball") on SiriusXM, hosted his own show on WQBN 1300 AM and has been a guest analyst on USF Spanish broadcasts and on baseball broadcasts and talk shows in Managua, Nicaragua. He has also called action for the Tampa Bay Storm of the Arena Football League (2003-05) and served as the Spanish voice for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2002-03. Enrique owns a communications degree from the University of South Florida. He delivered the keynote address at the Florida School for the Deaf and Blind's 100th commencement in May 2014. His wife, Debbie, closely assists him on the broadcasts. The two reside in St. Petersburg.

REMEMBERING DAVE WILLS

FOR 18 SEASONS, THE BOOMING, DISTINCT VOICE OF DAVE WILLS WAS SYNONYMOUS WITH RAYS BASEBALL.

Dave passed away on March 5, 2023, but his enduring legacy and influential mark on the Rays organization will be felt for years to come. His genuine joy for the game was matched only by his ability to uplift those around him, making every broadcast a shared experience of joy and camaraderie. Whether in the booth or behind the scenes, Dave's desire to make everyone feel valued created a legacy that extends far beyond the diamond. Today, we celebrate Dave not just as a broadcaster, but as a cherished colleague and friend who made the world a brighter place for those fortunate enough to meet him.

> When I think of him now, my goal is to feel happy because of the time we had together, and not be sad because he's gone. It's a challenge because I miss him so much. But it's a goal he would appreciate, because he was all about good times.

EDUCATE & ENTERTAIN

"Dave was terrific at balancing entertainment while always respecting the game. He also taught us anything we said in the booth could be part of the entertainment. Sometimes, we told him things just to see what he would do with it. The morning of one of his last Spring Training games, I got pulled over for going over the speed limit but not fast enough on I-4. I figured it was worth sharing since I talked myself out of the ticket. His eyes lit up when I told him, and, for two innings, the left-hand loiterer became a thing. While we couldn't stop laughing, he also never lost sight of what was happening on the field. That will always be part of our booth."

-NEIL SOLONDZ-
Rays Radio Announcer

"He just brought it. Dave really brought it, and he was a 24/7 kind of guy. And I don't mean that just because he was always up and around. It was anytime you saw him, no matter the venue, whether he was doing something for the Rays at a community event, emceeing that, obviously on the radio, on the team buses, just around the stadium. He had a glowing aura about him. He and Andy, I remember asking them once a couple of years ago, 'How do you feel?'…They said, look, even if one person is listening, we get calls, no matter how late it was when we were doing minor league stuff, that, if one person's listening, it's enough. That's the way he approached it. He was trying to make one person happy and bring some joy to somebody's night or day."

-STU STERNBERG-
Rays Principal Owner

"I know we're all going to miss that conversation, miss that smile, miss that presence. Certainly we can appreciate Dave for who he was as a friend, who he was as a broadcaster and what he meant to our community and most importantly our organization. I was spoiled in the fact that I got to spend quality time with Dave. We got to know each other very well, and I feel like he made me better as a manager, he made me better as a person and certainly with working with so many people."

-KEVIN CASH-
Rays Manager

"Early in my tenure with the Rays, I heard Dave and Andy often say, 'We're going to lead the league in fun.' Whether the Rays were winning 90+ games and making the postseason or struggling near the bottom of the standings, Dave made sure fun was being had in the Rays Radio booth. That was the culture Dave created and I know our listeners and fans felt that energy every time he turned on his mic. This was never more evident than the night of September 28, 2011: Game 162. The Rays and Yankees were in extra innings and, once Boston lost, everyone knew a Rays win catapulted us to the postseason. Soon after the Boston game went final, Dave said on the air, 'I'm ready to party! Let's go!' Evan Longoria hit the next pitch out of the park and the party was on! Dave was a Rays fan and he wanted our listeners to know he was rooting for their team, just like them."

-CHRIS MUELLER-
Director, Broadcasting

"Dave had a way of making everyone feel like family, whether you had known him for 20 years or 20 seconds. When I first joined the broadcast crew back in 2021, Dave made me feel like part of not only the Rays Radio family, but part of the Wills family as well. He was the type of guy who would make you text him when you got home from work, even if you just lived across the street. He was the kind of guy who invited you over for every holiday, just to make sure you had a place to go. He was the kind of guy who could joke about you on air and you know it's all because, 'We kid because we care.' He was the kind of guy who could take the 'princess' nickname you gave him and turn it back on you. He was the kind of guy who would take a couple minutes during a broadcast to ensure to your parents that you were going to survive your first hurricane. Whether you were sitting next to Dave in the booth or listening to him on the radio, he made you feel like you were listening to a friend, he made you feel like family."

–BECCA CARNEY–
Coordinator, Broadcasting

SUZYN WALDMAN
Yankees Radio

"We're so inundated with numbers, we've all forgotten that we're painting a picture for people that don't see the game. And Dave understood that every single way…You have to understand to whom you're speaking, and Dave was doing Rays games for Rays fans…He understood how to make people feel wonderful about themselves and about the Tampa Bay Rays."

ENRIQUE OLIU
Spanish Rays Radio

"What he meant to me was the friend, the person who encouraged, the person that would put everybody together at the table… I hope that all of us can relish and enjoy, for me, the 18 years that I had my friend, Dave Wills, next door to me."

TOM HAMILTON
Guardians Radio

"Your day was always made better when you got a big bear hug from that guy and heard that booming voice of his and that big time personality. But yet, whether you were meeting Dave for the first time or whether you were meeting him for the 99th time, Dave always made you feel like you'd been friends forever."

DON OSRILLO
Padres TV

"What I loved about Dave, was how much he loved life, how loyal a friend he was at all times. Whenever you spoke to him, it was always clear he had your back. He loved his family, and he was living his ultimate dream of doing what he loved. He loved the fans. He loved baseball. He loved the Rays."

RYAN LEFEBVRE
Royals TV

"Sometimes, us in the so-called entertainment business can be one person on the air and somebody completely different off the air…Dave and Andy are the greatest broadcast team in every sense of the word that I've ever been around in my career… They were always together and just a model for how a true team should be on the air and off the air."

JERRY HOWARTH
Former Blue Jays Radio

"When I saw Dave Wills, my first thought was, wow, look at him! Look how contented he is. Look how happy he is doing what he's doing. It was never about Dave. It was always about Andy and then calling the game."

TROPICANA FIELD

MATT MAY / TAMPA BAY RAYS

- Prior to the 2024 season, the WWE Royal Rumble was held on January 27, drawing a Tropicana Field-record crowd of 48,044, surpassing an Aug. 11, 1990 New Kids on the Block concert (47,150).
- In 2023, Tropicana Field added The Shortstop at the Budweiser Porch, which uses Zippin's platform for a checkout-free experience. Customers can tap or swipe a credit card in addition to the option to pay with the MLB Ballpark app. The Rays also upgraded their main and side display video boards to DigiLED Vision A10o panels. These panels have been optimized by dialing in the latency, color science and viewing angle to best suit Tropicana Field.
- Since 2005, the Rays have invested more than $57 million in upgrades to Tropicana Field.
- In 2022, Tropicana Field introduced a new seating area just past the home dugout called The Chalk Box, featuring oversized padded seats with armrests, cupholders and side tables.
- The Rays Museum opened in the left field alcoves prior to the 2022 season. Each alcove highlights distinct features of the organization's history, including the American League Championship seasons, Devil Rays era, the franchise's most impactful players and more.
- Prior to the 2020 season, Tropicana Field transitioned to exclusive use of mobile tickets to improve ballpark security, limit fraudulent entry and reduce paper waste. Tropicana Field was also announced as the first cash-free sports venue in North America in 2019.
- In 2019, the existing field lights were replaced with energy-efficient LED lights, enhancing on-field playability and in-game entertainment.
- In 2018, the Rays partnered with Levy to overhaul the food, beverage and retail experience, including "food halls" and a renovated team store.
- Knotless safety nets were installed from the inside of the dugouts to the far ends of the dugouts in 2017 and then extended out to the ends of Sections 125 and 126 two years later.
- Between 2013-14, the Rays added 360-degree pedestrian circulation around the lower seating bowl. The improved circulation provides easier access to and from ballpark gates, concessions and activity areas throughout the facility.
- Over 2006-07, the Rays invested more than $18 million toward ballpark improvements, including the creation of the Rays Club.
- Originally named the Florida Suncoast Dome, Tropicana Field's 1.1 million square feet include unique design features and fan amenities.
- The venue opened to the public on March 3, 1990, at a cost of $138 million. It became the ThunderDome in 1993 with the arrival of the National Hockey League expansion franchise, the Tampa Bay Lightning. It was renamed Tropicana Field on Oct. 4, 1996, in accordance with a naming rights agreement between the Rays and Bradenton's Tropicana Dole Beverages.
- Tropicana Field is the world's only professional sports facility that features live rays. The 10,000-gallon Rays Touch Tank opened in 2006 and is located just behind the right-center field wall. There are over 20 cownose rays that fans can touch during the game through a unique partnership with The Florida Aquarium.

- Tropicana Field and Toronto's Rogers Centre both feature an artificial surface and all-dirt base paths. Only four other artificial turf ballparks have ever featured all-dirt base paths: Houston's Astrodome (1966-71), San Francisco's Candlestick Park (1971), Pittsburgh's Three Rivers Stadium (1970-72) and St. Louis' Busch Stadium (1970-76).
- The Rays installed new Shaw Sports Turf ahead of the 2024 season, the eighth surface in 26 seasons. They began play in 1998 on AstroTurf, went to a FieldTurf surface in 2000 and FieldTurf's improved product in 2007. In 2011, AstroTurf installed Game Day Grass 3D-60 H. The first of four Shaw Sports Turf surfaces was installed in advance of the 2017 season.
- Tropicana Field features the world's largest cable-supported domed roof. It is made of six acres of translucent, Teflon-coated fiberglass and supports itself with 180 miles of cables connected by struts. Opposing forces of tension and compression keep the roof in an arc. The roof is slanted at a 6.5-degree angle, dropping from 225 feet above second base to 85 feet at the center field wall. The slanted roof reduced construction costs and decreased the volume of air under the dome by 16.8 million cubic feet, decreasing the amount of air requiring climate control. It is built to withstand winds of up to 115 miles per hour.
- Though originally built for baseball, there have been 15 other varieties of sporting events held at the venue: hockey, basketball, football, sprint car racing, gymnastics, soccer, tennis, weight lifting, wrestling, table tennis, karate, motorcycle racing, equestrian events, track and figure skating.
- In addition to the 2008 World Series, the facility was home to the 1999 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four featuring Duke, Ohio State, Michigan State and eventual-champion Connecticut.

CHARLOTTE SPORTS PARK

KEVIN SABITUS / TAMPA BAY RAYS

On Sept. 20, 2006, the Rays and the Charlotte County Board of Commissioners signed a 20-year agreement for the team to conduct spring training at Charlotte Sports Park, the spring training home of the Texas Rangers from 1987–2002. Following an 18-month renovation, the park became the Rays official spring home on Feb. 25, 2009, when Tampa Bay hosted the Cincinnati Reds. The Rays went on to set the club spring training attendance record and sold out eight home games in their first season in Charlotte County. In 2014, readers of USA Today voted Charlotte Sports Park their favorite Spring Training destination. After a one-year hiatus, the Rays will return to the venue for 2024 Spring Training following over $17 million of repairs necessitated by substantial damage inflicted by Hurricane Ian.

■ IMPROVEMENTS
Prior to the 2020 spring season, the Rays funded $2.5 million in facility improvements, resulting in 27,000 square feet of new or renovated spaces primarily aimed at increasing and modernizing the amount of indoor player training space on site. Changes included a state-of-the-art training facility and climate-controlled batting cages.

■ SIZE
82 acres, including the ballpark and 5½ practice fields. The practice fields are home to minor league spring training games and the FCL Rays.

■ ARCHITECT
Populous, formerly known as HOK Sport Facilities Group, Inc. (Kansas City, Mo.)

■ FINANCING
The $27.2 million renovation and expansion project was funded by the Charlotte County Board of Commissioners' unanimous approval (4-0) of a fifth-cent tourism tax, a contribution from the Rays and a $15 million grant from the Florida Sports Foundation and the State's Office of Tourism.

■ SEATING CAPACITY
The ballpark features diverse seating areas, including over 5,000 fixed seats and two berm areas and other general admission areas that can accommodate over 1,000 additional fans, all within an intimate ballpark setting. The stadium capacity is 6,823.

■ PLAYER FACILITIES
A 44,000-square-foot, two-story clubhouse building beyond right field features locker rooms for Rays major and minor league players and houses the Rays Player Development center. The nearby Athletic Performance Center opened ahead of the 2020 spring season and features 10,500 square feet of continuous training space.

■ TEAM STORE
Located just inside the entry gate behind home plate, a 2,800-square-foot team store is open daily during spring training.

■ PLAYING FIELD DIMENSIONS

Center Field	414 ft.
Right Field Alley	384 ft.
Right Field Line	343 ft.

■ VIDEO BOARD
A new 15'6" by 36' HD video board from Daktronics was installed in 2017.

■ BASEBALL BOARDWALK
A 19,000-square-foot wooden concourse stretches around the outfield to provide 360-degree pedestrian circulation. It also features a full-liquor tiki bar with seating for up to 69 fans at a time.

■ GROUP SEATING
Three party areas located on the boardwalk are available to groups and can seat a total of 276 fans. Suites are also available for group purchase on a per-season or per-game basis.

RAYS IN THE HALL OF FAME
Wade Boggs was the first player in team history to be inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame. He was elected in 2005 by the Baseball Writers' Association of America. Boggs spent the final two seasons (1998-99) of his playing career in Tampa Bay. Fred McGriff was unanimously elected by the Contemporary Baseball Era Committee on December 4, 2022. He played two stints (1998–2001, 2004) with his hometown Rays. For more information, visit the "Hall of Famers" team pages at baseballhall.org.

RAYS HALL OF FAME

THE RAYS HALL OF FAME WAS ESTABLISHED IN 2023 IN CELEBRATION OF THE ORGANIZATION'S 25TH ANNIVERSARY SEASON.

The Rays Hall of Fame was created in order to celebrate former players, managers, coaches, broadcasters and executives who made exemplary contributions to the franchise. The inaugural class included senior advisor Don Zimmer, who spent more time with the Rays than any other organizations during his 66 seasons in professional baseball, Tampa native and Hall of Fame third baseman Wade Boggs, and star homegrown outfielder Carl Crawford. The three inaugural members were inducted during the 2023 season. The inductees are honored in Tropicana Field's Gate 1 Rotunda and in a historical alcove located in the left field concourse.

The 2024 Rays Hall of Fame class includes longtime broadcaster Dave Wills, who served as the radio voice of Rays baseball for 18 seasons, and National Baseball Hall of Famer Fred McGriff, a Tampa native who played parts of five seasons in Tampa Bay and was a member of the Devil Rays inaugural roster.

WILL VRAGOVIC / TAMPA BAY RAYS

WADE BOGGS / THIRD BASEMAN

INDUCTED 2023 YEARS WITH RAYS 1998-99, 2001

After 16 major league seasons with the Red Sox and Yankees that saw him collect countless accolades, including a 1996 World Series championship in the Bronx, H.B. Plant High School graduate Wade Boggs chose to return home to suit up for the majors' newest franchise, signing with the Tampa Bay Devil Rays in December 1997. Boggs brought experience, credibility and veteran leadership as the club navigated its first two seasons. He recorded the first home run and RBI in franchise history on Opening Day in 1998. On August 7, 1999, he became the first player to join the illustrious 3,000-hit club in a Devil Rays uniform. His homer off Cleveland's Chris Haney made him the first player in major league history to record his 3,000th hit via the long ball. The location of his iconic home run remains marked by a yellow seat in Section 144 at Tropicana Field.

Throughout his career, the 12-time All-Star won five AL batting titles, eight Silver Slugger awards and a pair of Gold Gloves at third base. He was the first player to have his number retired by the Devil Rays when his No. 12 was hung in the rafters of Tropicana Field in 2000. Following his playing career, Boggs returned to Tampa Bay for a stint as the Devil Rays hitting coach during the 2001 season. He was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2005, becoming the first player from the Tampa Bay region to earn the honor.

> "I was very fortunate to wear many hats — that of a player, assistant general manager, a hitting coach and even, with my partner, a broadcaster with Dewayne Staats. But that hat that I will wear now that I'm most proud of, that will be the hat of a Tampa Bay Rays Hall of Famer."

TAMPA BAY TIMES

CARL CRAWFORD / OUTFIELDER

INDUCTED 2023 YEARS WITH RAYS 2002-10

Widely regarded as the organization's first homegrown star, Carl Crawford bridged the gap between the Devil Rays and Rays eras, developing from a second-round selection in 1999 into a four-time All-Star. "CC" was one of the most dynamic players in the majors during his time in Tampa Bay, pacing the AL in triples and steals four times each in addition to winning Silver Slugger and Gold Glove awards to cap his Rays tenure in 2010. He was the first player in Rays history to earn All-Star Game MVP honors, taking home the accolade in 2009 following his iconic leaping catch at the outfield wall to prevent a potential go-ahead home run in the 7th inning. Crawford played an integral role in transitioning into the Rays era, helping the club to division titles in 2008 and 2010 in addition to a World Series run in 2008.

Crawford remains the Rays all-time leader in batting average (.296), hits (1,480), triples (105), stolen bases (409) and sacrifice hits (31). He holds club single-season records for steals (60, 2009), triples (19, 2004) and runs (110, 2010) and owns a share of the major league record with six stolen bases in one game, which he accomplished on May 3, 2009 against the Red Sox.

Tropicana Field's left-field was shortened to its current height of 4 feet, 11 inches during Crawford's Rays tenure in order to give him the opportunity to further showcase his defensive skills. "It's Carl's wall," Rays principal owner Stuart Sternberg told MLB.com on the day of Crawford's induction ceremony.

> "It was just like home, like a second home. I was 17 years old when I got drafted and came here to Tampa for the first time. Felt like I grew up here, learned a lot of stuff here, so it definitely had a special place in my heart."

FRED McGRIFF / FIRST BASEMAN

INDUCTION DATE Sept. 1, 2024 YEARS WITH RAYS 1998-2001, 2004

One of the most productive hitters in the Devil Rays era, Fred McGriff was acquired by Tampa Bay from the Atlanta Braves following 14 seasons, four All-Star selections, an All-Star Game MVP trophy, three Silver Slugger awards, six top-10 MVP finishes and a 1995 World Series title. He was also the first player in the modern era to win a home run title in both leagues, claiming the American League crown in 1989 before earning the National League title in 1992. Famously cut from Tampa's Thomas Jefferson High School baseball team as a sophomore, McGriff's hard work and perseverance led to a ninth-round selection by the Yankees in the 1981 First-Year Player Draft out of high school. Six years later, he began his big league career with the Blue Jays. The left-handed slugger served as Tampa Bay's clean-up hitter over the club's four seasons of existence before returning for a brief 27-game stint to conclude his career in 2004, hitting 99 homers and collecting 359 RBI over 577 games in a Devil Rays uniform.

McGriff is the Rays all-time leader in OPS (.864) and ranks second in both on-base percentage (.380) and slugging percentage (.484). He also sits among the club's leaders in walks (5th, 359), RBI (7th, 359), home runs (8th, 99), extra-base hits (T8th, 202) and games played (10th, 577).

The Tampa native made his fifth and final All-Star Game in 2000, his last full season with the Devil Rays. McGriff was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2023, becoming the fourth Tampa Bay native in the Hall, along with Wade Boggs, Tony La Russa and Al Lopez. He joined Boggs as the only former Rays players to be enshrined.

> "[This] means the world to me growing up and living in Tampa Bay. This is home. It will always be my home. And I will have a connection forever with the Tampa Bay Rays. Thank you from the bottom of my heart.

DAVE WILLS / BROADCASTER

INDUCTION DATE April 14, 2024 YEARS WITH RAYS 2005-23

For 18 seasons, the booming, distinct voice of longtime Rays radio announcer Dave Wills was synonymous with Rays baseball. Wills was behind the microphone for some of the most iconic moments in franchise history, including World Series runs in 2008 and 2020 and Game 162 against the Yankees in 2011. His infectious personality, passion for storytelling and ability to make anyone laugh made him a fan favorite and, along with partner Andy Freed, half of one of the top broadcasting duos in the majors.

Before joining the Rays, Wills spent 11 years calling games on White Sox radio broadcasts in his native Chicago after beginning his play-by-play career with the minor-league Kane County Cougars from 1991-95. He also served as the radio play-by-play voice for the University of Illinois-Chicago's men's basketball team from 1997-2005 in addition to other miscellaneous broadcast work.

Wills passed away on March 5, 2023 at the age of 58, but his impact on the Rays organization will be felt for years to come.

> "I've described him as somebody you ran towards. There are those rare people who, when you see them, you just want to be next to them and hear them. We were so fortunate, and we knew that all along. Nobody epitomized what it was like being a Ray and what it meant to be a part of this organization more than Dave Wills did."

DON ZIMMER / SENIOR ADVISOR

INDUCTED 2023 YEARS WITH RAYS 2004-14

Baseball lifer Don Zimmer was the first member of the Rays Hall of Fame, having been inducted during a pregame ceremony on April 2, 2023. He spent 66 years and parts of eight decades working in professional baseball, but his 11 years with the Rays were his most with any franchise. Of those 66 years, 56 were spent in the majors as a player, coach and manager. "Zim" reached the postseason 19 times, winning a total of six World Series championships. Zimmer, who moved to the Tampa Bay region in the late 1950s, relished the opportunity to come home and join the then-Devil Rays in 2004. He played a crucial role in the development of the organization's prospects, including Carl Crawford and Evan Longoria.

Despite working in a front office capacity with the franchise, he continued to wear a uniform each year, with his number reflecting his total years in pro baseball. He was a senior advisor with the Rays for the final 11 years of his life.

Zimmer passed away on June 4, 2014 at age 83, but his value to the organization continues to endure. His No. 66 was retired by the Rays in 2015 and the annual team MVP award still carries his name.

> "He was one of the most charismatic and iconic personalities our sport has ever seen. With a career spanning an incredible 66 years, Don was a true legend in the game."
